we felt that this part of our heritage was secure.

"The name Dominion Day represents Biblical and historical feelings which cannot be called up by the use of any other name. For over one hundred years it has been a visible part of our nation, and if it is removed, Canada will be the poorer for it. We have an obligation to pass on to succeeding generations, our heritage, still intact.

"Mr. Prime Minister, your announced plans to celebrate Dominion Day did not once mention the legal name by which all of your elected predecessors called our holiday. We do not wish to believe that you are systematically removing one of our proud symbols, by design.

"We fervently hope that this was an unpremeditated oversight and that the legal name Dominion Day will be used proudly in the present and future, as in the past,
