

Harrison - Obee

Honeymooned At Virginia Beach After Wedding In St. Matthew's

The marriage vows of Roberta Larrine Stephanie Obee and Robert Clement Harrison were heard by Rev. John McTavish in St. Matthew's United Church, Richmond Hill East, at 4 pm May 30. Pink and white snapdragons and gladioli formed the setting for the ceremony. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Garden of Tweed.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Obee of 313 Osiris Drive, Richmond Hill and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Harrison of Edmonton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon chiffon over taffeta with a short train. Embroidered lace formed the stand-up collar, the long cuffs and a front panel. She wore a shoulder-length veil of scalloped illusion net with seed pearls and carried a bouquet of sweet peas, white carnations and lily-of-the-valley.

Her attendants were Dianne Brown of Toronto as matron of honor and Mary Lou Baxter of Toronto and Carolyn Mann of Niagara Falls as bridesmaids. All wore gowns with bodices of navy blue and skirts of white illusion lace embroidered with navy blue roses, accented by deep pink comberbuds. They carried nosegays of white gladioli and stephanotis with blue forget-me-nots.

The groom's attendants were William Harrison of Wetaskiwin, Alberta; and William Ken-

Church News

On the occasion of the anniversary of the United Church Sunday, Rev. Martin Jenkinson was guest preacher. Mr. Jenkinson had been Teston minister for 22 years before coming to Victoria Square and Headford. In his absence Headford congregation was fortunate to hear Rev. John Dickinson of Aurora.

All the children of the community and their families are invited to take part in the 10 am service at Headford United on Sunday. The occasion is the Sunday school anniversary and there will be no 11 o'clock school session that day or for the remainder of the summer months.

One final reminder: Come rain or come shine, the Headford congregational dinner and Sunday school picnic will be held this Sunday. The location is George Barker's Picnic Grounds and the first event of the day will be the pot luck supper at 1 pm. So consider this your invitation to bring your family, your pot luck supper and come prepared for an enjoyable day.

Neighborhood Notes
Father's Day was celebrated in the George Clark household with a barbecue on Sunday. Guests of honor were Wes and Jim Curtis. Other guests included Mrs. Wes Clark and Jean Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Curtis Jr.

A happy birthday to Susie MacKay, who will be six years old June 27; and to Marilyn Horner, who will be nine, also on the 27th.
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman and Brenda and Paul have left for approximately six weeks on a tour of the west.
Field day was held at No. 4 School June 22. Boys and girls from the Headford area who won events are:
Chris Dingham, second high, second softball throw, third running broad jump.
Billy Dodson, first standing broad jump.
Frank Nigro, third 75 yard sprint.
Doug Bell, third 50 yard sprint, second softball throw, and member of the winning team in the junior boys' relay race.
Mary Nigro, third softball throw.
Danny Vanderkooy, member of winning team in the junior girls' relay race.
Roberta Ball, member of the winning team in the junior girls' relay race.
Crests were awarded to the winning baseball teams to mark the close of the season. Members of the team from Headford are:
Boys - Captain Bruce Watford, Mike Dunleavy, Chris Dingman and Danny Vanderkooy.
Girls, Maggie Bell.
The Headford Ladies' Baseball Team finally did it. We won a game Wednesday at No. 4 School. We played against an assortment of men collected from Headford and Richmond Hill and various other parts and we won! The score was 23 to 34. Honesty forces me to admit that certain concessions were made, such as the ladies team being allowed five fielders and having to put out only two men each inning. Nevertheless their ability has improved and hopefully it will continue!

Neighborhood Notes

Summer again, and a new crop of corn is shooting green sprouts in the field across the road - another year's reprieve from industrial outdoor storage development!

Brown's Corners residents attended a public hearing last week concerning proposals for future zoning in the community at Don Mills Road and Highway 7. Although I was unable to be present, I understand there were three suggestions - (1) keep it as is; (2) rezone the southeast sector as an industrial park; or (3) residential area.

With the widening of Don Mills Road to five or six lanes as is proposed for the near future, it is difficult to imagine how the neighborhood can remain static for very much longer.

Among those attending the Annual Thornhill Cemetery Memorial service held June 14, were Mr. and Mrs. James Rodick, Mr. Jack and Miss Mary Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Boynton and Miss Ellen Boynton.

Friends are happy to see Mrs. Jean Cook again. Mrs. Cook who now lives at Owen Sound has been guest at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sherman at the Town of Markham.

Mrs. George Hooper is in hospital for surgery this week. We wish her a rapid recovery.
Keith and Millie Hood are looking forward to a trip to Atlantic City N. J. this weekend. Keith is an enthusiastic member of the Scarboro Barbershoppers who will compete in Atlantic City on Saturday at the international competitions to be held in the convention hall. The group is hoping to win the International Trophy this year. Later this summer they will be in Europe on tour.

The Brown's Corners UCW recently held a picnic at the home of Mrs. John Brown, to wind up their current season. Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson and Mrs. E. Walton were hostesses; the weatherman co-operated and everyone had a happy time.

Buttonville WI members and friends went on their annual mystery tour on Thursday last week by Travelways.

At Canada Starch Co., Ltd. the group was given a demonstration and their hostess was daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rumble. After lunch at Mississauga Park the tour continued to the Toronto Dominion Centre for a panoramic view of the city, then on to Kensington Market and the ethnic city; then to Yorkdale for a brief break and on to dinner at a new restaurant on Highway 7 near Dufferin Street.

In July the WI plans a trip to Muskoka.

Its Recital Time
Last week was an exciting one for Buttonville's music world. There were two evenings.

On Wednesday evening June 17 Mrs. S. J. English entertained her pupils, who in turn presented a variety concert. Melanie Watt played the opening "O Canada," followed by piano solos by Wendy Craig, Laurie Stephenson, Cathie Jones and Nancy Armstrong. Cathie and Mrs. English played a duet, and then a chorus, accompanied by Sharon Buchanan sang "Let Us Have Peace On Earth."

Derek Armstrong played an excerpt from Haydn's Surprise Symphony, and Minuet in "G", to celebrate Beethoven's 200th birthday and Johnny Schmucker performed a number.

There were piano solos by Christine Craigie, Heather Watt, Alanna Martin and Cheryl Tenyson; then Heather Watt and Derek Armstrong sang a duet, "Billy Boy". There was group singing again, then John Martin, Paul Craigie, Sharon Buchanan, Melanie Watt and Paul Steffler, all advance students played.

The evening ended with songs, jokes, limericks, poetry and of course refreshments. Assisting the hostess were Susan Tenyson, Maureen Martin, Sharon Buchanan, and Melanie Watt. Connie Reeve was in Ottawa for a week, and unable to be present.

On Friday evening, at Brown's Corners United Church, pupils of Marguerite Jones and Dorothy Ressor presented a recital for parents and friends. Both Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Ressor are former pupils of Mrs. English. Ginny Barton, who had been taking lessons for only two months, opened the program with two piano solos and a duet with Mrs. Jones.

There were piano solos by Brian Carr, Jane Watford, Christine Pirdera, Lynn Carr, David Nelson, Pamela Felgate, Bruce Watford, Kim Fowler, Bruce Felgate, Rona Lea Gordon, Debbie Fowler, Heather Swartz, Kathy Cunningham, Lorna Cox, Regina Allen, Julie McConnell, Gayle Jones, and Lorna Cox.

These were interspersed with duets, songs by the junior choir, solos by Marguerite Jones, assisted by daughter Gayle and Kimberley Webster, and accompanied by Mrs. Ressor.

Mrs. English read a poem from her own book of "Home-spun Poetry" and Rev. Chris Dugan displayed fine talent as a soloist, singing two solos. To conclude the program, Mrs. Jones and Mr. Dugan, accompanied by Mrs. Ressor, sang the 23rd psalm to the music.

Afterwards, there were cookies and beverages served in the Christian education wing.

NEWMARKET: Town council has agreed to rezone the vacant Newmarket Motors building site on Botsford Street for stores and apartments. The town purchased the building as a site for a new town hall but have been unable to raise the necessary finances. They will sell the Botsford Street site and "spend our money in a better place". Part of the building will be used as a teen drop-in centre from June 1 to September 1.

how many shoulders has your executor?

The hard earned estate you leave behind is too important to be entrusted to inexperienced and untrained help. People—even those who merit your trust—die, disappear, become incapacitated. It happens every day. But not here, because at Victoria and Grey Trust, your estate management problems, big and little, are the responsibility first, of a friendly, sympathetic trust officer you get to know, and second, of a team of competent, trained specialists who operate under government license. Don't leave your estate to chance. When you make your will, specify Victoria and Grey as your executor.
