Xmas Music At St. Mary's

"A Gift of Christmas Music" will be presented by the 90-voice Etobicoke Centennial Choir at St. Mary's Anglican Church on December 8 at 8:30 p.m.

This widely known group has been singing to capacity audiences in Etobicoke and area since 1967 and as the title indicates, will offer an excellent program of seasonal music. Members of St. Mary's Choir in conjunction with the church are sponsoring the concert, and proceeds will be used to assist the Richmond Hill and Thornhill Family Services, a fairly costly community service to which St. Mary's has pledged support.

Tickets at $1. each may be obtained from any choir member by calling Mrs. Adrian Lennox at 884-4821.

Very Rev. S. B. Moors

Prior Of Marylake Monastery Dies From Injuries In Car Crash

The Very Reverend Suitbert Bernard Moors, Prior of Marylake Monastery, King City, died November 10 as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. The head-on collision occurred near Malone, New York State, October 26. Father Moors suffered a cerebral concussion and a fractured leg.

His funeral service was held at Marylake Shrine November 13, with a concelebrated Mass at 11 a.m. Burial followed in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Father Moors was among the first Augustinians who came to Marylake in 1942. He served as Superior from 1953 to 1959 and returned to the monastery in 1968, again serving in that capacity until his death.

Born in Germany, Father Moors emigrated to the United States as a youth and was an upholsterer in Philadelphia before being ordained as priest of the Augustinian Order in 1939.

Three other members of the community were injured in the crash which led to the driver of the other car being charged with failure to yield the right of way. The others injured were Rev. Stanislaus Treu, Brother Ninian Marsh and Brother Joseph Walker.

"Alice In Wierdsville" Musical Slated For December 17, 18, 19

The mixed-up White Rabbit in Alice in Wonderland kept saying in panic, "I'm late, I'm late." This is the way OMNI OBLI is beginning to feel about its proposed Christmas Musical, farce, and satire, slated for December 17, 18 and 19 called "Alice in Wierdsville."

The realization this week that only four rehearsals are left before opening night has sobered the young cast into settling down and getting things done. The first half of the production is shaping up well and John Stephenson, major domo in charge of scenery, lights and sound, reports the stage is three-quarters finished. Joe Durand, the mixed-up hippie in "Alice," summed up the situation nicely when he said, "Man gotta move, ya hear, we gotta move."

The three night performance will be in aid of the Richmond Hill Family Counselling Service and tickets will be available within the next few days. "Alice In Wierdsville" is produced by members of OMNI OBLI as a program of public services for the town.

A further successful service project of the OMNI clan last week was the first big night of the "Purple Pickle," Richmond Hill's first drop-in coffee house. Last Saturday Club Double 0-2 members (a younger OMNI OBLI), assisted by some of the older group, opened the doors of the "Purple Pickle" from 7:30 to 11:30 to the town's youth. The response by the local teen types was most gratifying.

On hand to keep the order of things open and above board were two adults who reported little trouble with the operation. The OMNI clan held up to 100 people comfortably, and this limited number made those who attended more determined to keep hold of their tables, much to the chagrin of the young folk who had to wait outside. Visiting folk artist Bill Slater performed well with a diversified program of folk tunes.

The "Purple Pickle" will open its doors once again next Saturday at 7:30 pm for the teen types of Richmond Hill.

Fewer Pennies This Year

Mrs. Mary Carter, South Taylor Mills Drive, in her second year as York County representative for UNICEF, reports that the Halloween Shelltons to feed and clothe the hungry children of the world are down somewhat this year, due probably to the inclement weather on October 31.

Although complete returns are not in as yet, Mrs. Carter reports indications are that the school children in Richmond Hill raised about $1,000 that evening and the total for York County will be in the neighborhood of $1,200. Last year that total was $2,000, triple what it had been the previous year.

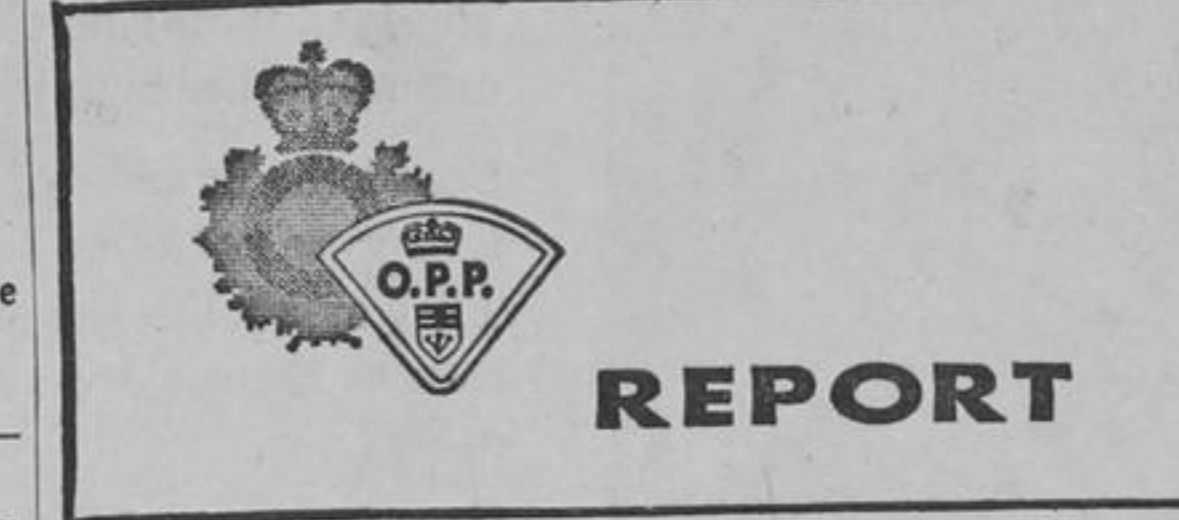

Mrs. Carter expresses her heartfelt thanks to the boards of education, principals, teachers, children and volunteer workers who participated in this year's drive for pennies.

It was quite evident that the eager youngsters who carried the orange and black UNICEF Boxes had a real understanding of the work these pennies will underwrite in developing countries.

Music Alumni Recital Markham Wednesday

A number of Markham Township music teachers are presenting their students in recital at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sissons, RRI, Markham, next Wednesday evening.

The teachers are members of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto Alumni Association, Markham Township Chapter. All members of the association and families, as well as families of the students, are invited.

OAK RIDGES DETACHMENT One Man Killed, One Injured In Highway Traffic Crashes

Bernard Bonelli, of 610 Warden Avenue Scarborough, was seriously injured November 11 in a three-car collision in Markham Township. The accident occurred on Highway 7 near Concession 5, at 4:15 p.m.

The car driven by Mr. Bonelli was in collision with a car driven by Ada Lenaghan of RR 1 Unionville and a car driven by Joseph Shepherd of Brooklin. Damage was estimated at $2,250. The investigating officer was Provincial Constable Jim Orris.

Extensive damage was done to four hydro transformers when they fell off a tractor trailer driven by Lloyd Marshall of Hamilton at the junction of Highway 7 and 48 in Markham Township November 10, shortly after noon. The damage was estimated at $20,000. Provincial Constable Ian Robertson investigated.

Fatally injured November 10 at 10:30 was 50-year-old Edward Carducci of Innisfil Township, when the car he was driving south on Highway 400 south of the York-Simcoe County line in King Township went out of control. It struck a tree. Damage was estimated at $2,000. Investigating the accident was Provincial Constable Tom Jones.

United Church Women Rally In King City

The need for better communications between church and people was stressed at the annual fall rally of the United Church Women of York Presbyterian in King City United Church on November 5.

The group was welcomed by Presbyterian President Mrs. Donald Findlay of King City and King City UCW President Mrs. Donald Hadwin.

Mrs. Stuart Watson of Stouffville, leadership development chairman, led the group in a worship service stressing the approachability of God through Christ. She was assisted by Mrs. James Mills of Uxbridge, soloist; Mrs. Norman Gibson, King City; Mrs. Arnold Gardhouse, Sharon; Mrs. Ross Gilbert, Markham; and Mrs. Donald Walker, also of Markham.

William Bird, manager of the Ryerson Book Store, presented new literature available for the current study on "The Americas." Mr. Bird spoke of the concern among United Church people at the news of the sale of the church-owned Ryerson Press — a difficult decision made necessary for financial reasons, he explained.

Miss Margaret Smith, deaconess at Rosedale United Church in Toronto, formerly at Markham United Church, presented program ideas for the winter study on "The Americas." The film, "A Problem of Power" depicting life in countries of South America was shown.

William Walker of Markham, chairman of York Presbytery, was the guest speaker at the afternoon session. He stressed the need for better communications and co-operation between clergy and laity; between different courts or the church; between Christian men and Christian women working within the church.

The day ended with viewing of the film, "That All May Be One," a film produced by the United Church to show what it is trying to accomplish in aid to the underprivileged.

Cty. Bd. Opposes "New Separatism"

nearly 40 per cent of Roman Catholics direct their school taxes and send their children to public schools.

It argues that "At a time when people of many faiths are being drawn together for improved social action, community planning and religious activities, it is backward-looking to extend separatism into high schools."

The committee urges that "The denominational advantage accruing to the Roman Catholic Church through the public support of elementary separate schools should not be extended by giving public funds to separate high schools."

It objects to the proposal "Because a complete separate school system would have its own buildings, fully equipped and staffed, involving much costly duplication within the community and much higher taxes."

"In many localities the dividing of secondary school youth between public and separate schools would leave each system with too small an enrolment to offer sufficient technical and academic options to students or to pay adequate salaries to teachers."

The inter-church committee urges trustees not to "knock" the other side, but to be positive.

"We want a united Canada, and we must begin with a united community. We all deplore the spirit of separatism that is growing in Canada. Just such a

University Club Look At Church In The '70's

"The Church in the '70's" will be the topic for the November meeting of York County Branch of the Canadian Federation of University Women.

Rev. John Hunter of Aurora United Church will be the speaker at 8:30 pm Monday at King-craft in King City.

New members are welcome. For further information call Mrs. Janet Fayle at 884-3348.

CGIT Doings

By JO ANNE PLUME
 St. Matthew's United Church

For our last meeting in October St. Matthew's CGIT had a Halloween Party led by Jo-Anne Plume, Kathy Plume and Nancy Stoness. The members were put in groups and had to dress a pumpkin and write a story about it. There was costume judging and the winners were Debbie Joyce as a litterbug, Dawn Abbet and Karen Tennant as Popeye and Olive Oyl, Lorie Broshoff as Aunt Jemima and our winning leader was Mrs. Donna Smith as the Jolly Green Giant.

For our first meeting in November we had initiation and the new girls had to wear slacks, blouse on backwards, father's undershirt, eleven pipper, oven mitts, one slipper and one runner. The new leaders had to wear eleven pigtails, oven mitts, long underwear, diaper and with make-up on half of their faces only.

The girls in charge of this night were Linda Robbins, Debra Stoness, Cathy Loughlin, Maureen Caldwell.

The worship service was led by Mrs. Donna Smith. We had a singing led by Joanne Plume. We then went to groups and there were 69 people present.
