Scouts and Cubs
"C" Pack Cubs, who meet at Thornhill United Church, visited the North York Fire Station April 22 and enjoyed an hour and a half of viewing the fire-fighting equipment.

One hundred and twenty-nine Scouts and 23 leaders from York Summit participated in "Operation Blisters" last weekend. All but one boy, who became ill, finished the 20-mile hike from Devil's Glen Provincial Park to the cave at Collingwood. They were driven to the Bruce Trail Friday evening and hiked Saturday and Sunday.

The weather was beautiful and in spite of the heavy blanket of snow in the Collingwood area, it was quite warm hiking. Each boy carried food and equipment on his back and prepared his own meals. A hundred and ten pounds of steak was consumed.

For 40 of the boys this was their second year, so they now have credit for 40 miles towards their explorer's badges. The other boys earned credits for the 20-miles hiked and most of them enjoyed it so much that they have promised to be back again next year for "Operation Blisters Number 3".

The 2nd Thornhill Scouts who meet at Henderson Avenue School are now starting a study of canoeing.

Neighborhood Notes

The father and son banquet for the 1st Langstaff boys will begin at 6:30 pm and not at 7 as quoted earlier, in the Lions Hall, Spruce Avenue.

It's soccer time again and many young lads took the opportunity last year to play on a team. More youngsters are needed for the teams this year and if your son is interested please call 884-2788, 884-5088 or 884-6317. It is hoped to have approximately 300 boys participating.

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millard, 75 Dufferin Street, Richmond Hill, formerly of Richvale on their 60th wedding anniversary.

Lions Clubs of Richmond Hill, Richvale and Thornhill have combined to raise the necessary funds for a little boy of seven to be flown with his mother to a Philadelphia hospital for a very delicate operation.

Little Philip Jensen and Mrs. Jensen of Walmer Road, Richmond Hill, are now at the U.S. hospital, but results of the surgery are not yet known. This is just one example of the wonderful work that Lions are doing so willingly.

Richvale Lions are planning a stag to be held in Richmond Hill Lions Hall on May 23. Proceeds will help a young lad in Maple paralyzed after a hockey accident go on with his education and later to be self-supporting. Any gentlemen of the area wishing to assist may obtain tickets by calling Lion Ian Coxworthy at 884-7009.

Lion Bill Hemmings has returned from a vacation spent in the sunny south.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Janet, and Barry Maybury was best man. Ushers were Ken Rumble and Larry Armstrong.

The bride wearing a gown of white organza lace and shoulder length veil was given in marriage by her father.

A dinner attended by 60 people, including four grandmothers wearing corsages of sweetheart roses and two grandfathers was held at the Place de Royale Restaurant in Brampton. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Proud grandparents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson of Edgar Avenue.
