Socially Speaking In Thornhill

Honor Students Thornlea SS
On June 18 students of Thornlea Secondary School were presented with a certificate by Herb Montgomery, president of the Thornhill Branch, cancer society, in grateful recognition of their efforts in raising funds for the society. Greg Benoit, who accepted the certificate on behalf of the students, organized, on his own initiative, a 25 mile walkathon, which took place on April 25. As a result of the walkathon, the students raised $2,102.81, a remarkable achievement in one day.

The Thornhill Branch of the society reports that this amount of $2,102.80, along with that of $8,570.06, which was collected by volunteer canvassers, totaled $10,672.87, and this amount far surpassed their objective of $7,000. The society would like to extend a vote of thanks to all residents, canvassers and students for this tremendous effort. The campaign this year was under the chairmanship of Peter Boon, and he was also presented with a certificate of appreciation by the society for his efforts during the past two years.

wish them every success as they enter their second year, and to thank them for all the help they have offered the members during the past 12 months. One of the Lionettes' most notable achievements was the show of Young Thornhill Art, held at the Heintzman House May 7. The show was met with such enthusiasm that it is hoped to make it an annual event.

On June 23, the installation of new officers of the Lionettes took place at the home of Norma Leaman, Kirk Drive. Installing officers were members of the Agincourt Lionettes. Those elected to office were: Past President Gladys Gage, President Jean Marchiori, Vice-President Margaret Adams, Treasurer Sheila Macdonald and Secretary Doreen Packer. Jean Cook and Joy Meete were named directors.

Plans have now been all but finalized for the village festival to be sponsored by the Lions Club on Dominion Day in Thornhill Park, and they have received encouraging response to their requests for participation and assistance. In the event of bad weather the festival will be postponed until July 4.

handicrafts will be held at the library and children are reminded to save their summer projects for display at that time.

Guides and Brownies
Guide and Brownie leaders from the Thornhill area gathered at the home of Brown Owl Mrs. Ruth Reesor on June 17 for a pot luck luncheon to mark the end of the season. Among the 25 ladies present were Area Commissioner Mrs. Marion Currie, as well as District Commissioner Mrs. Ev Goodwin, presidents of the mothers' committees and Area Badge Secretary Doreen Marks. The ladies enjoyed a leisurely lunch in Mrs. Reesor's lovely garden under sunny skies.

Royal Conservatory Results
Following are the results obtained by young pianists in the recent Royal Conservatory of Music examinations: Grade 1 - 1st class honors, Cathy Atkins and Margaret Ball, honors, Laura Langman, Bill Wylie and Geoffrey Sprang; Grade 2 - pass, Mikel Mutari; Grade 4 - honors, Michele Mele, pass, Linda Antonacci; Grade 5 - pass, John Mele.

Bone spoke on delphiniums and the tonic effect of gardening generally. A question and answer period followed and the thanks on behalf of the society were expressed by C. R. Jones.

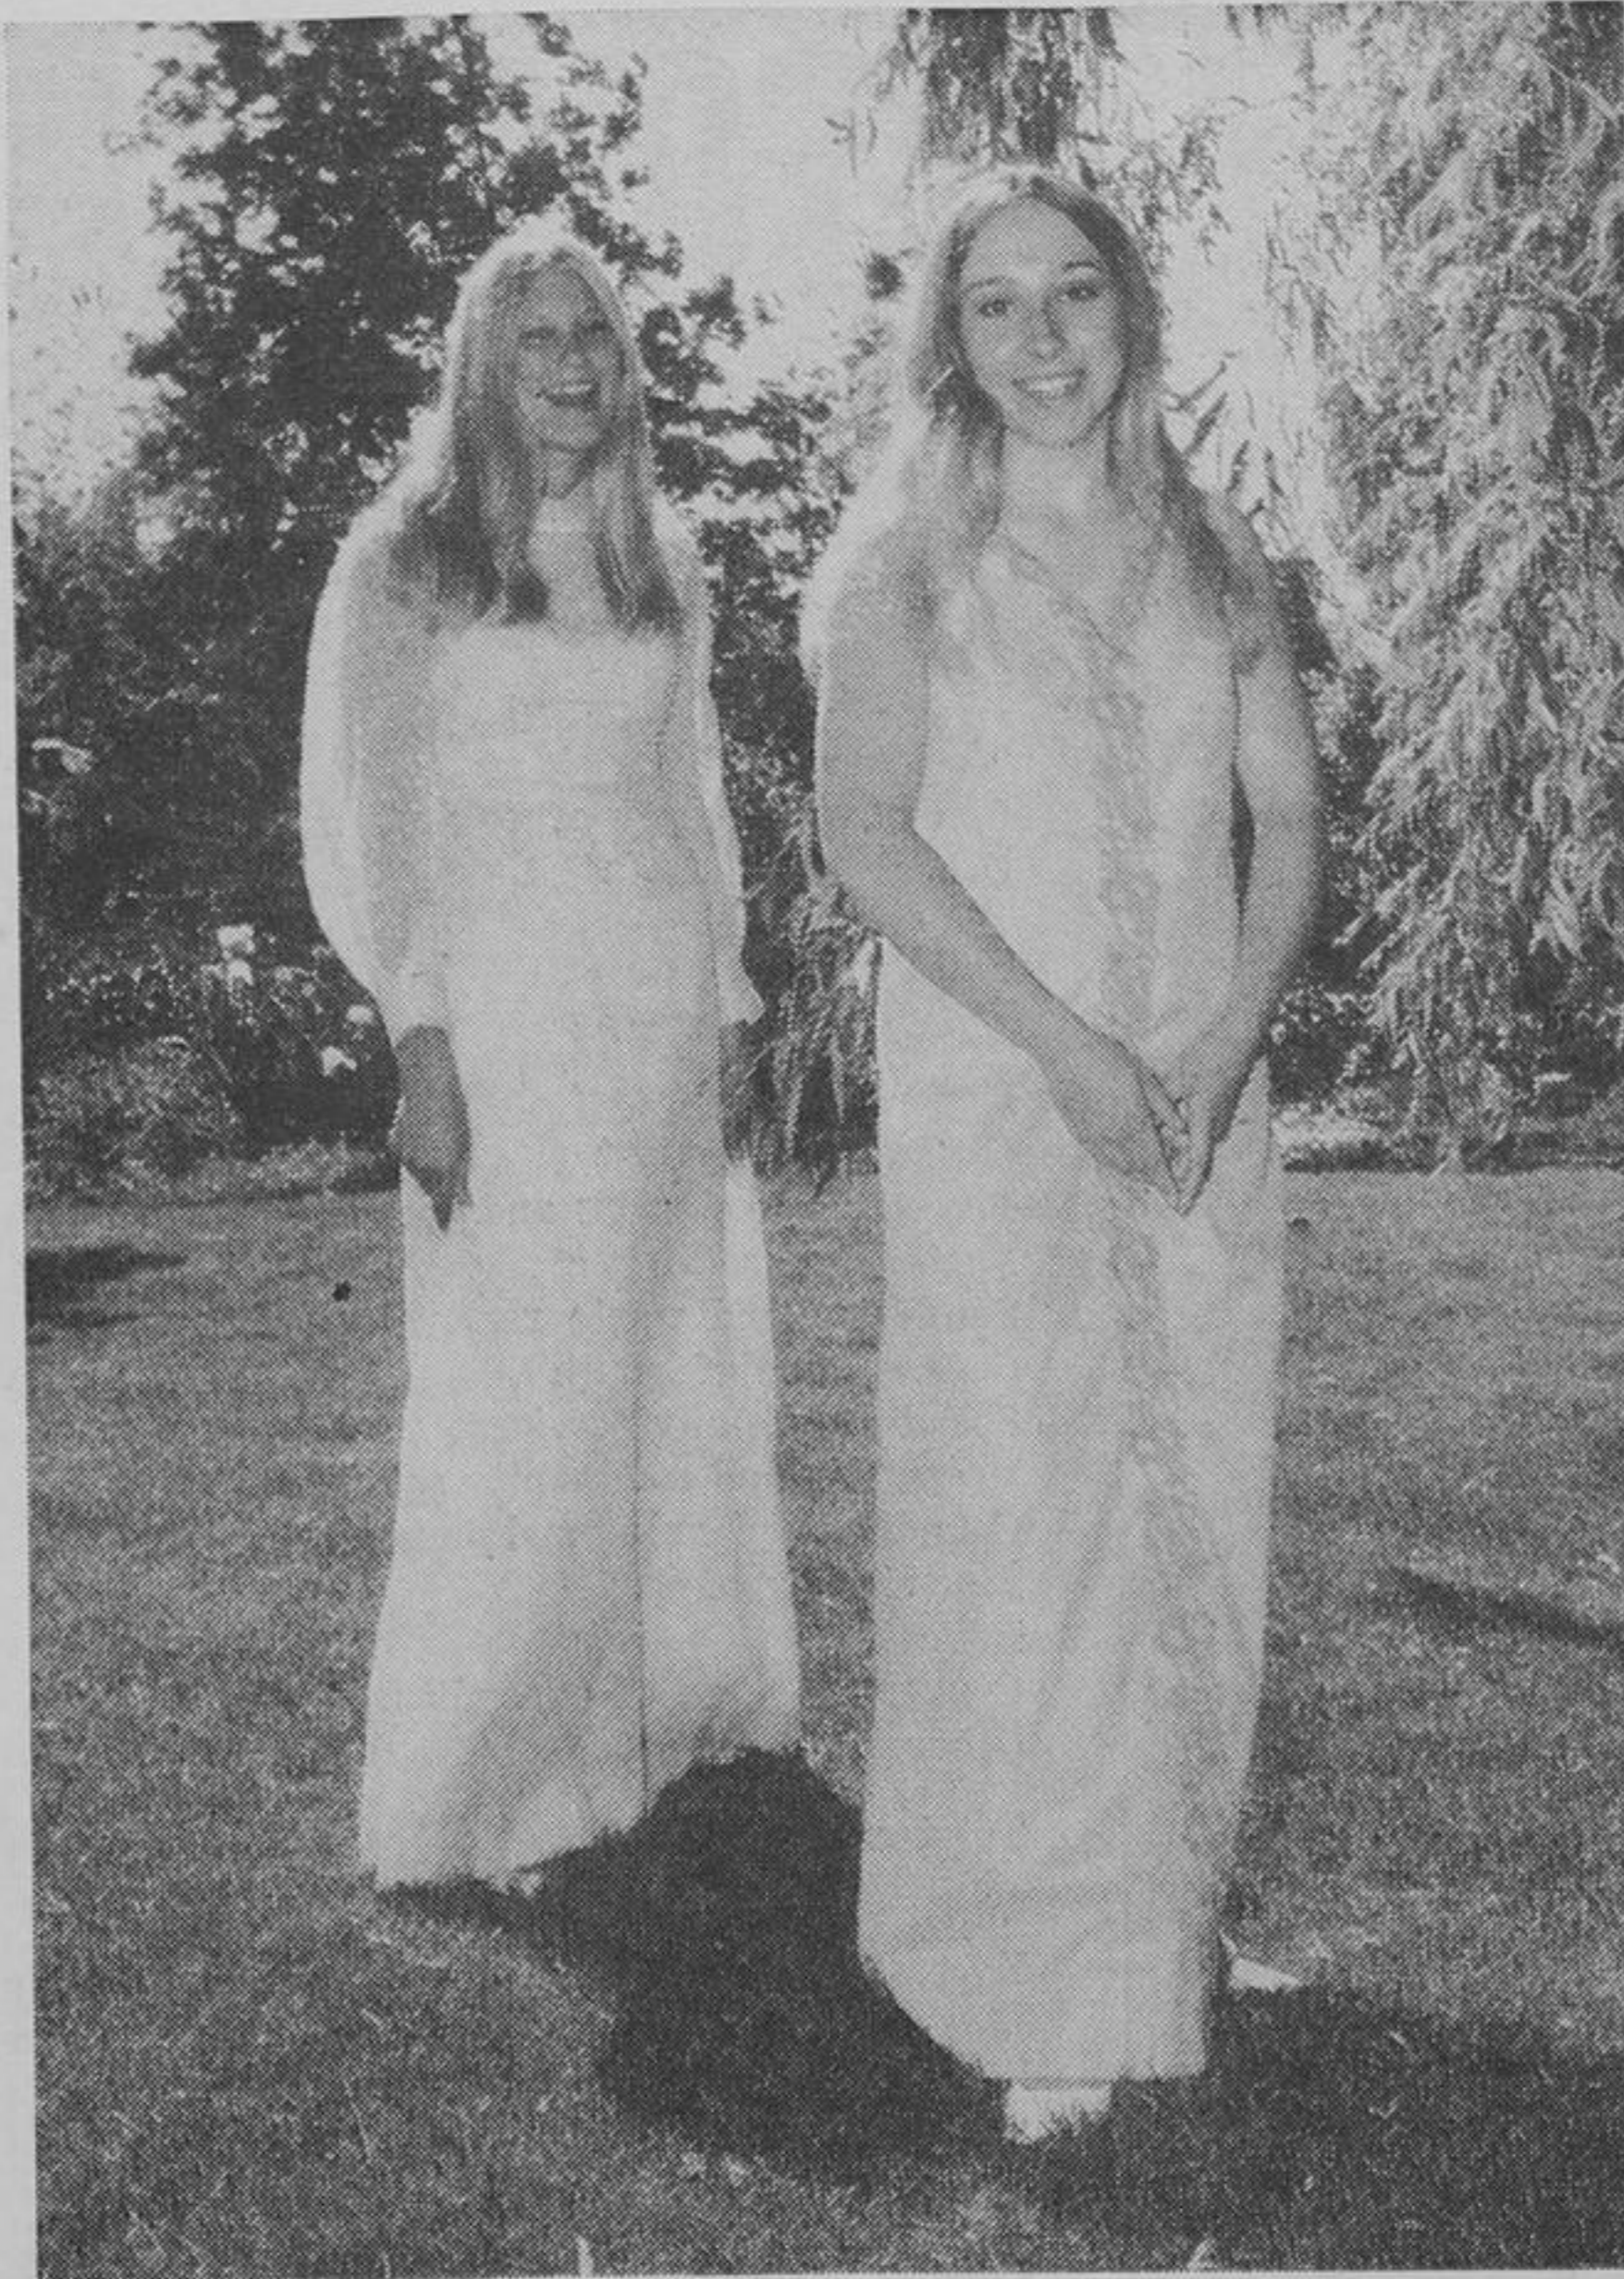

The exhibitors door prize went to Mrs. L. Pherrill and special prizes were won by Murray Smith in the specimen classes and by Mrs. W. Whatley in the arrangement section. The meeting closed with a social half hour during which refreshments were enjoyed.

Linen Shower
Bride to be Shirley Davis was honored with a linen shower given by her sister and maid of honor Mrs. Brian Lucas of Richmond Hill on June 14. Also present among the friends and relatives who gathered to surprise Shirley were her two bridesmaids Lella Davis and Cathy Enright. Shirley who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, Arnold Avenue, will be married to Charles Davis of Gormley on August 29 in Richmond Hill United Church.

Holy Trinity Anglican
The ACW will be holding an Opportunity Sale in October, so do keep this in mind when you are clearing out closets, etc. They would appreciate any clothing, hats, a bra, etc., and articles may be left inside the south parking lot door of the parish hall.

Many members of Holy Trinity enjoyed a delightful picnic June 14 at Master Feeds Farm, Langstaff. The picnic, which was organized by the Young Adults and Trinity Teens was said to be one of the best yet!

Vacancies still exist in the church school staff, and Rev. Reginald Howden is anxious to see that they are filled before the school re-opens in the fall. If you would like to assist in this vitally important and worthwhile work, please call Mr. Howden at 889-1515.

Observe Dominion Day At Community Festival

The Village of Thornhill will celebrate Canada's 103rd birthday in style on July 1, with a village festival going full swing in Thornhill Park from noon to 6 pm.

Just about every organization in the community will be participating, the swimming club and tennis club, Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Lions, horticultural society, athletic and art groups.

There will be a free animal train and pony rides for the children, races, swimming, tennis competition and instruction, bait casting, baseball pitch, folk singing, Scottish dancing, and a barbershop quartet to provide entertainment.

It will be a community effort, a real country fair, say Publicity Chairman Ace Clarke, and a committee chaired by Derry Giles has been working since January co-ordinating the program.

Visitors can view art shows and horticultural displays, then relax in the cheese and cider garden, which will be operated by the Lionettes of Thornhill, or refresh themselves with soft drinks and hamburgers.

Each group is doing its own planning, says Mr. Clarke, with the Lions serving as co-ordinators. "We hope to make it an annual event."

If the weather is bad on Wednesday, the festival will not be cancelled — just postponed, and the whole event will go on according to plan on the following Saturday July 4.

The center of activity will be Thornhill Park on Centre Street (Highway 7B) at Yonge Street, and everybody is welcome. See Editorial On Page 2.

The Raymonds will be living at Exmouth, Devonshire, for approximately one year, where Mr. Raymond has been assigned to an exchange teaching position.

Controversial Reading
Three controversial books on the Canadian scene are now available to the Thornhill reading public. The first of these is "I've Tasted My Blood," a book of poems by Milton Acorn. This literary work was the storm centre when it failed to receive the Governor General's award for poetry.
Fellow poets and others in the literary world rectified what they considered a lack of good judgment and presented Mr. Acorn with $1,000 they contributed.
The second controversial volume is "La Guerre, Yes Sir," by Roch Carriere. This, too, has had considerable amount of publicity and is challenging reading.
