Baseball Quiz Turned Contest

Everyone 16 or under awake! This is a golden opportunity for some lucky person, who has a reasonably good knowledge of baseball, to win himself the prize offered by an anonymous party.

Am I kidding you ask? No I am not! The rules of the contest are as follows: (1) You must be 16 years of age or younger to enter. (2) Simply cut out the following column and circle the correct answer in each question. (3) You then send the column along with your name and phone number to my address (52 Maralim Road, Richmond Hill). If you prefer it could be dropped off at my house personally.

EVENLY DIVIDED

To give all baseball fans an equal chance I have divided the 15 questions into three equal parts. The three areas are major league, local and minor.

to make a good effort to answer all the questions. If you only know the answer to half of the questions, of Richmond Hill's reserve trouble in chalking up a 6-1 at least take a wild guess and try to answer the remaining questions, because you never can tell, you may hit on a streak of luck and get the ones you guessed at right.

In order to determine a winner, the first entry picked with all the right answers will be awarded the prize. In the case that no one gets all the questions right, the person with the largest number correct will be declared the winner.

THE PRIZES

As I said before the donor prefers to remain anonymous for the time being, but the prize will not. The winner will receive a brand new softball (11 or 12 inch) or hardball, depending on his or her preference.

DON'T SPOIL IT

It all boils down to this. "C'mon, Gang, You've just won the All Ontario. You did beautifully. Don't go and spoil it all by such Mickey Mouse, bush league exhibitions as Thursday night's.

There's a little word you should sew on your uniforms. Just a little word, but a big one. It's called "pride". You had it in abundance last weekend. I didn't see it at all Thursday night.

I hope to see it the rest of the season.

A MEDLEY OF NOTES

Oh yes, speaking of Dynes. I'm informed by Manager-Coach "Casey" Cripps that hurler Dob Domik (who was not allowed to pitch in that doubleheader Saturday against Detroit Nothdurft) will be allowed to go tonight (Thursday) in the Detroit-Michigan Major Fastball League doubleheader at the town park starting at 7:30 pm. Ditto the doubleheader Sunday at the town park against Detroit Cole Erwin at 2 pm. I dunno, don't anyone's word for it? Go, see for yourself.

Also, (according to my information) Domik has been cleared to play with the Jewellers in the All Canadian Fastball Tournament Labor Day weekend in Halifax which is great news. Also in tournaments.

Re that trip to Halifax. Any interested fans wanting to take the jaunt via air along with the team may make arrangements to do so by contacting Hi-Corps Travel Club at 884-6970. It says here that there is a limited number of seats available at discount prices. Sounds like a good deal.

Let's see, what else do we have here.
