Church News
At Thornhill United Church October 25 the Sacrament of Baptism was administered to Marliese Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dieter Maron, Steeles Avenue; and to Deborah Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mitchell, Blue Spruce Lane.

Deborah wore a 75-year-old handmade dress for her christening. It was very long and fashioned with a high frilly neckline which was the style then.

A dinner party celebrated the occasion including guests from Owen Sound.

Plans are now complete for the cross-Canada Caravan sponsored by the UCW, November 6 from 2 to 4:30 pm. This will be followed by a dessert and coffee party at 7:30 pm. The caravan is a unique collection of four boutiques representing the West, Ontario, Quebec and the Maritimes. Many lovely articles, typical of the various religions have been gathered together to be admired and purchased.

A special feature will be a silent auction. This is simplified process in which you can bid by ballot for a beautiful handmade afghan, etc. Contributions for this auction from your hobbies, such as paintings, ceramics and handwork of any kind would be greatly appreciated.

Don't forget the opportunity sale this Saturday at Holy Trinity Anglican Church.

"Women Now!" — a morning coffee group plus — a morning Newtonbrook United Church (9:45-11:30 am). Just 40c covers babysitting, refreshments and a pleasant morning of socializing with others in the community as well as a variety of stimulating program to add new dimensions to the lives of today's busy wives and mothers.

Tuesday, November 3, the fellowship room of Newtonbrook United will be transformed to the "Den of Antiquity". Ruth Graner and Sheila Iseman will display their collections of antiques for your pleasure and you may purchase any items. Delving into the past might just make the present more interesting. For more information please phone 222-1489.

Scouts from 2nd Thornhill who are going up into Venturers include George Beardwood, Bob McCrimmon, Bradley Job, Gary Jenkins, Mike Cowie and Bruce Rozycki.

Cubs of 2nd Thornhill are looking for a leader and the Scouts of this group need assistants. Call Ron McKnight at 889-4281 if you can provide Cub leadership or 889-2941 if you can assist with the Scouts.

Twelve boys from 2nd Thornhill plan to attend the camp at Boyd Conservation area October 30, 31 and November 1. They have invited a group of Scouts from St. Edwards 5th Willowdale to join them. The camp has been organized by York Summit and will include about 200 Scouts.

Neighbourhood Notes
Congratulations to Marlene Dorothy Steele of Steeles Avenue and Gordon Edmondstone Clow, 57 Clarke Avenue, who were married October 23 at Willowdale United Church. Reception followed at the home of the bride, 51 Steeles Avenue. Maid of honor was Bonnie Mason, bridesmaid was Janice Callingham, best man was William Clow and usher was Garry Stamp.

ORCHID
in a tea cup

A charming colourful floral arrangement centered around an exotic orchid. Displayed in a fine English bone-china tea cup. Makes a lovely gift with the cup and saucer a lasting bonus.
