Anniversary Party
Lewis Levine of Green Gables Manor sent us a letter telling how much Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Doner appreciated the gifts, cards and visits on the occasion of their 62nd wedding anniversary.

The sound of the organ playing "Here Comes The Bride" greeted them as they came down to the living room which was decorated for a party complete with ice cream and cake.

Approximately 40 people were on hand the afternoon of April 15 to help the couple celebrate.

Their Gormley neighbors presented them with a plant and the ladies' sewing circle, where Mrs. Doner served so faithfully for years, gave them a lovely basket of fresh fruit. Mr. Levine adds that both are exceptionally well and are up and around, ready to welcome any visitors.

The mayor will also have a seat (the only one for the township) on the regional council.

Union Villa Auxiliary Needs More Volunteers For August Opening

Residents will be moving into Union Villa Home for the Aged about August 15 and at a meeting May 7, members of the Union Villa Auxiliary were reminded that many more volunteers will be needed to provide a variety of services.

Mrs. Dorothy Dowse, who is in charge of volunteers, said the programs to be offered will depend on the people available to run them. Some areas are: physical fitness, teaching and discussion groups, arts and crafts, sewing, music, gift and tuck shop, library and hairdressing.

People with special talents are invited to offer their ideas and services for other programs for the senior citizens who will call Union Villa "home". Volunteers will give as much or as little time as they can spare, but they have to be organized early, the members were told.

One such service is in full swing. Mrs. Connie Taylor, director of the stenographic pool, reported that her workers have been very busy with correspondence for the tenders for furniture, the laying of the cornerstone, and the Walk of Ages scheduled for May 23.

For the convenience of people in the Richmond Hill area who would like to offer their services or to make enquiries, but do not want to call long distance, Mrs. Elizabeth Walker has offered to provide a clearing house and pass on requests to the auxiliary executive. She can be reached at 884-3516 after 4:30 pm.

The auxiliary is also concerned with raising money, and Treasurer Mrs. Jean Harper reported a balance on hand of $3,164, with another $300 yet to come in. The latter is payment for a road count done by 21 members for Markham Township.

Commented President Mrs. Beryl Lunney, "No job is too big or too small for the ladies of the auxiliary."

Membership Convener Mrs. Dorothy Dyer reported that membership now stands at 100.

Social Secretary Mrs. Trudy Creamer asked that she be notified of dates of events planned on behalf of Union Villa so that conflict can be avoided. Some people, she said, had put their names down for block parties, but have given no date. They were advised that dates must be given as soon as possible so that a speaker can be arranged.

The auxiliary's first big commitment is to furnish the auditorium at Union Villa at an estimated cost of $3,500, and the next big fund raising project will be a tea and fashion show from 2 to 4:30 pm at the home of Mrs. Vincent DeMarco on Doncaster Drive north of Steeles Avenue.

The seven-acre estate with patio and swimming pool will be thrown open to guests of the auxiliary and as an added attraction there will be an organ selection played by Mrs. Gladys Kenney of Unionville and a gift booth featuring a "post office".

Gifts for this booth will be mailed from various places and sold as received (stamp collectors please note).

The fashion show will be presented twice, at 2:30 and at 3:30 pm, and a handmade bedspread donated by Mrs. Mary Zak will be on display and raffle tickets sold.

The auxiliary will also be taking part in two other local events. It will operate a gift booth at the Unionville Festival on June 6, and it will run a food booth at the Kiwanis Art Show in Markham Arena June 4 to 7.

Social Convener Mrs. Eileen Hill will be in charge of the food booth.

Individuals have shown ingenuity in contributing to the work of the auxiliary. Mrs. Grace Millson, the holder of the winning ticket in the crib quilt raffle, re-raffled the quilt and used the money to buy gifts for the Union Villa gift shop.

Mrs. Kathleen Weyman is planning to hand-print and frame "The Beatitudes For Friends of the Aged" which will be hung in the auxiliary's room.

at Union Villa. Members were told that Mrs. Mary Stiver has completed her research in locating and selecting the smocks which will be worn by auxiliary members and is now ready to accept orders.

Mrs. Janet Patterson is a member of the board of directors as well as an auxiliary member, and as chairman of the furnishing committee was largely responsible for having a model room ready for visitors who toured the building following the laying of the cornerstone on May 2.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be at 8 pm June 4 in the Kennedy Clinic Auditorium, Unionville, and visitors are invited.

Bill Crothers Fires Starting Gun For Union Villa Walk Saturday

On your mark! Get set, BANG!

And, as Track Star Bill Crothers fires the starting gun, away will go about 1,000 walkers in this Saturday's Walk of Ages at 8 am from the community centre in Unionville. For the past few weeks the walkers have been collecting sponsors, who will pay them a pre-arranged amount for each mile they walk. And the money will go for the building of Union Villa, the senior citizens' home on Highway 7 in Unionville. Sponsors are reminded that all donations are tax deductible.

There is still time for anyone who wants to walk to get in it. If you have trouble getting a sponsor just phone any of these numbers — daytime, 294-2302 or 297-2822; evening, 297-1722. You can also find out how to get a trip kit, giving a map of the route, a sponsor sheet, etc.

Briefly, the walk covers 20 miles. It starts at Unionville Community Centre and ends there. And a dozen or so cars will be patrolling the route at all times for walkers who acquire a blister or wish to drop out. Also the St. John Ambulance Brigade has very kindly offered to be present in case of any minor emergency. And full co-operation has been assured by the OPP and police of the Town of Markham and township.

Prizes are being offered in a number of categories — for the first to finish, the youngest and oldest to finish. These will be presented at a monster dance in Unionville Arena in the evening, to which all walkers are invited free. Each walker will also be presented with a handsome scroll which can be mounted and serve as a souvenir for years to come.

There is still time to get in on the walk. Find out how to register on Friday evening at the arena, from 6 to 9 pm or on Saturday morning starting at 7 am. Bill Crothers, well known marathon runner and Markham druggist, will fire the starter's pistol at 8 am on Saturday.

Neighborhood Notes

Birthday greetings to Karen Wood who will celebrate May 22. Peter Harrison and Dick Greenfield on May 20, George Williams May 24 and Fred Broom May 25.

Mrs. Carrie Read of Bathurst Street had her family home for Mother's Day weekend. George and family came from Camp Borden and Mary, Grant, Donnie and Marie Drury came from Stouffville.

For the plant and rummage sale at Carrville United Church May 23, from 1 to 4, everyone is asked to attend, rain or shine. Arrangements are being made for shelter in the event of rain. Members of the UCW have been working and planning for this event for several weeks.

Anyone unable to attend may place an order for delivery by calling 884-2552.

Several members of this community attended the annual inspection of 778 Squadron Air Cadets in Richmond Hill Arena May 14. 621 Squadron Air Cadet Band from Scarborough demonstrated how talented and dedicated this group of boys from 13 up can be. The band had just returned from Expo 70 where they received high praise for their drill and music.

778 Squadron's drill team impressed everyone with its precision and singing. Lieut. George Wood, LAC Dannie Rivait, LAC Larry Wade, Corp. Bob Purves, Sergeant Wayne Good and Corp. Leonard Allen are members from this area.

Following the inspection the cadets hosted families and friends at a luncheon in the lower lounge.

Little Adam Celsie is very happy his injuries were not too serious when he fell from his bike Tuesday. He received a nasty bump on the head and bruises. Adam is also grateful to all the people who showed concern in helping to send him by ambulance to the hospital where he was examined, stitched and released to a very thankful mother.

BIG RIDER

Now that we've got your attention:
Before you buy any new car, Value Drive a Chevy Impala!

Because with Impala, value is standard equipment — all the way! Things like computer-selected springs, flush-and-dry rocker panels to fight rust, side-guard door beams. For protection, the standard 350-cu.-in. V8 that uses regular gas.

The inside story of Impala is a big one. Plenty of head, leg, hip and shoulder room. Rich fabrics, supple vinyls and foam padding for big comfort. There's 18-cu.-ft. of trunk. These are just some of Impala's value features. We haven't even touched on Impala's high style or high resale value.

Now it's big trading time. The number one time to get the number one car. Take one big Value Drive at your Chevrolet dealer's today . . . and find out why.
