VAUGHAN TOWNSHIP
 Vaughan's nominations for a mayor, five councillors who will serve on the town council only, one councillor who will also serve as a member of the regional council, two members of York County Board of Education and two members of the York County Roman Catholic Separate School Board, all to serve two years (until December 31, 1972), will be held September 21 in Maple Community Centre Hall. Nominations will be received for one hour between 7.30 and 8.30 p.m.
 Vaughan's advance poll will also be held October 2 from 4 to 10 p.m. and October 3 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at two locations. The east and centre sections of the township will vote at the township will vote at the Vaughan Municipal Buildings in Maple, and those from the eastern portion of the township and the present Village of Woodbridge will vote at the Woodbridge Municipal Building, Pine Street.
 A list of polls and their location appears in this issue of "The Liberal".
 The only candidate at present for the mayoralty is present Vaughan Reeve Garnet Williams. Reeve John McLean of Woodbridge has withdrawn because of home and employment obligations.
 Vaughan's present Deputy-reeve Albert Rutherford will be opposed in his bid for the second Vaughan seat on the regional council by Woodbridge's Deputy-reeve Ab Hollingshead.
 Present Councillors John Gilbert and Gordon Risk will definitely be in the running for two of the five seats on the municipal council. Councillors David Fraser and Dalton Mc-Arthur will also stand if the pressure of business will allow them time to devote to municipal business.
 Fred Armstrong of Woodbridge, who has spent 15 years on that municipality's council, has announced this week that he will be seeking a seat at the Town of Vaughan's council table. Mr. Armstrong served nine years as reeve of the village and was York County Warden in 1958.
 The other sitting councillor on Vaughan Township Council, Lou Wainwright, lives in the area of the township which will become part of the enlarged Town of Richmond Hill on January 1.
 Ross Jolliffe, of the Lang-staff area, former member and chairman of Vaughan Township Public School Board, and Morlee Kinney of Maple, longtime former member of the York Central District High School

Looking for a new career or a better job? Seeking ways to broaden your horizons, outlets for personal interests, respite from long fall and winter evenings?
 The 130 different courses offered this fall by Seneca Community College's continuing education division are planned to meet all these needs, and it is expected that registration will reach at least 3,000 by the time classes begin on September 14.

The college, with campuses at Sheppard Avenue and Yonge Street and on Finch near Woodbine Avenue, last fall attracted 2,112 people over 19 and with various backgrounds and occupations.
 Many of the courses offered are in credit subject and can be used towards diplomas in library techniques, social services, law enforcement, early childhood education, business administration and data processing.
 There is also a potpourri of intriguing special interest subjects such as small business management, French conversation, the wonderful world of jewels, color television servicing, electron microscopy, taxation for the layman, typing, shorthand, television production, audio-visual techniques, effective public speaking and effective speed reading.

For those interested in a career in the tourist industry, a brand new course in tourist industry administration is being offered with three of the subjects available this fall. They are passenger transportation, resort area development and travel agency operation.
 It's the third time around for the popular course, "Worlds of Women", which is designed to help the woman who has been immersed in homemaking during the child rearing years to re-enter her former profession or the business world, or to embark on an entirely new career.
 There is also a short course in Forkner shorthand for those who would like to become stenographers but lack the time and motivation to embark on a lengthy course.
 And for the woman with several years experience in an office who aspires to become an executive secretary or an administrative assistant may be attracted to a class called, "You can be an executive secretary." It will attempt to help students rid themselves of hang-ups that are preventing them from going to the top and will teach them to stretch the imagination in solving daily problems. It will also offer advice in makeup, grooming and appropriate clothing with a fashion show finishing the session.

 The taxation for the layman class will make a comparison between the existing system and proposals contained in the controversial White Paper as well as discussing taxation as a whole.
 "So You Want To Communicate" provides an inside look at the written word in radio, TV, newspapers and advertising. For those who are seeking a career in TV, two classes are offered — television production and television workshop.
 Biologists and laboratory technicians who take the electron microscopy course will have an opportunity to work with Seneca's newest acquisition, the Philips 300 electron microscope, one of the few in the whole of Metro.

The eight-subject certificate course in rehabilitation and welfare counselling was created in consultation and co-operation with social agencies to fill the need for a special professional development program to improve the understanding and the skills of people who work with the physically or psychologically disabled.
 For people involved in the operation and maintenance of mechanical equipment in building environmental systems, there is a two-part course called, "Environment".
 For those who wish to learn to design these systems, there is an intensive four-part course in building environmental design developed in co-operation with the Ontario Chapter of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers.
 Professional engineers, proficient in their field but lacking the knowledge of computers to make use of it in this computerized age, can take a special class called "Fortan for Engineers" ofered for the first time at Seneca this fall.
 Seneca offers a complete data processing diploma course for those with such a career in mind, also a short course in computer funda-mentals which many experienced businessmen find helpful in understanding the business environment in which they find themselves today.
 Many classes offered by the English and communications division are credits toward a diploma course, but students often take them on their own as special interest subjects. They include such topics as evolution and ideas, journalism, the many faces of love in literature, business and technical writing.

 A variety of liberal studies subjects are offered on the same basis — as credit courses, or simply for special interest. These include classes in conversational French, anthropology, Canadian studies and political science.
 Registrations for the fall program are being accepted at the Sheppard Campus, 43 Sheppard Avenue East at Yonge Street from 9 to 4.30 pm weekdays as well as from 6.30 to 9.30 pm Monday to Thursday.
 Seneca also makes the services of its faculty advisors and counselling department available to all citizens in the community who would like an opportunity to discuss their individual needs and problems. Appointments for counselling can be made by phoning 223-9661, extension 58.
 Further information about evening classes can be obtained by telephoning 223-9661, extension 33. A free folder is available on request.

Location of polling stations will be announced later.
 Voting for the mayor's chair, which also means a seat on the regional council, will be Markham Township's present Deputy-reeve Anthony Roman and Mayor Alma Walker of the present Town of Markham. Both have made a definite commitment.
 James Jongeneel, who is completing his first two-year term as councillor in the township, has stated he will be a candidate for a seat on the regional council (which also means a seat on the town council). It is expected that Lawyer Paul Mingay, a former mayorality candidate, or some other member of the present town council will be seeking the other regional council seat.
 Running in Ward 1 will be Robert Adams and in Ward 2 Robert Sherwood. Both are residents of Thornhill and both have been active in community affairs.

Few Candidates In Running Yet For October 5 Vote

 Taylor, Mr. LeClaire, the present vice-chairman of the board, has regrettably decided that he will no longer be able to serve and Mr. Taylor is still undecided about standing for re-election.

Con Thompson of Richmond Hill is the one separate school representative on the York County Board of Education.
 Since Markham Township has the largest assessment for separate school supporters in the county, nominations for this position will be held at the Markham Township nominations held the same evening.

On October 5 the polling booths in Richmond Hill (listed elsewhere in this issue of "The Liberal") will be open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. The new town will have 39 polling subdivisions with approximately 50 polling booths.

For those who expect to be absent from the municipality or who will be working in a poll other than their own, or for those who expect to be confined in hospital or for religious reasons are prevented from voting on October 5, an advance poll will be held on two days, in the municipal building at the corner of Yonge and Wright Streets. On October 2 the advance poll will be open from 4 to 10 p.m. and on October 3 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

 represent Vaughan-Wood-

 Board of Education. It is understood that both will stand for re-election. The new Town of Vaughan will have two representatives on this board. Mr.
 Bailie will also seek to return to a seat on the board, but this time as a representative of the new Town of Richmond Hill.

Vaughan - Woodbridge representatives on the York County Roman Catholic School Board are Eugene Jacobs and Mrs. Noreen Lee. Both have declared their intention to seek re-election. Mr. Jacobs is the present chairman of the board.

MARKHAM TOWNSHIP
 Nominations for the eight seats on council, the mayoralty, three representatives on the York County Board of Education, three trustees for the

 mayor will be elected over the whole new municipality, the present Town of Markham plus the Township of Markham, less the area between Yonge Street and proposed Highway 404 and a narrow strip along the Markham-Whitchurch town line.
 These three elected representatives will sit both on the municipal and the regional council.
 If an election is necessary it will be held October 5 with polls open between 10 am and held at the Township Offices in Buttonville and at the Markham
