Members interested in a car rally being held this Saturday by the Couples' Club of Richmond Hill United Church are asked to call Valerie or Bob McKittrick at 884-4270.

Welcomed at the 10.30 am service at St. Mary's Anglican Church last Sunday was the Ven. Harold Johnson, Archdeacon of the Diocese, as the third in the series of special stewardship preachers.

Society Honors Gladys McLatchy

Under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society, a record meeting was held April 28, in the Lions Hall, to honor President Gladys McLatchy for her long term of office, serving as secretary for 25 years.

On behalf of the members, R. D. Little presented her with a handsome hand-crafted silver pendant and matching bracelet, of beautiful design, centred with interlocking trilliums and ornamental green and black malachite, a copper mineral which was used by the Czars of Russia for embellishment of their ornate cathedrals.

On making this presentation, Mr. Little read a poem he had composed especially for the occasion: This is the night we toast our Gladys:

For five and twenty years she's had us
Admiring her merit, tact,
She's been a dandy, that's a fact.
Not only for our local charge,
But for the OHA at large,
Some secretaries we've been told
Are often worth their weight in gold.
Alas, we have no gold to fling,
But silver is the next best thing.
And so we hope this silver gift
Will give your valiant heart a lift.
And in the lifting, bring to mind
That horticulturists are kind,
And decent sort of people,
So tonight we thought we'd let you know,
How we appreciate your years
Of service — it should call for cheers
And then mayhap there is a chance
This gift could lead to some romance.
That little fellow, sly young cupid,
Isn't always just that stupid.
Now, as our president we know
You'll carry on the jolly show;
We wish you sunny skies above,
And end this ditty with our love.

Another surprise for the "Past Secretary" was when Mayor William Lazenby presented her with the citizen's award, the Town Crest, in the form of a brooch, on behalf of the Town of Richmond Hill.

Doug Boyd described in detail, the propagation and care of chrysanthemums from the time of separation of the sprouts to the first frost, when a paper bag should be placed over each plant.

A lively question and answer period followed this demonstration.

New members were introduced and each presented with a carnation boutonniere.

A huge birthday cake devised and designed in the kitchens of Mesdames Elsie MacKay and Eric Boyd, beautifully decorated and illuminated with 25 candles and complemented by vases of pink rosebuds, centred the special tea-table convened by Mrs. W. E. LeClaire.

All families interested in camping are cordially invited to a special program being sponsored by the Mary and Martha Guild this Saturday at 7.30 pm at the church.

An illustrated talk will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Draffin of Scarborough, regarding their experiences at Camp Goforth in Southwestern Ontario, and slides will be shown of their recent Cross-Canada trip. Refreshments will be served.

Richmond Masonic Lodge No. 23, AF & AM enjoyed its annual visitation with Strongsville Masonic Lodge No. 728, Ohio, last weekend. Worshipful Master Mark Stewart, his wife, Joan, members and their wives were on hand to welcome Worshipful Master Richard Saylor, his wife, Ruth, District Deputy Grand Master John Molnar and wife Ethel, and 74 members and wives who arrived in the Hill at noon on Saturday, having travelled from Ohio by two chartered buses.

Staying in the Emerald Isle Motel, Yonge Street, they were entertained in a hospitality room at the motel in the afternoon, and in the evening at dinner at the Summit View Gardens Restaurant in Jefferson.

Following dinner the men adjourned to the lodge and their wives remained to hear an interesting and informative talk by Mrs. Eleanor Brown, an interior designer from Simpson's, afterwards joining their husbands at the lodge for a gala party with dancing and refreshments.

On Sunday morning they all met for brunch at the Summit View Gardens Restaurant before the visitors left for Ohio, with members of the local lodge and their wives giving them a royal sendoff.

Three delegates from York Central Hospital Auxiliary Area Chairman Mrs. Robert Silcox, Mrs. C. Hall, representing the gift shop and Mrs. H. Burgess, the newsletter (Coral Ear) attended the Spring Conference of District No. 7 Ontario Hospital Auxiliaries Association held April 22 in Bowmanville.

During the morning session, R. Elston, administrator of Bowmanville Memorial Hospital, addressed the members present, with obvious warm appreciation of auxiliary members in general and of his auxiliary in particular.

Mr. Elston suggested that the future held much greater responsibilities for the auxiliaries, as the hospitals widen their horizons, and health and welfare, from the cradle to the grave, becomes the established pattern for all citizens, and underscored his comments with a quotation taken from a speech of the late John F. Kennedy "ask not why that which is, is not, is not" and commended it to the audience for their meditation.

Mrs. A. G. Edmunds, president of the Ontario Auxiliaries Association, addressed the audience of more than 200 delegates on volunteer services in small hospitals. From an assessment of her remarks, it would appear, in consideration, that the YCHA is nicely in the position of being part of a small to medium hospital that "thinks big" and is ready to roll up its corporate sleeves and move on to greater service when expansion time arrives.

After a family style luncheon the afternoon session began with a question and answer period moderated in an outgoing, friendly and informative way by Miss Winnifred Shorter, coordinator of auxiliary volunteer services.

At 3 pm, members were entertained at a tea and tour of Bowmanville Memorial Hospital.

Recent weekend guests of Margaret and Neville Cross, Wenlock Street, were Miss Barbara Reynolds and George Bulger, both of Boston, and Sue and Tom Bankman of Northampton, Mass.

During their previous visits, this delightful American contingent has made many friends in the Hill who were delighted to meet them again at a party given by the Crosses on Saturday evening.

On Sunday morning they visited antique stores and in the afternoon were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas-Crampton at their country home in Maple.

Members of the Richmond Hill United Church are reminded of the meeting being held May 13 in Richmond Hill United Church. The guest speaker will be Mrs. D. Penfold, who will talk on pensions.

Tickets will be on sale for the outings in June — the right change would be appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williamson of Yonge Street North spent a very pleasant weekend in Peterboro visiting Edward Humpage and his niece, Mrs. Wardell Carter.

Another niece, Miss Hilda Harris of Staffordshire, England, was just concluding a three-month stay with her uncle and the Williamsons, who were former neighbors of her parents in England, enjoyed seeing her and hearing news of their hometown.

Dr. Walter James Harvey, 98, Toronto optometrist, passed away April 28. Until two days before his death he operated a correspondence school in optometry for people in underdeveloped countries.

Educated in the United States, he opened an optometry office on Queen Street West before 1910 and later moved to Spadina Avenue, where he added a clinic, the Royal College of Science, and trained dozens of optometrists before closing the clinic in the 1920's.

Sympathy is extended to his wife, Mary, of 215 Church Street South, and son, James.

David and Royden Rabinowitch of London, Ontario, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabinowitch, Kerrybrook Drive, were among the 228 persons awarded Canada Council grants.

These go to artists in early stages of their professional careers and are intended to finance a year of work or study.

Both talented young sculptors, David has just completed a showing of his works at the Carmen Lamanna Gallery in Toronto.

The ladies' auxiliary to Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion, held its monthly general meeting with President Joan Dickson in the chair. All committees reported work completed for the month.

Auxiliary members were honored guests at the honors and awards dinner held last Saturday when a surprise presentation of a meritorious service certificate was made by Branch President Doug Hopson to President Dickson, who on behalf of the auxiliary, thanked the branch for the honor bestowed on them.

Included in the program at the benefit concert being given May 28 by the Richmond Hill Symphony Orchestra will be excerpts from the Sound of Music, Beethoven's First Symphony, Masquerade Waltz and Dance of the Rose Maidens by Khachaturian and Orpheus of the Underworld by Offenbach.

Proceeds from the concert, being held in the Richmond Hill Arena, will go towards the completion of the Centennial Pool, a project the orchestra has undertaken along with several other organizations in the Hill.

The York Chorale will be singing several numbers and the blending of their fine voices with the accomplished playing of the orchestra, is an unbeatable combination.

This Thursday at 8 pm the orchestra is presenting a concert at Pickering College — this is open to the public and well worth attending.

Twelve members of the 4th Richmond Hill Scout Ladies' Auxiliary met at the home of Shirley Reisenweber, 234 Altamira on April 21 and wrote invitations for the annual bridge marathon wind-up party being held May 27 at St. Mary's Anglican Church.

The auxiliary expresses sincere thanks to all those who have supported the twice monthly bridge games held throughout the winter. Anyone interested in participating next fall in a regular bridge night (50 cents a night) is asked to phone Shirley Fifield at 884-2993 right away and register.

Scouts of the district who have qualified for the equivalent of Queen's Scout status will be honored at a ceremony to be held May 9 at Bayview Secondary School. Refreshments will be provided by the local ladies' auxiliaries.

Congratulations to those Scouts and Venturers of the 4th who successfully completed the 20 mile hike on April 24 from Devil's Glen Provincial Park on the Bruce Trail, laden with 25 lb. packs.

Circle your calendars for May 20 when the wind-up meeting will be held at the Fontainebleau Restaurant in Willowdale. Meet your new slate of officers and have a night out on the town.

Just A Little For Me!

The evening is just beginning and anticipation of the White Rose Ball at the Inn On The Park adds an infectious gaiety to the guests attending the pre-dance party held on Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hannah on Driscoll Road.

The ball, an annual event, sponsored by the York Central Hospital Auxiliary, attracted over 440 guests, who, after dining in the elegant Centennial Room, enjoyed dancing to the popular Frank Bogart and his Orchestra.

Draw prizes were won by Mrs. R. Davis of 131 Oak Avenue, Richvale, Mrs. Michael Birse, 194 Baythorn Drive, Thornhill and the Blue Hills Academy.

Arrangements are well underway for the Flower Fair to be held May 13 from 6 - 9 pm at St. Gabriel's Anglican Church.

Along with the sale of box plants and bulbs, there will be a bake table, hot dog stand and fish pond for the children.

A special display of Indian and Eskimo curios will be an added feature.

Next Sunday will be Christian Family Day at Richmond Hill United Church.

The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered and parents wishing to have children baptized are asked to attend the parents' class this Thursday at 7 pm and contact the church secretary at 884-1301.

Scouts and Cubs will attend the service.

John D'Allesandro and Bob McDonald, cast members of The Taming of The Shrew, Bayview Secondary School's entry in the Simpson's Collegiate Drama Festival, have been invited, at the personal invitation of Dennis Sweeting, to take part in a drama workshop next Saturday morning at the University of Waterloo, where the province-wide finals will start on Friday.

Bob won the best actor award for his role as Grumio in the Bayview production and the play came in 4th place.

At the April meeting of the 1st Beverley Acres Scouts and Cubs the new group committee was elected with Chris Steel as chairman, Ruby Ejarasson, secretary and Fred Wetton, treasurer.

The group is currently selling boxes of spring plants — petunias, marigolds and alyssum — for 55 cents a box, with all proceeds towards Scouting activities. Orders may be placed by calling 884-7065.

On April 25, a combined group of 46 Scouts and Cubs, with six leaders had a most informative and interesting tour of the Toronto Telegram building.

A group of Gilbert and Sullivan enthusiasts met on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Vermeulen, Centre Street East and with Dennis Stainer at the piano, enjoyed an evening of singing pieces from their favorite light operas.

A recent request in this column for the loan of copies of any Gilbert and Sullivan operas, brought a very good response, and thanks are extended to all who responded so promptly.

Show Biz!

Playing the role of June in the musical "Gypsy" being presented this Thursday, Friday and Saturday by the Thornhill Theatre of the Performing Arts is Jennifer Morton, well known to local audiences for her performances with the Curtain Club and Richmond Hill High School. Included among her professional engagements is taking part in the Grandstand Show at the CNE.

In the role of Tulsa, the young dancer who elopes with June, is Brian Toogood, also of Richmond Hill, who has studied at the National Ballet School and appeared many times with the National Ballet. He is now a professional actor and dancer and will be playing the leading singing and dancing role in "Happy Valley" shortly to be seen at the St. Lawrence Centre. His younger brother and sister are also in the cast of "Gypsy" as newsboys.
