going PLACES meeting PEOPLE

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Douglas of June St., Downsview, who celebrate their first wedding anniversary, June 28.

Cathy Hynd, Gosling Road, Maple, was guest of honour at two bridal showers last week. Mrs. Jean Lawson, also of Gosling Road, was hostess for a lovely miscellaneous shower, June 16, when friends and neighbors gave the surprised bride-to-be a host of beautiful and useful gifts. On June 18, Cathy's girl friends attended a personal shower at the home of Cathy Hunt, with Brenda Willis as co-hostess.

Cathy Hunt is to be maid of honor and Brenda Willis is to be bridesmaid. The girls gave Cathy beautiful personal items which she will treasure for many years.

During the week beginning June 7, two major events were taking place in Halifax, Nova Scotia, namely the mayors and reeves national convention and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. A great many of the commissioners and delegates to these events visited St. Paul's Anglican Church, the oldest Christian Church in Canada, founded in 1749. Among those visitors were Reeve Garnet Williams of Vaughan and Rev. B. F. Andrew of St. Andrew's and St. Paul's Presbyterian Churches.

On entering the vestibule of this grand old church, one is confronted by the metal arch and the bronze doors which were placed as a memorial to the men who served in World War I.

These impressive doors were gift from the Crown, but it was the legend of dedication on the arch which was of particular interest to our visitors. It reads "To the Glory of God In Memory of William James Armitage, MA, Ph.D., Canon and Arch-deacon of Halifax, Hon. Lt. Col. and Chaplain 66th Regiment P.L.F. Who Was Rector of St. Paul's Church, Ministered To This Congregation With Outstanding Fidelity For Nearly A Generation And Whose Fruitful Life And Earnest Labors To Enrich And Preserve This Historic Edifice Are Commemorated By The Creation of A Memorial Fund For Its Perpetual Care And The Erection Of These Doors Of Remembrance, 1897-1929."

After talking with Dr. Ramsey Armitage of St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Mr. Andrew confirms that this memorial is indeed dedicated to Dr. Armitage's father. It would seem that Dr. Armitage has followed very well in his footsteps dedicating his life to one of distinguished service to his church, his community and to his country.

The historic church of St. Paul's Anglican in Halifax has many fascinating memorials connected with early history of Canada, including the long iron spike that was blown by the Halifax explosion and is still embedded in the masonry above the iron gates and the broken window, preserved as it was after the explosion which leaves the shape of a man's head; and the memorial of Midshipman John Samwell, died June 1813 when the American frigate "Chesapeake" was captured — a battle which lasted only 14 minutes.

The family and friends of Jack Fortin, Lancer Drive, are most proud of his achievements since leaving his post as administrative manager of operating rooms at Toronto General Hospital. He has passed the qualifying exams at OCE and will be teaching music and commercial subjects at Winston Churchill Collegiate in Scarborough in the fall as well as continuing his studies at York University.

Our readers may recall that it is the same Mr. Fortin who is working on plans for a band in Maple in co-operation with MARC. We are most fortunate in having someone with this kind of drive and talent living in our midst.

Mr. Fortin plays professionally with some area bands and during the month of August will be playing at the "Tea House" on Toronto Island, August 15 and 22 and again on September 4 from 8:30 till time for the last boat, 11:30.

Miss Alma Puterbaugh celebrated her 85th birthday June 18, with a quiet dinner with her niece, with whom she lives, Miss Flossie Puterbaugh and her nephew, Percy Puterbaugh.

Miss Puterbaugh received many cards and letters of congratulations including many fraternal friends who worked with her at the Robert Simpson Co. where she was employed for many years.

We were sorry to hear that Jack Kyle of Teston had been taken to York Central Hospital last week. Although diagnosis was not definite at time of writing, he is not being allowed any visitors.

A golden wedding anniversary

IN THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE

sary celebration was given by their sons, Bob and Jim on June 14 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. James Sr., Dufferin Street, Richmond Hill. The couple were at home from 2 to 5 pm at the home of son Jim, 23 Naylor Street.

A congratulatory telegram was received from Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and a plaque from the provincial government, commemorating their marriage in Sioux Lookout on June 16, 1920.

Over 70 relatives and friends called to offer congratulations and best wishes. The tea table was decorated with a 50th anniversary cake and 50 yellow roses.

Mrs. James' sister, Miss Elizabeth Sutton of Liverpool, England, wired a corsage of yellow roses and a yellow carnation boutonniere to be worn by the couple while receiving.

Grandsons, Douglas and Brian and grand-daughters Shelley and Gail assisted at the reception.

Vaughan Historical Society met in the Joseph Gibson School, June 8, with President George Snider in their chair. A constitution and bylaws were adopted by H. C. Miller and presented.

The first project of this newly organized group is to publish the late Dr. Elmore Reaman's history of Vaughan Township. A great deal of the material was collected from the various Tweedsmuir Histories. Miss Merle Hamby of Kleinburg-Nashville Women's Institute explained how these histories originated. Most people who have heard of them are unaware that they have been compiled by the women's institutes and are the histories of individual communities.

The name Tweedsmuir is familiar to most of us as Lord Tweedsmuir was Governor-General of Canada from 1935 to 1940. Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir were concerned that so many Canadians knew so little of their own country and so little of historical value was being preserved.

Excerpts were read at the meeting including information prepared by Mrs. Bruce Snider of the Edgeley WI about the Edgeley beef ring No. 2 which at one time had 5c per pound. Other reports were presented by Mrs. E. Simpson and Mrs. Fred Constable of Vellore WI.

Presbyterian Church The regularly monthly meeting of St. Andrew's W.A.W.M.S. was held in the recreation room of Mrs. Cal Miller, Keele Street, on the evening of June 17.

The meeting opened with a call to worship by President

Mrs. Marj Robson, and the study was participated in by all, led by Mrs. Mary Lamont with the reading of an excellent article from the United Church Observer.

During the business portion of the meeting the members were reminded that the bale will be packed in St. Andrew's Church September 18 at 9:30 am, and that the rummage sale will be held September 26.

A delicious lunch was served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Eileen Brice and the hostesses.

St. Andrew's members are looking forward to the combined summer services of Maple United and their own congregation in the Presbyterian Church, beginning this Sunday and running through the month of July. Rev. Norman Boogers of Maple United will be in charge. It is important to note that these summer services will begin at 10:00 am.

Last Sunday children of the Presbyterian Sunday School were welcomed into the service for their Award Sunday. Gold pins were presented for perfect attendance and were received by grade 5 students Larry Cooper, Robbie Hudson, Chris Plunkett and Donald Stephenson. Grade 3 and 4 children receiving gold pins were Cheryl Cooper, Lisa Hudson and Neal Langeman and grades 1 and 2 children were Gordon Cooper, Kellie Hudson, David Plunkett and Valerie Stephenson while Melody Shears received a gold pin in the nursery and kindergarten class.

In the grade 6 class Joe Botrill and Anne Hills received silver pins for missing only one or two Sundays, presented by their teacher, David Langeman, assisted by Michael Hills. In the grade 5 class, Brian Bromfield received a bronze pin for missing no more than four Sundays, presented by his teacher, Mrs. Louise Cooper assisted by Cindy Lamont.

In the grades 3 and 4 class, Teacher Mrs. Linda Hudson, assisted by Bill Lamont presented a silver pin to Lynn Hoffland and bronze pins to Billy Carter and Brenda Grosse.

In the grade 1 and 2 class, Teacher Rosemary Brice, assisted by Gary Forrest, presented a silver pin to Scott Wright and bronze pins to Jamie Carter, Lindsay Creighton and David Grosse.

The children in the nursery and kindergarten class were given their awards by Teachers Gail Cooper and Sandra Sutherland. Arun Bajaj and Scott Elson received silver pins and Allison Creighton and Leslie Grosse received bronze pins.

All the other children received recognition for their attendance and a special award was given to Robbie Hudson and Gordon Cooper for their efforts in bringing friends to Sunday School.

Sunday school is now ended for the summer and will begin again September 27, at 10 am.

United Church

Members of Maple United will join with St. Andrew's Presbyterian in the latter church for the next five Sundays with Rev. Norman Boogers in charge. It should be noted that the Sunday services during July and August, will begin at 10 am.

Lions Club

The Lions barbecue held last week was most successful with approximately 600 adults and 300 children in attendance.

The Lions were generally pleased with the decision to sell only advance tickets, although they want to apologize most sincerely to those who came early without tickets and had to be turned away.

The Lions wish to thank the wives of the members who worked so hard preparing and serving the salads, desserts, etc. Special thanks to Ron Nichols of the Maple JGA for his help and co-operation.

The Voice Of Concord

School News Kevin and Debbie Sweeney, Lawrie Road, along with 55 other students from St. Robert's Separate School spent four days recently in Quebec City.

The grade 8 students were chaperoned by four teachers and two parents on the train and during their stay in the Chateau Frontenac.

Debbie particularly enjoyed a bus tour to Ste. Anne de Beaupre, and the return trip when they stopped to see an old wood brick oven. This woman also wove her own blankets.

They took a ferry ride across the St. Lawrence to Levis, went on a walking tour of the old city, complete with a walk along the boardwalk and a ride in the "ascenseur", to the lower town, a tour of the Plains of Abraham and the museum of art, Notre Dame, Canada's oldest church, the Legislative Buildings, the zoo and a ride in a caleche (a horse-drawn buggy). On the return trip they stopped in Montreal and went to Man And His World.

Sean Sweeney went on a camping trip to Algonquin Park for four days with 50 classmates. On their trip they enjoyed a scavenger hunt of nature items, seeing a beaver dam, going "mountain" climbing and fishing. Sean caught the biggest fish of all which was cooked over an open fire in drizzling rain. At night around the campfire the youngsters scared each other with ghost stories.

Concord Public School held a bicycle rodeo June 17 to promote bicycle safety. The rodeo was sponsored by the Vaughan Township Police Department and Constable Jack Hamilton presented trophies to the winners. These were: Christine Barber, a pupil in Mrs. Bonnie Keary's grade 3 class; and Deborah Smith, a pupil in Mrs. Joanne Mintz' grade 4 class.

Only a bike that passed the safety inspection was permitted to enter the rodeo. Of the 60 bicycles brought to school, only one was disqualified — because it lacked a bell. A sticker of approval was placed on every bicycle which passed inspection.

The rodeo involved riding the bike through skill testing events. Constable Hamilton gave a talk on bicycle safety in an afternoon assembly.

Miss Sandra McMurrin's grade 5 class went on a trip to Sibbald Point Provincial Park June 19, along with Gary McMurrin and his grade 7 class from Roselawn Senior School.

Principal Bryan Robinson is proud of the successes we had this year, many of which could not have been done without the help of parents and friends in the community. Many thanks to those who supported us.

Mr. and Mrs. Oman Bowes of Concord were honored by their daughters, Lillian (Mrs. Ken Poole) of Concord and Doris (Mrs. Herb McLean) of Woodbridge, at their 40th wedding anniversary, June 5.

Open house was held at Mae Watt's, Nobleton, from 6 to 9 pm and more than 200 neighbors, relatives and friends took advantage of the opportunity to extend congratulations and best wishes and present gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Bowes. Among the guests were the couples four grandchildren.

Mrs. Ellen Teetsov will teach grade 1. Mrs. Joanne Mintz will be the grade 2 teacher. John Davidson will join the staff in September and teach grades 3 and 4. Mrs. Sandra McMurrin will have grades 4 and 5. Mr. Robinson will teach grades 5

Annual Banquet

One hundred and fifty Guides and Brownies of 1st Kleinburg Guide Company and 1st, 2nd and 3rd Brownie Packs, their mothers and Guiders attended the fourth annual mother and daughter banquet May 25, in Kleinburg Junior Public School. The tables were tastefully decorated with mauve lilies and red and yellow tulips.

Local Association President Eleanor Dawson led the singing of "O Canada", the Brownies sang their special "Grace" and the Queen was toasted. Members of the UCW then served a delicious meal.

Mrs. Jean Donnerer received a gift from Mrs. Joan Goulding recognizing her excellent work as secretary of the association for the past four years. Mrs. Evelyn Taylor is the new secretary.

Division Commissioner Nora Broad, attending her first banquet since her commissioning, said this year's aim is to take Guiding into the outdoors. Deputy Area Commissioner Millcent Knight reported that "Kleinburg is one of the most energetic districts in the area. Thanks are due to all volunteer leaders of the Guides and Brownies". District Commissioner Jean Goulding said, "We have too much of the problems of youth. We are lucky to have the Guide movement — whose aim is 'Peace'."

Brown Owl Eunice Swartout presented a surprise gift to Leader Irene Gathercole — a jar of Sanka Coffee for her nerves. Brown Owl Shirley Jones was also presented with a gift by Mrs. Swartout. Mrs. Jones will be with the Guide Company next fall.

During the flying-up ceremony Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Broad and Mrs. Goulding welcomed the Brownies who received their wings into the Guide company. The 1st Guide Company marched in, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Hogg, and formed a horseshoe. The three Brownie Packs skipped in, singing their own songs and formed three circles, one around the other. The color party then marched in, flags waving, and formed the lines through which the Golden Hand 10-year-old Brownies flew. Flying up to Guides were Margaret Ferraro, Marina Watson, Kelly Maw, Ruth Ann Wilkie, Barbara Kubiak, Linda Flear and Yvonne Shaw.

Campfire singing was enjoyed and "Good night" salutes were made by Commissioners, Guiders, Guides and Brownies. The 1970-71 executive of the association will be President Eleanor Dawson, Secretary Evelyn Taylor and Treasurer Lorraine Hilliard.

Bowling Banquet

Members of Kleinburg Ladies' Bowling League met at the home of Mae Watt, RR 1, Kleinburg, May 12, for a most enjoyable meal to finalize another year of fun on the alleys. The executive chose door prizes for many lucky ladies.

President Marion Caygill acted as emcee. Mrs. Pauline Wheelband presented a corsage to the eldest member, Mrs. H. C. Balmer, 79 years old, who on her last day of bowling had a high triple handicap of 600. Mementos of a very successful bowling season went to Vera Veres with a high average of 212. Evelyn See with a high triple flat of 729, Decima Thomas with high triple handicap of 754, Shirley Phillips with high single of 371 and yours truly, Lucille Shaw, with high single handicap of 354.

The series winner was Piroshka Kaszabs' team with a narrow margin over Lorna Stair's team. Piroshka's teammates were: Jean Adamson, Vera Veres, Mary Hess, Emelie Dunne, and Sandra Park. Playoff winner was Shirley Phillips' team with Carol Keffer, Marguerite Hill, Muriel Ball, Deci Thomas and Lucille Shaw completing the roster.

A unique contest was played and when photos of each member taken a few years ago were shown and each member listed their guesses as to the identity of each picture. Your correspondent has to blow her own horn, but guess who won THAT prize as well as a door prize. You guessed it. Little old prize-winner ME!

Thanks are tendered to executive members Marion Caygill, Jean Adamson and Vera Veres for acting as the purchasing committee. All who received gifts are very grateful for the effort spent in choosing such pleasing mementos.

An informal time was enjoyed after the meal with some of the teams performing in a variety show. Piroshka Kaszabs team presented a comedy skit fit for any "Laugh In" show. Lorna Stair's team, dressed in real can-can style, danced their debut in the Folies Bergeres. Jackie Chetoff's team did an Art Linkletter show with the girls being child panelists and Mrs. Balmer emcee. Joan Loves' team played a game with clues to test our ability with similar words. A singsong was enjoyed by some while others played a few games of euchre.
