At the United Church Women's meeting at the Manse on May 11, the guest speaker was Mrs. Faye Wills of Victoria Square.

Mrs. Wills had spent a year teaching home economics, sewing and related subjects to the Eskimo women and girls of Frobisher Bay on Baffin Island. She had a good selection of slides to show depicting the people, their homes and other buildings and scenery of the area.

The slides made it obvious that the people of the far north live a very different life from ours.

The meeting was chaired by President Mrs. Elmer Leck, and the worship service was taken by Mrs. Wes Clark.

An advance collection was taken to purchase Christmas gifts for the Victor Home, and the members also agreed to provide two dozen loaves of bread in sandwiches for the Fred Victor Mission.

Several youngsters from Headford participated in "An Evening With The Arts" at Mark II Senior Public School on May 13. The pupils presented a very full program which included poetry reading, music, art displays, a fashion show and a four-act play.

Proceeds from the evening will assist the grade 8 classes who are taking a trip to Ottawa next month.

Coached by Ron Leuschner with assistance from George Clark and Tom Dunleavy, the Headford Ladies' Baseball Team had their first practice at No. 4 School on May 14.

Although the team is not yet playing championship ball, they looked very smart in fluorescent lemon-lime colored sweaters.

Puffing and panting, the team adjourned after practice to the home of Pete and Leona Vanderkoooy for refreshments.

A final reminder that Saturday is the day of the Walk of Ages to assist Union Villa. Some of the youngsters from Headford who are walking are Joyce Horne, Julie Dunleavy, Steven Leuschner, John Mikucki and Michael Dunleavy.

All these children need more sponsors to make their walk worthwhile. A pledge of ten cents per mile comes to $2 if the walker completes the 20 miles. Five sponsors giving this makes the walkers contribution to Union Villa $10. When the children are so willing to help, the adults should help, too.

Neighborhood Notes

Best wishes for a happy birthday go this week to Georgie Burton who celebrates May 20.

John and Marilyn Rumble and a group of friends rented a school bus and travelled to Bobcaygeon in time to open the pickerel season at midnight May 9. However the fish were not as enthusiastic as the Rumbles and only two made themselves available.

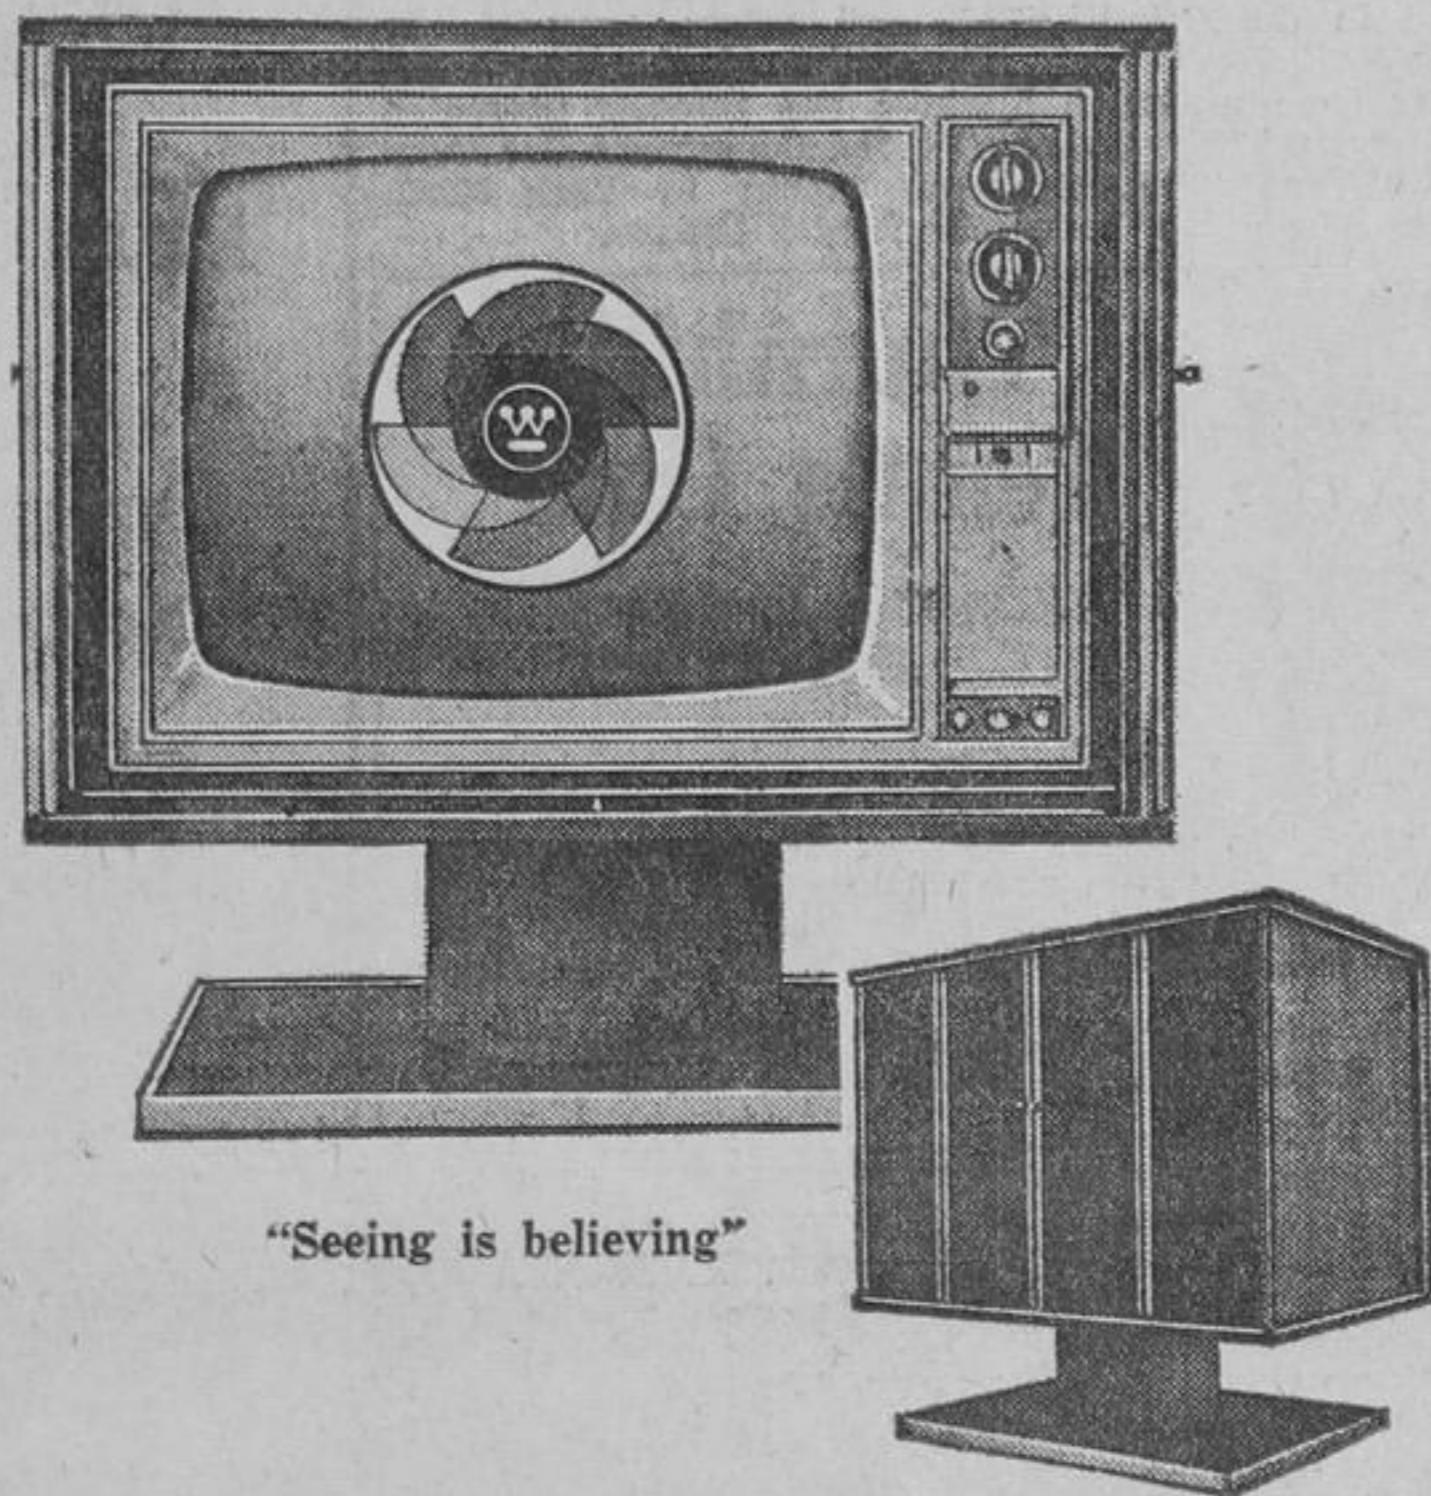

Harry Burton and family spent the holiday weekend with his brother, Ray Burton, and family in Woodville.
