Police Association's Gift To Retarded

(Photo by Stuart's Studio) The last financial contribution to the work of York Centre Association of Mentally Retarded from the Richmond Hill Police Association was presented by Sergeant Bob Deighton at the association's general meeting held September 15. The police association has been a long-time and frequent supporter of the association — on one occasion bringing "The Flying Fathers" to Richmond Hill to test their hockey skill and raise a substantial sum for work with the retarded.

Since the advent of regional government in York next January 1. will also bring amalgamation of all police forces into one regional force, the Richmond Hill Police Association will cease to exist on that date. In the above picture, Sgt. Deighton cheerfully hands over the cheque for $500 to Mrs. Kay Carter, the association's social secretary.

The meeting was held in Thornhaven School.
