OFFICER CADET DAVID POLLARD

Receives Commission

A recent graduate from the Royal Military College of Canada in Kingston was Officer Cadet David William Pollard, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pollard of 242 Altamira Road, Richmond Hill.
After graduating from Thornhill Secondary School in Thornhill in 1967, Cadet Pollard entered Royal Roads Military College in British Columbia. Two years later he proceeded to RMC to complete the final two years of his four year course.
While attending RMC, he participated in the intra-mural rugby, soccer, volleyball, floor hockey and basketball teams and on the varsity rugby team. He held the positions of Cadet Wing Supply Manager and Cadet Squadron Training Officer and was enrolled in the sea element of the Canadian Armed Forces.
He has received his Bachelor of Arts degree in history and his commission in the Canadian Armed Forces.

REPORT

OAK RIDGES DETACHMENT

Seven-Year-Old Girl Killed In Vaughan

Seven-year-old Marion McKee, Lot 17, Concession 8, Town of Vaughan, was fatally injured on Highway 27, north of Highway 7 May 28 at 8:25 am. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McKee, RR 3, Woodbridge, was walking on the side of the road when hit by a car driven by Marjorie Wilkinson of RR 1, Schomberg. The investigating officer was Provincial Constable Don Dawson.
David Blount of 69 Martin Street, King City, was treated at York Central Hospital for head lacerations received in a four-car collision on Highway 27 at the King-Vaughan Townline at 1:25 pm May 27. Drivers of the other cars involved were Margaret Rimer, RR 1, Schomberg; Paul Olsen, RR 3, Schomberg; and Ralph McKenzie, RR 4, Alliston. Damage was estimated at $3,300. The incident was investigated by Provincial Constable Steve McFadden.
Three persons were injured in a two-car crash on Highway 48 at Virginia at 2:45 pm May 23.
Angus Smith and Ann Smith of Lot 40, Concession 3, East Gwillimbury, Queensville, were treated at York County Hospital, Newmarket, for head injuries. Their car was in collision with one driven by Ernie Joyce of 3847 Lawrence Avenue.

Kleinburg Man Ontario Place

Manager of all the government restaurants at Ontario Place, the Queen's Park new showcase opened during the Victoria Holiday Weekend at the waterfront of the CNE grounds, is a Kleinburg boy, John MacEachern.
Although born in Toronto, Mr. MacEachern has lived in Kleinburg since 1950 and received his elementary education in the old public school there. He attended Ridley College for his secondary education and then enrolled in an arts course at McGill University in Montreal.
During the summers of his student years he worked in the CPR hotels at Banff and Lake Louise and it was this which roused the interest in the catering business.
He then attended the school of Hotel and Resort Administration at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York.
Mr. MacEachern is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacEachern of Kleinburg. His mother is one of the owners of "The Doctor's House," the new home of fine eating in that hamlet.

Region $4,045,000 Roads Budget Shows $1,566,000 For King Road

York Region plans a $4,045,000 roads construction and roads property purchase program this year.
The biggest single item in the program is $1,210,000 for grading, graveling and paving the King Sideroad for 3.8 miles from Keele Street to Highway 11 (Yonge Street). The whole project costs $1,566,000 this year.
Clearing, grubbing and fencing for this project will cost an additional $24,000.
In addition $270,000 will be spent providing a grade separation at the railroad crossing in King City.
Property acquisition for this 3.8 miles of new road will cost an estimated $62,000.
These figures are contained in the region's 1971 expenditure budget tabled in council last week.
The region's next largest project this year will be the two miles of street in Newmarket, where Eagle, Water and Gorham streets are being reconstructed.
Property purchases for this project will amount to an estimated $19,000.
Another major project will be $584,000 for grading and graveling the Bloomington Road from Woodbine Avenue (formerly Don Mills Road) to Highway 48, a distance of five miles. Property will also be acquired for Bloomington Road a distance of 1.3 miles from Woodbine Avenue to Leslie Street, at a cost of $100,000.
THORNHILL — MAPLE
In the Thornhill area of Markham and at Maple several road construction expenditures are planned.
At the intersection of Bayview Avenue and John Street $800 will be spent on wolf bounties.
The region will spend $1,274,000 on road maintenance and $4,045,000 for roadway construction. The roadways department administration will cost $331,300, with other roadway costs adding $654,000 more.
The total budget for roadways in 1971 is $6,304,445.
Operation of waterworks systems will cost an estimated $701,000 while $896,100 will be spent on sewage systems.
Board of Health expenditures will total $351,200, with $48,730 being spent on the Newmarket Crisis Intervention Centre.
It will cost an estimated $49,370 to operate the Richmond Hill Youth Aid Centre.
Renovations to the health unit building will cost about $15,000.
The region plans to spend $53,400 on a limited dental care program, $40,000 for hospital fees and premiums, $250,410 in grants to public hospitals, along with $3,000 on ambulance service, $90,000 on unspecified grants and provide a $30,000 health board contingency fund.
Total expenditures under the heading of conservation of health will be $1,401,110.

The clerk's department will spend an estimated $83,650 this year.
The treasurer's department will spend $155,650, including $74,400 for salaries and $27,600 to rent equipment. The audit of the region's books is expected to cost $25,000.
The legal department will spend $61,200, including $46,100 for salaries.
It will cost an estimated $55,100 to operate and maintain the regional office building, with the regional farm costing $6,000.
The region expects to spend $35,000 on a category listed as information.
Construction safety inspection will cost $17,000 and plumbing inspection $72,000.
The emergency measures organization will get $16,700 and

Thornhill Home Ransacked

Vandals Threw Junk Down Well, Did $1,500 Damage In Vaughan

An estimated $1,500 damage was done in Vaughan Town Saturday when vandals threw debris down a newly drilled well on a vacant lot on Concession 9.
Someone broke into a house on Thornridge Drive in Thornhill on Saturday and ransacked several rooms.
York Regional Police at press time hadn't been able to determine the total amount of household goods stolen.
The kitchen door had been forced.
On Sunday on Steeles Avenue West in Vaughan someone pried the lock off a garage and forced open a cash register that was inside.
A pick-up truck parked on the property was stolen and later found abandoned on Highway 7.
Also Sunday somebody broke into Roselawn Public School in Richvale, but nothing appeared stolen. There was about $80 damage to the school property.
On Saturday York Regional Police from Vaughan Division charged an Etobicoke youth with stealing a car from the Acme Paper Products Company Limited parking lot at Keele Street and Highway 7.
The office of Dr. Harvey Socol, 294 Bayview Plaza, Richmond Hill, was broken into again last Sunday night.
This is the third such break-in at this doctor's office in recent weeks. Nothing was stolen this time.
Eight-track stereo tape decks valued each at $80 were stolen from parked Richmond Hill cars last weekend.
Joseph Willmott parked his car in the driveway at 112 Hall Street Sunday night and the tape deck was gone from the dash in the morning.
Jerry Wade reported a Titan tape deck stolen from the car left in his driveway at midnight Saturday at 78 Mill Street.

York Police Arrest 5 On Arson Charges After $2,000,000 Blaze

Two Toronto men appeared in Richmond Hill Provincial Court on Friday of last week charged with setting a $2,000,000 marina fire at Keswick April 1.
The pair were remanded in custody to Don Jail in Toronto on $50,000 cash or property bail each, to appear again in Newmarket Provincial Court this Friday.
Woolworth's Is Closing
Although the local Woolworth's Store, located on Yonge Street South will be closing its doors towards the end of July, the building will not be vacant for long. It has been leased to Bad Boy Appliances starting August 1. "The Liberal" learned from Woolworth's head office in Toronto this week.
The present Woolworth's store was opened October 29, 1959. It took the place of the former Mansbridge Meat Market, a long established business, and the Mansbridge family home and lovely garden.
The two Toronto men have both been charged with arson, and conspiracy to commit arson. They are Charles Roberts, 26, of Billings Avenue and Otto Mallory, 39, of Glenholme Avenue.
The Keswick couple were released on bail of $1,000 each, and are also to appear in Newmarket Court this Friday.
The investigation is continuing under the direction of YPR Detective Inspector Wally Harkness, aided by Richmond Hill Division Detective Bill Hay, Georgina Division Acting Patrol Sergeant William Smyth and Markham Division Detective Clifford Cox.
More arrests are expected.
The April 1 fire at the F. S. Crate and Sons Marina at 2:45 am destroyed 34 boats valued between $15,000 and $55,000 each. One man suffered serious injuries when he was blown through a wall of the building in an explosion. He was treated at the Toronto East General Hospital.
Police said gasoline was used to set off the explosion.

York Police Triumph Smash Local Gang, 99 Burglar Charges

Ninety-nine burglary charges have been laid in Richmond Hill Provincial Court after York Regional Police from Markham Division smashed an eight-member local gang of break-in artists last week.
Involved are 17 break-ins in Southern York Region between April 13 and May 9.
Most of the crimes were committed in the towns of Vaughan, Markham and Richmond Hill, with some in King Township and Metro.
All 17 break-ins were at factories and commercial establishments.
So far about $3,000 worth of stolen goods have been recovered, and one man has been charged with receiving stolen goods. Another person is believed to have purchased stolen goods without knowing it.
The investigation was carried out by Detectives Douglas Tribbling, assisted by Detective Bruce Findlay and Constable Terry Hill.
The Markham constables also had assistance from Metro Police 32 Division in the investigation.
Robert Giles, 21 of the Oak Ridges area of Richmond Hill and Howard Howell, 38, of 22 Burnette Avenue, Willowdale, already faced a large number of break-in charges last week when police on Friday became convinced of the extent of the gang operation.
An additional 72 charges were laid against six others on Tuesday of this week.
Facing eight break-in charges is Lynda Porter, 16, of 60 Laverock Avenue, Apartment 306, Richmond Hill.
Brian Ablett, 17, of 45 Boyle Drive, Thornhill, faces five break-in charges. Richard Orton, 21, of 72 Searle Avenue, Toronto, faces 14 break-in charges. Edward Harris, 18, of RR 1, Milliken, faces 15 break-in charges.
David Kenneth Martin, 21, of 17 Clarke Avenue, Thornhill, faces 12 break-in charges.
George Newman, 20, of 22 Burnette Avenue, Willowdale, faces 12 break-in and theft charges.
Some of the offences involved as many as six gang members at a time, police said.
