In The Spotlight

Seven in this community. (Several of the "group" lived on John Street in Thornhill at one time.) It is an energetic undertaking to say the least and those people engaged in the organization of this event have been working hard since early January to ensure its success. With the rapid encroachment of Metro on our immediate area, we are becoming increasingly more community minded. One of the ways we can promote our uniqueness is by supporting and attending this exhibition of our own artists. If you know someone who is a talented artist or craftsman, do make sure they make every effort to exhibit at Heintzman House May 2. Diane Hemstock (889-9623) or Shirley Foster (889-2881) are the people to approach.

Sunday, May 2 seems quite a way off just now, but I noticed a few indications of spring on our maple tree the other day. Mark May 2 on your calendar now and when you attend this exhibit, you may find yourself pleasantly surprised and even excited about the talent in our area. Besides, who knows, maybe the sales of jug milk may increase if our artists have a few extra pennies in their pockets.

Sutton Ghost Busy

One does not usually associate ghosts with Canada, and certainly not with the Region of York, but Provincial Judge Clare Morrison is willing to concede that there is a possibility that a ghost may be sharing a 150 year old Sutton farmhouse with the judge and his family. Since he comes from that part of the country, Judge Morrison knew all about the house when he moved in with his wife, Margaret, and four children a year and a half ago.

It had a reputation for being haunted, and the wife of a former owner spent one night there and left, never to return, but this did not deter the Morrison family. They were satisfied that, if the house was indeed haunted, the apparition was a friendly one. The solid fieldstone house in Georgina Township was built on crown land granted to William Johnston, a retired Royal Navy captain, in 1819, and was occupied by the captain, his wife and two slaves.

(Yes—even though we choose to forget, there were slaves in Ontario in 1819.) The Johnstons had two children, but both died in infancy, and are presumably buried in the small family plot near the orchard. William and his wife, Roxanne, were also buried there and their graves are protected by an iron railing. Two other graves, marked only by blank headstones, are presumably those of the slaves.

The babies, William and the slaves have rested quietly through the years, but legend has it that Roxanne continues to visit the house that was once her home. Shortly after moving into the house, Judge Morrison was awakened one night by the sound of footsteps coming into the room, but he could see no

VON Ended 1970 With Deficit Carries $5,000 Over Into 1971

VON Nurse-in-charge Miss Janis Williams most aptly described the service of VON to the community to the 13th annual meeting, as: "Persons are able to return to their homes sooner after hospitalization, where it has been found that a patient progresses more favorably during convalescence. If a person is suffering from a chronic illness, the Victorian Order Nurse will not make him better, but she will help him accept what has happened and make the best of what abilities and health he does have."

Miss Williams made the statement during her report on the past year's work. The annual meeting of the branch, begun in Richmond Hill 13 years ago, which now serves the Region of York, was held in Richmond Hill Council Chambers February 3. It was reported that York Region has approximately 135,000 population with approximately 600 hospital beds. That there is a great need for VON services is demonstrated by the fact that they made nearly 5,000 visits during 1970. This service costs money. In spite of regular sources of income and generous donations on the part of businesses, service clubs, individuals and groups of public-spirited people (particularly Bayview Secondary School students), the board heard the unhappy news from Treasurer Herbert Ludlow that a deficit of nearly $5,000 must be carried forward into 1971.

Even with these financial problems, the nurses and the board felt 1970 was a most rewarding year. Full time nurses are Miss Janis Williams and Miss Wendy Field, with assistance of part time nurses Mrs. Doris Mabson, Mrs. Sonia Wright, Mrs. Diane Clark, Mrs. Nancy Sever, Mrs. Barbara Chandler and Mrs. Carol Thompson. The VON board consists of President Dr. Edward Pamerter, Vice-President Grant Marshall, Secretary Mrs. Robert Campbell, Recording Secretary Mrs. Jack Wallbank, Treasurer Herbert Ludlow, Jack Knott, Mrs. John Knox and Mrs. Barbara Stuble.

Woodbridge Man, 60, Is Charged With Rape Of Girl Under Age 14

A 60-year-old Woodbridge man in Richmond Hill Provincial Court March 4 was charged with having sexual intercourse with a girl under the age of 14 years. Robert Julian Morris, 60, of 1 Park Drive, Woodbridge, made no election or plea. He was remanded in custody until March 11. Provincial Judge Russell Pearce set bail at $500 cash or property.

Court NEWS

The offense is alleged to have taken place February 27. A second conviction for impaired driving last week put a Toronto driver in jail for 14 days. Alfred Campbell, 31, of 37 Eldon Street, admitted driving while impaired December 11 in Vaughan. He made the plea in Richmond Hill Provincial Court March 4.

Judge Pearce gave Campbell the minimum sentence possible. Campbell's driver's license is also suspended six months. "I must impose a jail sentence of at least 14 days, and not more than three months," said Judge Pearce. Campbell said he had a broken leg when he was stopped at 5:45 pm on Highway 7, about ½-mile west of Dufferin Street.

Crown Attorney Frank Hoffman told the court Campbell's car was followed by a Vaughan Policeman as it wove from side to side and left the road four times. Two other cars had to leave the roadway to avoid a collision. Campbell's previous conviction for impaired driving was on February 19 of last year, the Crown Attorney said. The accused was given a breathalyzer test, which yielded readings of 2.30 and 2.40, he added.

A Pine Grove man in court March 4 admitted impaired care and control of a vehicle that was in an accident February 13 in Vaughan Town. Edmond Garceau, 49, of Lot 9, Vaughan Concession 7, was fined $150 or 30 days in jail. Because of the accident, the usual three-month driver's license suspension automatically increases to six months. The Crown Attorney said Garceau had a breathalyzer test reading of 2.20.

A Woodbridge driver in Richmond Hill Court March 4 admitted failing a breathalyzer test February 13. Daniel Ferguson, 24, of 3333 Islington Avenue, RR 2, Woodbridge, was convicted by Judge Pearce and fined $150 or 30 days, with time to pay.

His driver's license was automatically suspended for three months by the Department of
