

Bonhomme Carnival Here October 10 As The Hill Hosts 32 Quebec Billets

Quebec City's symbol of hospitality and warm welcome, "Bonhomme Carnivale" will be Richmond Hill (in costume) for the Thanksgiving Weekend.

He will be one of a busload of 32 people from the oldest city in Canada who have hosted Richmond Hill boys for the six years the Lions Peewees have participated in the International Peeewee Hockey Tournament held in conjunction with the Quebec City Winter Carnival each February. The unusual form of billeting has found the local boys being entertained in the same Quebec City homes year after year. This has led to a deep rapport between these hosts and the parents of the young hockey players.

During the visit of five Quebec City residents to Richmond Hill in early July the germ of the idea of returning this hospitality in some small measure was born and on October 10 will bear fruit.

The 32 Quebec City people will arrive in Richmond Hill at about 3 pm October 10 in a bus paid for by the parents of the 95 boys who have played on the Lions Peeewees team for the past six years. It is expected that all the boys and their parents, including the Steffans of Sudbury and the Cronkwrights of Burlington will be on hand at the arena to welcome their guests. They will then be billeted in the home of the parents of one of the boys they have entertained during the six years.

Highlights of the weekend reunion will be a civic reception for all peeewee boys to meet the Quebec billets, a dance to provide parental involvement, a sightseeing trip of Toronto which will include the Hockey Hall of Fame at the CNE and attendance at hockey games at the town arena.

The general public will be able to participate in making the guests feel at home by attending the dance. One hundred tickets will be on sale at $5 a couple. Proceeds will be turned over to the RHHA. It is hoped to persuade the two groups of former Peeewees to entertain musically at this event.

Already the committee has held six meetings to get the project well on its way and have others scheduled for the remaining three weeks before Thanksgiving. James Mansbridge is acting as co-ordinator, Gary Smith (present coach of the Peeewees) is in charge of public relations and Betty Hutchinson is arranging billeting.

Walt Donkin is chairman of the team representatives and is also representing the first team to participate in the Quebec Tournament in 1964-65. Joan Andrews represents the 65-66 team, Stu Clement the 66-67 team, Tom Sanlon the 67-68 team, Tom McCague the 68-69 team and Phyllis Miller the 69-70 team. Eileen Mason is the secretary. Minor Hockey President Tom Graham, Ken Addley and Mr. Peeewee Himself Ed Sackfield have also participated in the planning.

The Richmond Hill Lions, who have sponsored the peeewee team, are donating use of the Lions Hall on Centre Street East for the big dance.

Atom Winners Undecided

Ratcliffs' Squirts Soccer Champs

The round robin playoffs were completed last week and Ratcliffs finished as playoff champions.

The brass-men with a record of three wins and two ties in the five games finished two points ahead of both Industrial Life Insurance and Rangers.

Rangers had an excellent chance of forcing a deciding game but were beaten 2-1 by the Red Barons in the final game for the biggest upset of the year.

League champions, Dynes Jewellers fell away and managed only one win in five starts.

ATOM

A deciding game will be required to determine the winner of the Dan's Esso Trophy.

League winners' Lazenby's Leaders (three win and two ties) and Emerald Isle Motel (four wins and one loss) finished up with eight points each and will meet this week in the decider. Dan's Esso finished third with six points.

Both Richmond Hill teams are scheduled to compete in knock-out competition this week. The Avenues host Newmarket and the Expos travel to Camp Borden.

Richmond Hill dropped a 3-1 decision to Newmarket in Newmarket Cup play last Sunday but in doing so came up with one of the best showings of the year. Ian Kernohan scored the Hillers' goal and was named as Most Valuable Player.

The soccer season is drawing rapidly to a close and plans have been made to wind-up with a bang.

Next Sunday, teams representing squirt, atom, mosquito and bantam divisions will travel to Oshawa for a series of games against clubs there.

The girls team will play a boys atom team on October 3. The annual banquet and trophy presentation will take place October 30 followed by a grand finale dance in the Legion Hall on November 14.

Church News

The Headford United Church will hold its anniversary service next Sunday at 11 am. The guest speaker will be the Rev. John Hunter, of Aurora United Church. Mr. Hunter is president-designate of the Toronto Conference.

At 7:50 that evening, at the church, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jenkinson will show slides of their recent trip to Europe, and tell the story of the 1970 Passion Play at Oberammergau. Refreshments will be served and everyone is welcome.

When Don Brodie showed the slides of his recent trip to Asia and Expo 70, more than 80 people filled the church to enjoy them. The lush vegetation of those warm countries, and pictures of the various pavilions at Osaka were two of the highlights.

Mr. Jenkinson thanked Don on behalf of everyone present and the UCV served refreshments to end a very enjoyable evening.

Neighborhood Notes

Julie and Michael Dunleavy held a corn roast on Saturday evening. Some of their friends who attended were Clover and Chris Dingman, Joyce Horner, Ronnie and Danny Vanderkoo, Steven Dunlop from Carrville, Sharon Griffin from Unionville and Wilma Bolderhey of Richmond Hill. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

On Saturday evening, Wes and Essol Clark had a dinner party for their family plus Marg and Jim Hutton and their baby, Elisabeth McMillan, and her children Edward and Heather from Nova Scotia. Little William James Hutton of Little Britain was christened on Sunday morning. His parents, Jim and Marg, his grandmother Mrs. Rose Brodie, Cora Brodie and Mr. and Mrs. Wes Clark were all on hand to see this very important event.

Tom Dunleavy returned home Sunday from his trip to England and Ireland. He toured the south of Ireland and visited many relatives in Galway. In Londonderry, where the political situation is very tense and groups of soldiers armed with machine guns and two-way radios patrol the streets.

In the south he came across an odd situation. All the banks have been on strike for several months, so the shopkeepers are keeping all their money right in the stores. Over a period of time this has built up and boxes and other containers of money are left in full view. Apparently in that part, there is no fear of its being stolen.

The Headford Ladies' Ball Team held its final game of the season on Wednesday night of last week at Victoria Square. Their opposition was their husbands and some other men of the community, and the final score was so far in favor of the men, it won't be published in this column!

Besides a disastrous score, other results of the game were a winded pitcher who caught a line drive in the stomach, one severe charity horse on a latter who was sadly out of shape, and a collision between two players that resulted in two sore heads, one bruised body and one slight concussion.

All things considered, it is indeed fortunate this was the last game of the season.

Markham Twp. Briefs

At its regular meeting September 8, Markham Township Council approved a salary of $19,000 for 1970 for the township's Planning Director Kuno Hidaka.

Salaries of all other staff members were agreed upon several months ago, but the planning director was not included. "It was an oversight," explained Township Clerk Harry Crisp.

At its meeting September 8, Markham Township Council approved a resolution supporting the Ontario Municipal Association in its opposition to Bell Canada's application to the Federal Department of Transport for permission to increase telephone rates.

Council agreed to a contribution of $300 to back up the mayors and reeves of the province in their presentation to the department.

Markham Township Council agreed last week to accept $6,500 in lieu of taxes from the City of Toronto for the former Langstaff Jail Farm on Highway 7 at Yonge Street.

Residents of Romfield Circuit are not happy with the "No Parking" ban on their street, although the signs were posted originally at their request.

At its meeting September 8, Markham Township Council considered a petition asking for limited parking privileges, and Deputy-reeve Anthony Roman recommended a four hour parking limit on the south side of the street from Bayview Avenue to Baymark Road.

"We might as well forget the by-law and abolish 'no parking,'" declared Councillor William Masters. "I was against it in the beginning." He suggested a one hour parking limit. "There are parking areas in this townhouse development."

A motion from Councillor Eldred King that action be deferred pending further study of the situation was approved by council.

Rangers Rally To Tie Collingwood Team 3-3

Richmond Hill Rangers overcame a three goal deficit on the weekend to tie Collingwood 3-3 in Collingwood in the opening game of their soccer playoff series.

The Rangers had earlier finished third in the first division of the league edging Newmarket 1-0 in the final regular season game.

Saturday's Collingwood game saw the Rangers go into the second half trailing 3-0 only to find some reserve and strike back in somewhat startling fashion.

Careless defensive plays cost Richmond Hill two goals. Collingwood's third score came when its centre forward was pulled down inside the penalty box. The resultant penalty shot hit home for the third score.

The Rangers fought back fiercely in the second half and got one goal back when Roy Macauley scored from a Billy Keenan pass. Billy Anderson made it 3-2 two minutes later.

Ten minutes from the end of the game Merwin Evans got his head to a high ball only to see his attempt blocked by a defender. Slamming Sam Macauley was on the spot to put the rebound into the net.

Second game of the series will be played at Langstaff Secondary School at 4 pm this Saturday.

The team with the highest goal total in the two games advances to the next round of the playoff cup.

LANGSTAFF NEWS

Correspondent: MRS. GEOFFREY COOK

The executive of the Langstaff Home and School Auxiliary met recently to discuss plans for the year. A dance will be held at the Heintzman House in North Thornhill November 7, for which tickets will be available soon.

The first meeting of the auxiliary will be in late October. Again this year the auxiliary will look after the ice rinks on the school property. New lights that do not break easily and that shed a brighter light over a larger area were installed during the summer by George Land.

The auxiliary has taken an interest in the school library since there is no librarian this year. Some mothers of school students come in occasionally to straighten up and to put new books on the shelves. If there is anyone in the area who has been associated with the school or who knows the importance of a good library to the students and who would like to help on a part time basis is asked to call your correspondent during the mornings. Any help would be appreciated.

Next Sunday at Emmanuel Anglican Church, there will be a Harvest Festival Service. It will be attended by many members of the congregation of Emmanuel, Hanlan's Point, before it was disbanded.

At 7:30 pm the same day there will be a fireside for the Bardsley Mission. People from neighboring parishes will attend along with a singing group and a lay witness team, who will answer questions about the mission. Bishop Bardsley, who is the Bishop of Coventry, will conduct mission services in St. Paul's Church, Bloor Street, October 15-25.

Church calendars with large spaces for appointments are available for 75c from Mrs. Geoffrey Cook at 889-4553.

Sunday school registration at Emmanuel Church took place September 13. Any children new to the area or to the church are invited to attend Sundays at 11 am.

Last Sunday the men's association met for Corporate Communion at the 8:30 am service. It was followed by a breakfast meeting.

Judy Mills of Garden Avenue was married recently to David Young. Congratulations and best wishes of the community go to this young couple.

The first meeting of the fall season for Richvale Senior Citizens was held September 2. It was reported that Mrs. Ada Arbon has moved to the Meaford Senior Citizens' Home. Mrs. Edith Marloff has moved to Newmarket and Mr. and Mrs. B. Brummel to Islington. The best wishes of the group go to these friends who will be missed at the meetings. There will be a birthday dinner party for the seniors October 14 at 1:30 pm. The first bazaar will be held November 14 in the Lions Hall, Spruce Avenue, from 1:30 to 3:30 pm.

Soon it will be fall, with beautifully colored trees and crisp air — the perfect time for a nice family walk. Richmond Hill and District YWCA is planning a walkathon for October 18. They would like you and your family to join them in a Sunday afternoon stroll. Your friends could sponsor your family at a few cents a mile and you can go a short distance or a long one as you choose. More information and sponsoring forms will be available soon at the "Y".
