Elgin Mills - Jefferson News

the fireside was held in Christ seven community friends at a

Correspondent Leonard Lomas - Phone 884-3000

The service at St. John's An- Church, Stouffville. Next Sun- euchre party. High prize was glican Church next Sunday will day it will be held again at Em- won by Mrs. Jean Lomas and be a celebration of Holy Com- manuel Anglican Church, Rich- low prize by Mrs. Flo O'Donmunion at 10 am. The day will vale, and the following week in nell. be observed as Harvest Thanks- St. Mary's Anglican Church, Previous to her marriage to giving. The ladies will be dec- Richmond Hill, at 7.30 pm. Robert McPhee, September 12, orating the church Saturday The married couples had a Miss Ella Anderson, Jefferson Patriot is homeward bound son and Able Cadet Darryl and contributions of fruit, flow- most enjoyable meeting Friday Sideroad, was feted with many ETA (estimated time of arrival) Condy flew to Comox, Van- family. Each member may ers, vegetables and grain will evening at St. Mark's Chapel, gifts. She was guest of honor is 19:15 (7:15 pm) and for the couver Island, where at CFB have his own ideas - and be gratefully received from 10 Oak Ridges. Twenty-two at- August 26 at a shower given by next eight months will be at Quadra they received advanced voice them - of how things like a Saturday night in a sleepy am. Any volunteers to help tended the barbecue and games fellow employees at York Uni- her comfortable berth alongside sea training aboard a coastal should be done. But when decorate the church should after which a bonfire was lit. versity. Miss Karen Witton, St. Mary's Anglican Church, patrol boat.

Church News

plan to arrive at the same time. Neighborhood Notes The fall great chapter meeting of the Rural Deanery will be held at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, September 29, beginning at 6.30

Neighborhood Notes

At a miscellaneous shower held at the home of her parents, have been busy ones. The officers and cadets of Patriot log-ged over 60,000 miles across tember 29, beginning at 6.30

Neighborhood Notes

At a miscellaneous shower held at the home of her parents, have been busy ones. The officers and cadets of Patriot log-ged over 60,000 miles across Leading Cadet Robert Boggs and Able Cadet Gary Doucette.

The past summer months ing Brigantine Pathfinder were at the home of her parents, have been busy ones. The officers and cadets of Patriot log-ged over 60,000 miles across Leading Cadet Robert Boggs and Able Cadet Gary Doucette. pm with a celebration of Holy members of the Davies family seau tea given in Ella's honor around the world in distance These cadets spent two weeks Communion, followed by din- at a swimming party and sup- at the bride's new home on ner at 7.15 pm. Tickets for the per. The guests, who were all Markham Road, Richmond Hill. dinner are $2.50 each and may related to her side of the fam- The full report of the Mc-Evening fireside services have Grand Valley, Mono Mills and be published after the young and type of training he re- Cadet Robert Boggs and Able played it and well); story be obtained from Robert Sayers, ily, came from Shelburne, Phee-Anderson Wedding will been arranged by the deanery Toronto.

in support of the forthcoming Wednesday, September 16, eymoon to ensure the correct- at their appointments. Bardsley Mission. Last Sunday Mrs. Beth Bowyer entertained ness of all the details.

Culligan ® NOW ... an Introductory Offer to present Non-Users...

TO ENJOY THE ECONOMY, CONVENIENCE AND PLEASURE OF SOFT FILTERED WATER AT A REAL BUDGET PRICE - FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY . . .

RENT A CULLIGAN AUTOMATIC WATER CONDITIONER

(Option to Purchase Plan)

This is the best rental purchase plan we have ever offered - Let us arrange a visit to your home.

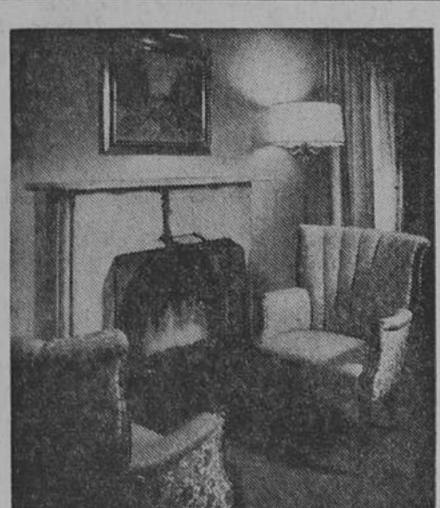

FREE

Home Demonstration Without Obligation

Call: 884-7041

PLUS HOOK-UP

Marshall Funeral Home

LIMITED

126 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill

884-1062

Serving the Community under the Wright & Taylor and Pipher Chapels since 1876

LOOK-WE HAVE BEGUN!

See your candidates on Channel 5

Whitchurch-Stouffville, Tues., Sept. 29, 7.00 - 9.00 p.m. Vaughan, Wed., Sept. 30, 7.00 - 9.00 p.m.

Markham, Thurs., Oct. 1, 7.00 - 9.00 p.m.

Richmond Hill, Fri. Oct. 2, 7.00 - 9.00 p.m.

and on Mon., Oct. 5 LIVE COVERAGE OF ALL ELECTION RETURNS

Remember, look to Channel 5 for further local shows

RICHMOND HILL CABLE TV 884-8111

Scuttlebutt

RCSCC PATRIOT

Phone 884-7513 Lt. David Ellison

Officers and Cadets of the Patriot Logged Over 60,000 Miles Across Canada

her maid of honor, was hostess Richmond Hill.

and something to be proud of, before the mast sailing the Each cadet was very carefully Great Lakes.

chosen for his final destination | Last but not least Leading couple's return from their hon- ceived. They all did very well Cadet Gary Doucette were teller extraordinary and a A new shoulder badge was Ontario in the Navy League of he knew and knew well; his worn by all cadets and carried Canada National Sailing Cham- record speaks for itself. All the name, Richmond Hill, from pionships held at Kelowna, B.C. They did very well by winning AP2 Bill Bradley, Doug the first race and while leading Condy, Randy Diddams; Lead- in the second, the rudder broke ing Cadets Allen Henderson on their boat and so were disand Robert Boggs, and Able qualified. The final result was Cadets Nick Cardwell and Gary a ninth place for Bob and Gary Doucette travelled by train to out of a field of nineteen.

Digby, Nova Scotia, while Able Because of Patriot's out-Cadets Darryl Condy, Peter Francey, Mike Palmer and Tom standing performance and suc-Frame travelled by air to Digby, cess in the past year, we have where they received gunnery, been permitted to increase our eager to pay him their own clared the winners. The contest leadership, and seamanship complement of cadets. If you training at CFB Cornwallis. know a young man, 13 to 17, who would like a place in our Operation Flotilla, a sailing ship, send him along to Wrixon and seamanship, and adventure Hall, off Vaughan Road, betraining course, held on Geor-hind St. Mary's Anglican gian Bay, was attended by Lead- Church any Monday night at ing Cadet Jon Evans, and 7:15 pm. Cadets Craig Foss, Scott Morri- We have lots to offer, travel, son, Dan Timleck and Gary training, free uniform, adventure, naval discipline and lots Leading Cadet Allan Hender- of fun.

Local High School Student Found Innocent In Auto Rally Fatality

Robert Fountain, 18, of 44 Attorney John Smith told the the future It will straid them hill. Congratulations from Cartier Crescent, Richmond court he didn't think there was in good stead. Now they are Thank you to our guests for Hill, was acquitted on a charge enough evidence to convict learning drills of all kinds: coming out and making the Cartier Crescent, Richmond court he didn't think there was of careless driving when he Fountain. appeared in Brampton Provin- Defence Attorney Douglas Coo, QC, decided it was unnec-Fountain was the driver of essary to have Fountain take the In an Avro yet!) and how to and Freddie Catlin of the entercial Court September 11. the car in which fellow stud-stand to defend himself. ent Hugo Schenk received fatal Mr. Coo said there might injuries April 19 in Caledon possibly be enough evidence to

Town

Council

Briefs

over the centre line of the road Summing up the case at the but certainly not enough for Keep up the good work lads. It was unanimous. To the boys end of the trial, Acting Crown conviction for careless driving. Justice of the Peace Ralph Rothwell agreed there wasn't and easy night has rolled was varied enough to keep enough evidence for a convic-> driving charge. cident which took place on Constable Geall told the court See you all next week.

At its September 14 meeting, there was a gravel road 20 feet Richmond Hill Town Council wide at the scene of the accidealt with these items of bus- dent. The fatal crash took place at Referred an appeal from the the top of a knoll. The road Royal Canadian Air Cadets 778 was dry and clear, but with gym to be used for athletics pm. and drilling to Recreation Dir- Schenk was still alive at the ector Al White. Mr. White scene, but was dead on arrival permits for activities in schools said. in Richmond Hill with the York Fountain had some broken Most of us old timers can All for this time round; see County Board of Education. bones and serious lacerations to vividly recall those years call- you on the next trip. the forehead. Schenk was nav-Approved an application igator in the 1961 compact car from the Cadet Corps of the driven by Fountain in a south-Queen's York Rangers (1st erly direction, he said.

American Regiment) to sell tags on weekdays during Cadet was a 1964 stationwagon driven town. The corps is open to all by Stephanie Blissett of 468 boys aged 13 - 18. Its aim is to provide a sound knowledge mond Hill. Her navigator in of the qualities of leadership, the rally was Douglas Myers of patriotism and good citizenship. 369 Palmer Avenue, Richmond

Approved an application of Constable Geall said both the Canadian Arthritis and cars were over what would be Rheumatism Society to hold a the centre line of the road. campaign in Richmond Hill this Miss Blissett's car skidded 31 month. The major part of the feet almost straight ahead, movcanvass will be held September ing only a few inches toward 21 and 22. Miss Elizabeth her own side of the road, Con-Flood is chairman of the York stable Geall said. Central Committee of CARS. Fountain's car skidded 56 feet across in front of Miss Blissett's Agreed to notify the Associa- car, ending up on the left hand tion of Ontario Mayors and side of the road after the acci-Reeves that council had decid- dent. ed not to contribute to the fund | The heaviest damage to Founto fight Bell Canada's applica- tain's car was on the right tion for increased rates to the front end, the constable told Canadian Transport Commisthe court.

Fountain testified he was Agreed to notify the Town- driving north before the acciship of Vaughan that the offic-dent, but turned around and ial name of County Road 25 in went back after deciding he had Richmond Hill is Vaughan missed a car rally check point. Road and to request Vaughan Miss Blissett said she was to amend its Bylaw 4025 as driving her father' car up a Bylaw 4031 passed September 8 hill and collided with the other restricting the name of "Major car at the top. She suffered Mackenzie Drive" to that por- a broken left arm and facial tion of the road west of Bath-lacerations. urst Street. The new Town of Her navigator Douglas Myers

Richmond Hill will extend to testified their car was going at Bathurst Street on January 1, the proper rally speed of about 30 mph, when suddenly a car came over the hill and was Decided to have a coffee right upon them. break at council meetings at Myers said they had talked

10 pm, when a recommendation with Fountain and Schenk only of its personnel committee to a short time before, and decided to follow Fountain to the next this effect was accepted. check point. They thought he Decided to inform Municipal was still driving ahead of them Board that objections to the when they met him at the top proposed rezoning on Cedar of the hill. Avenue to permit Jillian Es- Tony McCloskey of 334 Kers-

ates to build apartment houses well Drive, Richmond Hill, said and semi-detached homes on he was driving in the rally and land it owns in that area had been heard by council and that council has decided that they Blissett's car, trailing her by were not well taken. "Some about four car lengths. of them were well taken and He said it was his opinion-I object to this wording, al- that Miss Blisset's car was though I realize that it must travelling in its own lane when be used," stated Councillor Lois the accident happened. Justice of the Peace Roth-Mayor William Lazenby re- well said it was evident that ported that the Metro Planning both vehicles had been over the Board had approved the rezon- centre line at the time of the crash.

Your Legion Reports

Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion By Chris Ratchford - 884-5260

ed "the hard times years"

Early to late 1930's it was. By some of the costumes it wasn't so long ago. Farmers (it looked them had more paint on themselves than they put on their respective jobs); so many other costumes that color was flamboyantly splashed on a living canvas. Don't envy the judges their job of picking the winners!

the busy MC and did his usual good job. What was the idea of that umbrella, Bob? It wasn't raining inside. I know you are all waiting to hear who won what, so - here goes, Your humble reporter had the honor of picking the winning ticket on the door prize. This was won by Mrs. Laurie Montgomery of Willowdale. Congratulations Mrs. Montgomery, Next on the list was the choosing of judges had a hard task set out

Ransom of Oak Ridges were de-was so close that a second couple was selected. In this case it

Richmond Hill. You winners

surely earned the applause you

Now for the grand prize winner of the very beautiful color

TV set. This was George Peters,

38 Fairview Avenue, Langstaff.

Sincere congratulations, sir.

May you have many happy of Keswick, His ticket was Bouncing Bob Dickson was

The Legion is like a large the chips are down, we close Berths aboard the sail train- ranks.

September 15, one of the better known members of our branch - Johnny Ogden passed away. He was an ali round sportsman: fishing, hunting, or social sports like euchre, cribbage, shuffleboard (you name it - he chosen to represent Southern lover of good music. Service these things made the man.

> Johnny was poppy chairman for our branch for some time and he worked hard at it. This he did in all things. But that was our John. He the best costumed couple. The never seemed to tire.

> Wednesday evening a quiet for themselves. After careful Legion ceremony was held in judical thinking and comparing his memory. The chapel was of notes, Mr. and Mrs. Doug packed, each and every one silent tribute.

> Thursday afternoon he was Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Buck of vas laid to rest with full military honors. His Legion comrades travelled by his got - we salute you. side. The lament sobbed over the grave. The skies were overcast as if in sympathy on this solemn occasion.

One meeting night of our hours of TV viewing. Our own air cadets of 778 Squadron, Edie Titshall drew the winning yours truly took the opportunity ticket. Our mystery prize of the to drop in unannounced and see evening was won by Mr. Gervais just what went on. I was really impressed. They drawn by one of our guests, are young and full of life. May Mrs. Pamela Morrison of Thornthe future. It will stand them Branch 375 to all winners, photography, flying, map read-evening such a success. ing (how about some of these | Some very special thanks go to march on parades. At present tainment Committee for all the these lads are all excited about very hard work you and helpers the upcoming Battle of Britain put into this effort. You cer-Township during a high school support the charge of driving Parade. Lucky dogs, almost tainly earned the praise that makes me want to be a boy. was echoing around the hall. in the band - you were never Once again our weekly free better. Your choice of music around. Each and every night everyone happy. Thank you tion and dismissed the careless it gets better. We have the best chaps. little combo rolling out the Provincial Constable Thomas rhythm that can be found any- May we take this chance to Geall investigated the fatal ac- where. Keep coming out and extend our hearty congratulaenjoy the cheerful company and tions to Mr. and Mrs. Al Tudship, just south of Sideroad 20. make new friends. We are a ball on the occasion of their friendly bunch. Loads of laughs. 43rd wedding anniversary. Besides celebrating his anniversary in our midst, Al brought

Glad to see so many of our along one of his old buddies, members released from sick Bob Walker. Al and Bob haven't bay. It is good to know that you seen one another for some time, are on the way to recovery - so guess there was a lot of maybe not in a hurry but on the catching up to do. Squadron for council's help in some snow off on the shoulders. way. To any that are under the obtaining a classroom and a He arrived at the scene at 12:10 weather at present, do hurry up Tonner on the occasion of their and get better; we miss you. 25th anniversary. Come on kids, get some time in. Hard times was the theme of To Mrs. Kay Gallant, birthhandles arrangements for all at Dufferin Area Hospital, he the big dance held by our branch day greeting. May you have September 19, many more of the same.

(Advertisement)

The other car in the accident NORTH MALL RICHMOND' HEIGHTS CENTRE

RICHMOND HILL

HAS COLIN GOT TO YORK-SIMCOE YET?

Did you see York Simcoe's advertisement last week? Sensible prices, most sports stores would have called it a gigantic sale. Beneficial Finance told them they will have to sell volume to stay in business. Seafood Corner, Bernina Sewing Machines and Discount Cleaners want to know the name of their fence. Bunny Snow's TV Repairs, Bennett's Textiles and Atlas Photo Supplies are watching for the man in the white coat to come and take them

RE-ELECT ERIC GEORGE

Eric GEORGE

TO THE RATEPAYERS

Your expression of confidence is deeply appreciated.

GORDON ROWE

Regional Councillor-Elect

SHAUN BEGGS

Standing for re-election as Councillor in Ward 4, asks for your consideration

12 years
6 years
2 years
2 years
9 months
1 month
884-1800

KRESGE'SIX BIG FALL BUYS ON SALE SEPT. 24.25.26

Richmond Heights Centre Open Daily 'til 6 p.m. Thurs. & Fri. 'til 9 p.m.

NYLON DUSTER

Three styles! All with long sleeves. White, Blue, Berry, Graen, Gold, Girls' 2-6X! Quilted style warmly lined with kodel fibre fill! Super FLANNEL GOWNS ength sleeves, Dainty prints.

closing. Assorted colors,

Reg. 97c PKG. BRUSH HAIR ROLLERS ... Reg. 39c EACH

EARTHEN & CHINA MUGS ... Reg. 3.99 KRESFAIR VISCOSE BLEND BLANKET..... Reg. 1.97-9"

TWINKLE TODDLER DOLL Reg. 77c EACH IMPORT TOOLS.....

SHADOW BAN C.E.G.... 2 BULBS 37¢

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR MONEY CHEERFULLY REFUNDED WE WILL NOT KNOWINGLY BE UNDERSOLD ON IDENTICAL ITEMS