Church News

Rev. Norman Wingert who has worked with the Mennonite Central Relief Committee for 20 years spoke on Sunday morning at Heise Hill Church. He told of very interesting experiences and also how he had personally delivered leprosy bundles and relief bundles in various countries of the world. The ladies of Heise Hill Church pack several of these bundles each year so were very interested in hearing about their delivery.

Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Winger and Misses Mary and Adeline Reaman attended the Bible Conference at Fordwich over the weekend and visited relatives there.

Mrs. Roy Brillinger received a letter from her daughter Velma who is a missionary at Choma, Zambia. She tells about the surprise birthday supper for her in March. She appreciated very much the many cards and letters which she received from friends and relatives here.

Plan to attend the World Missions Conference at Gormley Missionary Church April 14 to 18. Rev. John Blosser of India was the guest speaker on Wednesday night. Miss Margaret Brown RN, of Nigeria will speak. She also helped to relieve work in Biafra after the Civil War.

On Friday night Rev. Paul Erdel, Director of Overseas Missions will be the guest speaker. He has travelled extensively in many countries.

Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Meed of Ethiopia will be providing special music. After the service a light buffet representing foods from various overseas countries will be served in the Fellowship Hall.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Harold Knights of Nigeria will address the combined departments of the Sunday school. Harold Knights, BA, of Nigeria will speak at the 11 am service.

Rev. John Zurcher of Haiti will be the final speaker at 7:30 pm Sunday. The Gormley Male Quartette will sing at both Sunday services.

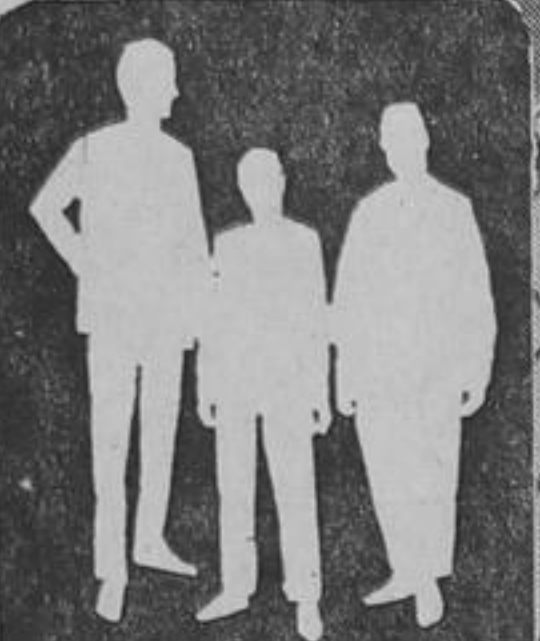

Another feature will be the playing of a tape from our own missionaries Allan and Dorine Doner of Nigeria who are supported by the Gormley church.

All are cordially invited to attend these special services and also to see the various displays in the church.

SCHONBERG: A barn fire near here April 3, destroyed 430 pigs on the farm rented by Leonard Bishop, 1 1/2 miles west of town. Total loss in the blaze was estimated at $30,000.
