Legion Girls In Finals At Oakville Tournament

Last weekend Richmond Hill Legion Ladies commenced their battle for the championship of the fifth annual tournament at Oakville with a 13-0 victory over Barrie Friday evening.

Marion Fox pitched the local girls a no hitter in starry form with a total of 14 strikeouts.

The Richmond Hill team went ahead in the first inning by a score of 1-0 on a hit by Sue Dawson. The third inning proved to be one of big scoring with clouts by Lynn Olsen.

Marion Fox, Sue Dawson, Murial Morrison, "The Blonde Bomb" Linda Elliot, Sandy Glass and Sharon Clarke.

Richmond Hill 7 Hamilton 2

Saturday the Legion Ladies continued their winning form with a 7-2 victory over Hamilton. Again Marion Fox was the winning pitcher, allowing only four hits while striking out 11 batters.

Offensively, the hitters for our local girls were Lynn Olsen.

Murial Morrison, Lynda Elliot, Mary Williamson and Marion Fox. Winning catcher was Irene Bryson who handled Marion Fox's delivery with dispatch.

Richmond Hill 6 Cobourg 0

The Legion girls' third game was a 6-0 victory over Cobourg with Marion Fox having 11 strikeouts and allowing only two hits.

The locals started scoring in the first inning on hits by Cathy Boagey, Linda Elliot and Sandy Glass.

The big hitter was Linda Elliot with a triple and two doubles. Linda is a great addition to the Legion Team with her batting and pitching power.

Tonawanda NY 4 Legion 1

The "A" championship game in the evening proved to be a 4-1 loss for the local girls. They played good ball but didn't have the offensive power to overcome the powerful Tonawanda team.

Linda Elliot scored for the locals' only run.

Marion Fox pitched an excellent game.

Winning pitcher for the champions was Mary Ann Hopkins.

Congratulations are in order for a great team effort and coaching of Tom Mashinter and Shorby Bowen. We also congratulate Pitching Star Marion Fox who was honored as the most valuable player and the best pitcher of the tournament.
