Doused In Paint, Horse In Agony

A young $2,000 Appaloosa gelding named Irish Whiskey is still very sore after being doused with pink paint in his pasture north of Richmond Hill last Friday.

The horse was attended by a veterinarian and had to be shaved.

There was concern at first that Irish Whiskey might die, but now it appears he will have nothing worse than a lot of raw skin area and a very strange looking appearance for the summer.

Irish Whiskey is owned by Mrs. Karen Milne of 52 Graylee Avenue, Scarborough, and was being boarded at the Thornhill Boarding Stable at 600 Yonge Street North.

The same weekend as the paint incident took place the stable was taken over by new tenants, Mrs. June Haywood and her husband Gerald.

Mrs. Haywood says children are suspected of throwing the paint over Irish Whiskey. Various cans of paint were found thrown around at the pasture where horses from the stable were grazing Friday. There was no paint on any of the other horses.

Mrs. Haywood says they now hope Irish Whiskey will recover and be okay. Vaughan Township Police are investigating the incident.

LANGSTAFF NEWS
CORRESPONDENT: MRS. GEOFFREY COOK
84 Garden Avenue, Phone 889-4553

At last Sunday's service in Emmanuel Anglican Church, Norman Reeve gave a very interesting talk on the "Whole Armor of God". Next Sunday's service will be celebrated by the Rev. David Sproule of St. Gabriel's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill. His topic will be "The Mind of Christ". While the minister is on vacation, calls for assistance should be made to Ralph Day at 884-6336 or Richard Edmunds at 884-2286.

Saturday, the Cook family delivered Betty and Penny to Camp Artaban, a church-sponsored camp on farmland north of Bolton. Later we took a walking tour of Bolton.

The river in the town has been dammed up to form a small lake. On one side of the lake a family has built a small screened house to view the lake wildlife. Under the floor of the structure, which is built on the edge of the water, is a sheltered area with lots of straw for ducks to nest in. Around this shelter were 50 or 60 mallards and white ducks. They paddled around that area and then over near where we were watching as if they expected us to throw them some crumbs.

Bolton has many beautiful older homes and the surrounding countryside is well worth a visit on a sunny summer afternoon.

Robbie and Bonnie Jelly of Garden Avenue have gone north to Swastika on Kirkland Lake to spend several weeks with their grandmother.

Vacation Church School at Emmanuel has been a lot of fun for 30 youngsters during the afternoons. Among the many projects were finger painting which the younger ones enjoyed very much and wall plaques made by the juniors. This is the third year that Emmanuel Anglican has taken part in the joint vacation church schools of the Thornhill Ministerial Association.

Your correspondent would be delighted to hear of how any of our readers spent their vacation. The news is always published after the people have returned home in order not to publicize a vacant house.

PICKERING: A 14-year-old girl was killed and two teenagers were injured when they were struck from the rear by an auto as they walked east on Finch Avenue in Pickering on July 13. Police said the car tossed all three into the air.

Pickering Township Police charged Thomas Neville, 32, of Fairport Road, with driving while impaired and with refusing to take a breath test.

SCARBORO: Scarborough Board of Control agreed last week to look into providing rent-free space for a junior achievement club in the borough.
