Mr. and Mrs. James Martin recently attended the wedding of their first granddaughter, in St. Patrick's Anglican Church, Willowdale.

Nancy Ellen Hunt of Willowdale became the bride of Robert Neil McKinnon, also of Willowdale, October 3.

Sympathy of our community goes out to James Craibe, RR 2, Woodbridge, on the death of his wife, the former Maisie Flood, at York Central Hospital, October 6.

Mrs. Craibe came to Canada from Ireland, where her family still lives. The service was conducted from the Scott Funeral Home, Woodbridge, October 9.

We received an interesting call, while writing this column, from Ev Aubertin, who has quite a few four inch ceramic tiles, removed a year or so ago from their walls, in the chocolate brown color, which is rather popular these days. Ev is wondering if anyone would like to have them free of charge for replacing cracked tiles or doing additional work. Phone 832-2604.

The organizers of the recent financial campaign for the arthritis and rheumatism society wish to thank everyone for the wonderful response and generous donations given their canvassers last month. The final campaign figures are not yet complete but we hope to have them for next week's column.

We were happy to hear that Ed Kersey, who had been taken to hospital rather suddenly early in October, had arrived home on the 8th, and was resting comfortably at home. He was missed, along with sisters May and Annie on the tour taken by the senior citizens, but his friends hope he will be strong enough to be out with them again soon.

Senior Citizens' Color Tour

Some time ago, someone said "The sun always shines on the Maple Senior Citizens". Once again this proved to be true when the group took a charter color tour bus through the Southern Muskoka region on October 7. With a bus from Travelways and Bert Bray, as driver, the group left Maple United promptly at 9 am and headed north.

Mr. Bray gave a running commentary which added tremendously to the trip, beginning with words of information on Barrie as they drove through, toward the Ridge Road.

The origin of the name Shanty Bay was explained as being connected with the exodus of negro slaves from the Southern U.S.A. to Canada. It seems that the railroad ran only to this area, and the slaves were left high and dry without a roof over their heads, so a kind-hearted gentleman proceeded to build shanties on his property so that they might have shelter.

The group drove through Oro Station, Hawkstone and into Orillia, where they learned that their driver has his home, and since many were interested, he drove past it. The seniors also learned that the Ontario Hospital Farm at Orillia covers 700 acres and has a most outstanding Holstein herd.

The group stopped for coffee in Orillia and then headed north toward Gravenhurst, while their driver kept them amused with stories of the area where he has lived for many years, and of his years as both a farmer and a bus driver. Several of the passengers discovered that they and Mr. Bray had mutual acquaintances.

The group next arrived at the Talisman Restaurant for dinner. During the meal, carnation corsages were presented by Mr. Bray to the three senior members of the tour, all in their 87th year — Mrs. Florence Ella, Mrs. Tina Boves and Mrs. Katherine Jones. Mrs. Ella is a regular member, Mrs. Boves is Wilfred Boves' mother, from Richmond Hill, and Mrs. Jones is Mrs. Lee Hynd's mother. Lee is a nurse at York Central Hospital and has kindly consented to go along on the seniors' outings to make sure that all is well.

From the restaurant, they drove on through to Bracebridge, and stopped for a few minutes at the falls north of there for pictures and a stroll.

The drive from there along the south side of the Lake of Bays was beautiful beyond description. The trees had all turned vivid colors and the view of the lake through Birch and Maple trees, all in their autumn finery of yellow, orange and red, has to be seen to be believed. The fire look-out towers at Dorset and various points along Highway 35 stood as sentinels over this vast sea of color.

When the tour had almost reached the end of the trip, a singsong was conducted which helped to pass away nearly 40 miles of the 239 miles travelled during the day. After a stop at Sutton for a stretch, a bit of fresh air and refreshments, the group arrived home just at 6 pm, all tired but so very happy.

Plans are underway for a trip to the McLaughlin Planetarium on November 3. This is a Tuesday afternoon. They will probably leave Maple, again by bus, around 1:30 pm. Further details later, but in the meantime those interested should contact Percy Putterbaugh as soon as possible so that a bus can be reserved.

Monday, October 19, the seniors will have a program of slides on the Caribbean.

Presbyterian Church
The congregation of St. Andrew's will be observing its 140th Anniversary this Sunday, with guest speaker Dr. Howard Daig, secretary of the home missions department, General Board of Missions, Presbyterian Church of Canada. This should prove to be a most interesting service and visitors will be most welcome.

The ladies of St. Andrew's WA—WMS would like to extend an invitation to members of the community to join with them in their fall Thankoffering Service, October 21, when Mrs. Margaret Andrew will show slides and speak on her recent trip to Japan. The evening will begin at 8 pm, and refreshments will be served.

Lutheran Church
Members of the congregation of Zion Lutheran are being reminded of their annual fall supper to be held on October 23 at 6:30 pm. A social time will follow the supper with games of crokinole set up.

All ladies will be welcome at the home of Mrs. Edna Bone, Concord, for the October meeting of the LCW, October 21. Confirmation classes began October 8 and will be held each Thursday evening at 7 pm until further notice in the church.

United Church
Tomorrow evening Dr. Robert McClure will be the guest speaker at the UCW Smorgasbord Dinner to be held in the Christian education auditorium of Maple United. Because of the demand for tickets, it is not expected that there will be any for sale at the door. So for anyone wishing to attend, it is imperative that they contact a member of the UCW at once.

This Sunday, Laymen's Sunday, the board of stewards will be serving a pancake breakfast from 8:30 till 10 am at the church. Tickets are 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children, with a maximum family rate of $2.

At 11 am, Robert James, an elder of Maple United, will preach the sermon, and he will be assisted by several other laymen of the congregation. A men's chorus will provide special music. In looking over the contributions of laymen to the life and work of Maple United in its 100 years of Christian service, a most interesting page of the early minute books records the names of those men who hauled, by wagon, the bricks used in the construction of the original building.

The minutes do not record where the supply depot was, but it is stated that 75,000 bricks were purchased, at $3.50 per thousand, and that the following men transported them: Benjamin Andrews, J. M. Ruppert, Wm. Craddock, Adam Dillman, J. P. Rupert, William High, Joshua Oliver, Fred Gaby, J. C. McQuarrie, John Dickhout, Archibald McQuarrie, James McDonald, John Bone, Mr. Powell, Adam Rupert, William McDougall, John Nelson and William Matheson.

At the 7:30 evening service this Sunday, the congregation welcomes back its former minister, Rev. Ralph Williams from Smithville.

The music will be provided by the special Centennial Choir which has been working very hard, over the past weeks, under the direction of Mrs. William Knapp. An old fashioned hymn sing will follow the service, with Brien Thurston at the piano and Mrs. Knapp at the organ. Refreshments will be served during the social hour to follow.

Gibson School
The "Meet The Teachers Night" at the junior school was a tremendous success, with a very good crowd of parents, accompanied by their children, in attendance. Both the staff and members of the home and school association are most happy with the response.

Principal Roy Robson would like to point out to parents, that neither he nor any member of his staff is responsible for the literature sent home with many of the children by the National Conservatory of Music, whose representatives stationed themselves outside the school and handed it out to the children on their way home.

Bailey School
The senior school held their "Meet The Teachers Night" last evening, with a full report to follow in next week's column.

The student council is getting underway for the new year with a representative to be chosen from each classroom.

Classes 6-B with Teacher Ed Murphy and 6-A with Miss Brenda Walton have gone to the Burlington Outdoor Resources Centre, and plans are being finalized for several classes to tour the Ontario Science Centre in Toronto later this month.

Scouts And Cubs
You are being reminded to support our Scouts and Cubs on their annual Apple Day planned for October 24.

Going up ceremonies will be held October 24, with special investiture ceremonies for the new leaders, Ian Ferguson for Scouts, David Brown as his assistant and Mrs. Sheila Boudreau who will assist the Akelas in Cubs.

All parents are invited to be present at the community hall for the ceremonies.

We have also been advised that there are still openings for additional boys in both Scouts and Cubs. Enrolment forms are available on request at the post office.

Lions Club
Time is running out for contributions to the Lions annual auction sale to be held October 24, at the community hall. A call to Lion John Kucherawy at 832-8863 or Lion Doug Chalmers at 832-1551 is all that is needed in order to have your donations picked up.

Just a last reminder that the Lions will be happy to have just about anything you care to contribute with the exception of used clothing. This is your opportunity to help the Lions in their community service.

Bowling
Men's Bowling — September 31 the men's team came up with the following scores: Bruce Murray's Team took all seven points from Roy Clegg's and Bruce Palmer's crew took all seven from George Harrison's Team. Bruce Murray had both high single with 234 and high three with 632.

Wednesday, October 7, George Harrison reversed the score and took all seven points from Roy Clegg and Bruce Palmer seems to be on the move with seven points taken from Murray's men.

Jack Sheppard took high single and high three with 312 and 682.

Pioneers — The Pioneers turned out for their warmup night October 8 and will begin their season in earnest tonight (Thursday).

Ladies — October 5 the following results were tallied: Brandy took 5 points and Rum 2, Sherry took 5 points and Scotch 2, Gin took 7 points and Vodka 0, Rye took 5 points and Port 2. This leaves Brandy and Sherry tied in first place with 21 points. Gin next with 18, Port and Scotch with 13, Rye with 12, Rum with 9 and Vodka with 5.

Sharon Groundsell had high single game with 252, Bertha Ingram high three with 637 and June Wilson high average with 206.

Kleinburg Klarion

Mrs. Margaret Hands, Napier Street, is a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket. Best wishes for good health are wished by all her neighbors and friends.

Mrs. Gerfield Fifield, Camlaren Crescent, held a "Fashion Two-Twenty" make-up party for six of her friends, September 28. Mrs. Mary Austin demonstrated the products with Joyce Fifield as model.

Mrs. Ken Hawman, 100 Co-hill Avenue, Toronto, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower in honor of her niece, bride-to-be Ann Hawman, October 2, when many relatives presented lovely gifts. Ann, formerly of Woodbridge, is the younger daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Hawman.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Terry Dune, RR 1, Kleinburg, her bowling friends know her as their President Gail on the death of her father, Stan Archibald, Woodbridge, on October 4.

John Sant, builder of the new homes in Kleinburg Estates, reports that after a brief absence from the district, about $250 worth of doors and shelves was stolen out of an unoccupied house on Art Drive by someone in a white pickup truck.

Get well wishes to Harry Maskell who is now immobile with a broken leg in a cast. We are happy to report that Arthur Irwin is on the mend after a fall from a truck on the job at Boyd Park Conservation Area.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stairs have recently returned from a weeklong visit at the home of Mrs. Stairs' parents in Oak Lake, Manitoba.

After choir practice Wednesday evening of last week I called in to see how the Village Squares dancing was proceeding and was very gratified to see a turnout of seven sets (56 people), five sets now being members of the Village Squares. They completely filled the auditorium of the junior high school and were certainly having a good time under the calling of Murray Morrison.

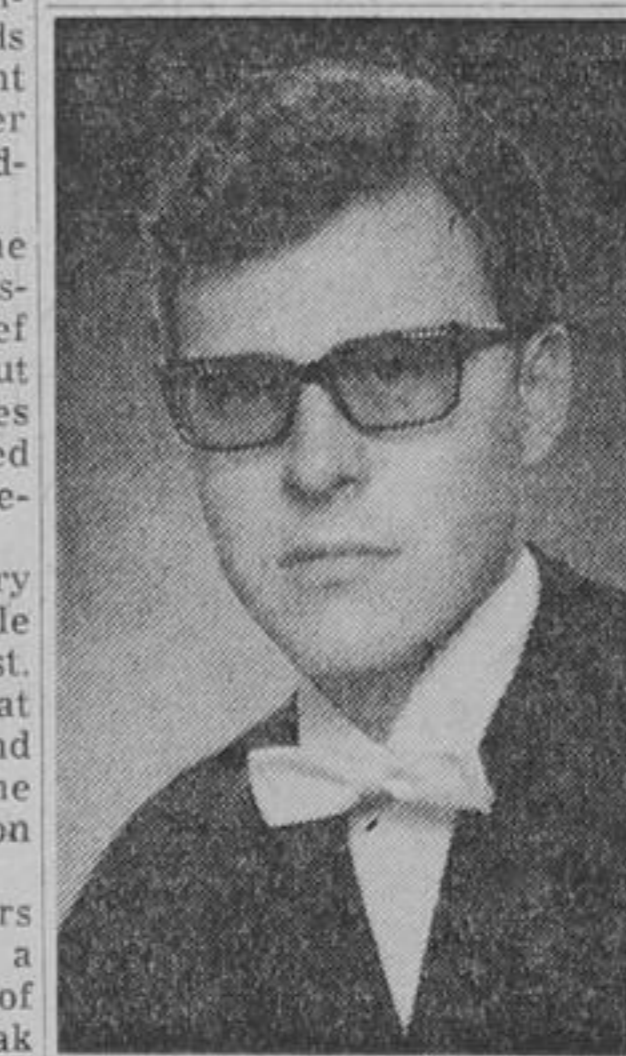

All this proves that the Kleinburg and Nashville Area Recreation Committee (its sponsors) has indeed a role to play in the community.

Nobleton Figure Skating Club is holding its registration October 21, 4 - 5 pm. Free skating will be enjoyed by all interested. The last day for registration is October 26. After that date NO one will be accepted.

Guide mothers, this year your daughter is invited to the Ice Capades. Please forward $1.25 with your daughters to the next Guide meeting, as all money must be received by October 22.

Central United Church Women and some friends enjoyed a bus trip October 6. Leaving the church at 9:30 am, they travelled by bus to the Legislature Buildings at Queen's Park where they were met by Donald Deacon, the MLA York Centre, and had their picture taken. Mr. Deacon later addressed the audience briefly. A cup of coffee was served to the group and they left for a guided tour around Centre Island in a flat Netherlands sightseeing boat.

Barbecued chicken was enjoyed while a guide explained the buildings on the islands, what the foreign ships were loading and unloading and the new Toronto skyline. Some bought a picture of themselves taken on the boat. On returning to the bus, it was found the bus had a parking ticket on it. Everyone had to chip in and pay ten cents as the fine was five dollars.

JOHN KELLAM

Humber Graduate

A recent graduate from the two year course in Funeral Services Education at Humber College was John Kellam. He served his apprenticeship and is now working with McDougall and Brown's Scarborough Chapel.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everard Kellam, RR1, Nashville. He attended the Lower Ninth, Coleraine and Kleinburg Public Schools and Woodbridge High School.

The Dutchess Was Really Beautiful

Thursday, October 1 was an unforgettable day in the life of seven-year-old Wendy Gipps, Lancer Drive. It was on that day that Wendy met and talked to a real live Dutchess.

The young Maple resident was chosen by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind to present a gift of a book and a corsage to the Duchess of Kent who was in Toronto to open the United Appeal Campaign.

Wendy, who is in grade 2 at the Joseph A. Gibson Public School, received a duplicate corsage and a smaller book with a copy of the message in the book she presented to the Duchess.

In the above picture the Duchess holds Wendy's hand as she acknowledges the gifts. The mutual admiration of two beautiful ladies is quite evident.
