Free Taxi For Seniors All Day Wednesdays

Last week "The Liberal" announced Avenue Taxi's offer of free transportation for senior citizens each Wednesday in August. The story said the service would be available in the afternoons only, but Karl Spracklin, vice-president of the association of independent taxi cab owners sponsoring the service, advises that the offer is good from 9 am to 4 pm. It will be restricted to a five mile radius from the pickup point, and is available to all persons receiving federal social security pensions in the Townships of Markham and Vaughan and in Richmond Hill. For longer trips just the first five miles are free. Mr. Spracklin points out that there are free telephones in all major plazas in the area. He asks that callers tell the dispatcher it is a senior citizen's call so that drivers will not unwittingly embarrass passengers. No one will be asked for proof of age he declared. The numbers to call for this service are 884-1111 and 889-5477.
