Bayview Second In Gymnastics Meet

GYMNASTICS

Last week Bayview's boys gymnastics team cast of 400 Unionville skaters travelled to Thornlea to do battle against four other schools. Bayview put on a fine showing, as they ended second by accumulating 122.7 points. Only Salute to our 20th Show" with Joan Pynn. Langstaff, with 144.5 points, did better than Bayview. Other schools participating were Woodbridge, Thornlea and Richmond Hill.

Bayview's top junior boy was Steve Pearce with bara Berezowski. 10.5 points, this was good enough to put him fourth Bayview intermediates, and also topped all other performers in the meet. He amassed a fantastic score of 48.9 points.

WRESTLING

The wrestling season officially ended with the conclusion of the All-Ontario finals. Bayview's only entry into this big event was Bob Campbell. Unfortunately. Bob did not fair very well, as he lost his first fight, which eliminated him from further competition. Georgetown was the eventual school winner.

HOUSE SPORTS Bowling: - Last week Bayview held a house league bowling tournament. Equestrian was the eventual winner as they edged out Chinook by a mere four points. * * * * *

> PLAYER OF THE WEEK Steve Juhasz (Bala)

All you have to do is look at the enormous amount of points Steve chalked up at the recent gymnastics meet, and you will know why he deserves to be the player of the week. Steve led all other athletes in the meet by registering 48.9 points.

NOTES

The gymnastics meet held at Thornlea, had an unusual touch to it. All of the judging was done by Bayview students, who had been specially trained to mark such a meet.

goalie with a minute or so left and Georgetown scored on the empty net.

Just one of those nights. I staggered blindly out into the night myself wondering where all the justice was. My dramatic column was down the drain again. Now what would I write about?

GOLF TIME

I would imagine that there is nothing sadder to a golfer than a golf course covered in four feet of Haseman with one assist. snow or more on a warm, sunny day in early March.

You can just picture him in several stages of forlorneness looking dolefully out of his club window, then nervously racing back to the bar for another rye and ginger and/or scotch and soda.

So on the chance that I might run into such a golfing phenomena in early March I meandered up to the Richmond Hill Summit Golf and Country Club course the other day.

Yes, there was snow, piles and piles of it. But there was also Manager Bill Frampton looking quite tranquil about the whole bit.

"Oh, yes, we've had the odd golfers looking sadly out the window wondering if he'd ever see a blade of grass again. But we're expecting to get things going about the third week of April."

Bill, believe it or not, is actually happy to see the heavy snowfall at the Summit.

"Best thing in the world for the greens," he cackled. "Should make for excellent greens." He went on to explain that a somewhat barren, snow-less winter leaves the courses exposed to the harsh, cold winds of March. "The wind dries the unprotected grass out, as well as the roots, and you're left with a very poor quality of grass."

Yes, an ill wind and all that.

One more interesting item gleaned from Mr. each of the teams in the other Because of the additional Frampton was to the affect that his Summit Club is doing its part to fight pollution.

This year the board of directors decreed that any and all soft drink and/or beer bottles sold at the club must be in returnable bottles to avoid moun- Matthew Zurich

Now if everyone just did his small part . . . It's a long way off yet (but is it, really, time flieth) but 1973 will be a big year for the Summit. It will be the scene of the Annual Canadian Amateur Golf Tournament.

To conclude: Cool it man, golfing time is just around those snowbanks out there. Or, rather, under them.

CLARK STARS

The word from New Haven, Conn., is that Phil Clark of Richmond Hill played a key role in the success of Yale University's freshman hockey team this season.

Phil, who played his minor hockey in the Hill, was tabbed in the publicity blurb as a hard skater with a good shot who collected 39 points (22 goals, 17 assists). His 22 goals were the second highest on the team. The team, named the Bullpups (no, I don't know why), had a 17-2 won-lost record, the best in three years.

SRING IS HERE?

Spring, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful spring is on the way so it's time for a few briefies on softball just as soon as I get this snowflake out of my eye. Firstly, Russell "Casey" Cripps of the Richmond Hill Dynes Jewellers announces that his team will be rejoining the Oshawa and District Fastball League for the third season in a row after much soul-searching. But more on the soul-searching in another column.

The same Mr. Cripps adds that the Jewellers and Oshawa Tony's will be playing an interlocking schedule with teams from Windsor, Sarnia, Detroit, each, and London this season. But also more on this later when the waters become a little clearer. But it should make for a terrific softball season for the fans if this be the case and it apparently is the case. ATOMS

Still with the Jewellers: The team attended the Oshawa and District Fastball League annual banquet in Oshawa Saturday and were presented with the league and playoff championship trophies. It's the third year in a row Dynes have won all the goodies.

A long list of softball notables attended the dinner including Dynes Secretary Angus Philip, Mr. Cripps, and OASA President Max Scheff, Cliff Belch, an assist, Dave Lewis and Er-OAS secretary-treasurer, etc., etc.

PRACTICE TIME

Still on softball. A change in practice times for the Jewellers. It was announced last week that goal without assistance. Paul the Jewellers would hold their initial indoor work- Armstrong was helped by Allan out March 25 at Bayview Secondary. Scrub this. Barnett for VCA. It's been changed to (this is final, they tell me) this Saturday from 10 am to 12 noon at Don Head Secondary School in the Hill.

A type of commune practice will also be held to a win for the construction April 1, 8, and 15 at Bayview Secondary School. These workouts will be for Senior, Intermediate and Junior aspirants to the Dynes Jewellers, Kent Clothes Juniors, and the Richmond Hill Auto Body Intermediates. Time is 7:30 pm. If the above confuses you, just read it again.
