Police Accident Report

1 Dead, 5 Hurt In 4-Vehicle Crash

One young man is dead, five young people are injured, traffic charges are pending and damage to four vehicles totals about $2,550, after an 11.15 pm August 9 accident east of Richmond Hill on Don Mills Road north of 16th Avenue.

Dead is Paul Moore, 21, of Plateau Drive, Don Mills, driver of a 1963 model car. His vehicle was judged a total wreck and valued at an estimated $500, Markham Township Police said.

Mr. Moore's car was south-bound when in collision with the rear of a truck at a roadside lane. This large truck was driven by Melvin Clifford, 29, of RR 2, Gormley, and had an estimated $150 damage, police said.

The dead man's car was also in a head-on collision with a 1968 model pick-up truck that was northbound on Don Mills Road. This vehicle was also a $1,600 total wreck.

The driver, Thomas Towers, 30, of RR 2, Newmarket, is in York Central Hospital in satisfactory condition, recovering from head, chest and shoulder injuries.

Four youthful passengers in the dead man's car are in various hospitals.

Peter Bokhout, 20, of 14 Tuna Crescent, Don Mills, at last report was said to be improved at Toronto General Hospital after being in critical condition for some time. He suffered a serious concussion and head lacerations, and was transferred to the Toronto General Hospital from York Central Hospital.

His sister, Elsie Bokhout, 17, was in satisfactory condition in York Central Hospital recovering from head injuries and facial lacerations.

Another passenger in the fatal car, Joan Kilpatrick, 20, of 70 Plateau Crescent, Don Mills, was treated for head and face injuries and a fractured nose at York Central, and then transferred to Branson Hospital.

Her sister Mary Kilpatrick, 18, was in satisfactory condition at York Central Hospital, recovering from head injuries and facial lacerations.

The fourth vehicle in the accident was struck by the flying box off the pick-up truck and had an estimated $300 damage. The compact car was driven by Robert Howells, 22, of 2507 Eglington Avenue West, Toronto, and a passenger were uninjured.

NEWMARKET — One hundred five youngsters passed Red Cross Swimming tests at the Peter Gorman Pool during July.

Police Seize Marijuana, Hashish At Markham Twp. Wiener Roast

A wiener roast that was also a "pot" party east of Richmond Hill resulted in a drug raid and 16 arrests by Markham Township Police at midnight August 5.

Quantities of both marijuana and hashish were seized, police said.

The raid involved seven officers, with Detective Bruce Findlay in charge of the detail and Sergeant Evan Kelly, officer-in-charge, accompanying his men.

Ten young men and six young women, all from Toronto, were rounded up and taken to the police station in Buttonville. All were later released.

The raid was made on a farm on the east side of Woodbine Avenue (formerly Don Mills Road), south of Victoria Square.

At first police said charges of both marijuana possession and hashish possession would be probably laid against all 16 young people.

But at last report, as the investigation continued, it appeared that only two persons may face charges in Richmond Hill Court as the actual possessors of illegal narcotics.

In Vaughan Township last weekend $150 was reported stolen from a desk drawer in a break-in at the Maple Smooch Service Station on Keele Street.

A purse containing $24 was stolen from the glove compartment of a locked car at Boyd Park over the weekend.

And four hub caps worth about $80 were reported stolen from an automobile parked at the Pinecrest Speedway on Highway 7 West.

Starry List Of Talent

Free Folk Festival In Thornhill Park

A free folk concert will be held in Thornhill Community Park this Saturday afternoon (August 15) from 1.30 to 5.30 pm. It is being presented by the Thornhill Recreational Committee and will feature outstanding talent.

The park is located in the Yonge Street and Highway 7B area, adjacent to the Thornhill Swimming Pool.

The folk concert is to be a joyous family occasion to which everyone is invited. The committee has enlisted the help of many professional entertainers to make this first event of the kind in the community a real success.

Among those who will be entertaining is Sandy Crawley, who performed so well at the Mariposa Festival. Sandy is well-known for his many radio and television appearances as well.

Canterbury, a group composed of Roger Ellis and David Haisell, as well as Phillip Hughes, James Sherman, Milt Davis, Chris Sills and Steve D'Amico will be entertaining with everything from original folk ballads to well-known blues and traditional American and English folk songs.

Another performer, who was well received at Mariposa, is Shelley Posen. He will be one of the many headliners present at Thornhill on Saturday. Shelley plays a variety of instruments including the six and 12 string guitars, five string banjo and auto-harp.

Saturday's free folk concert will be four solid hours of fine entertainment designed to make the afternoon an enjoyable experience for everyone.

All parts of the country, many of those participating being well-known recording personalities.

The sponsoring Thornhill Recreational Committee sincerely hopes that as many people as possible will attend so that appreciation may be shown to the many talented entertainers who are donating their services for the afternoon.
