

Dynes Jewellers Win Only 1 Game Four Played During The Weekend

Lady Luck did not smile on Dynes Jewellers Fastball Team last week as they managed only one win out of four starts.

Thursday evening in Richmond Hill, Dynes defeated Oshawa Bunnys 7-1 with Billy Drennan on the mound. He struck out 15 men, allowed seven scattered hits and issued one free pass, to win the game. Dynes collected a total of nine hits.

Bunnys went out in front in the first inning, with two runs out when John Mosure connected for a double and Tim Donovan for a triple to push Mosure across the plate.

The score stood at 1-0 until the third when Dynes scored five runs. Drennan started it when he doubled. Then Kinnersley singled scoring Drennan, Chapman sacrificed him to third, O'Neill walked and Smith singled scoring Kinnersley and O'Neill. Then Donny Lee knocked the ball over the right field fence with Smith on base. In this frame Dynes collected five runs on four hits.

In the bottom of the fourth Dwayne Reid hit a double, McLellan sacrificed, Reid moved to third on a passed ball and scored on Drennan's fly to centre field.

There was no further scoring until the seventh inning when Dynes got their seventh and final run on a sacrifice bunt, a walk and a passed ball. It was Kin-

Town's "A" Squad Drop To Third Spot

Although last week was one of jubilation for the Richmond Hill Tennis Club with our fine wins in the YNL mixed doubles tournament and the exploits of our juniors, this past week of league play was one of dampened spirits. In five league matches contested, the best the locals could salvage was a single win and a draw.

Tuesday, July 27, our YNL squad visited Newmarket. This was a key match for the Richmond Hill side, as they were deadlocked with Newmarket in first spot, only one-half point ahead of the Barrie Club. New bank-lights (as opposed to the ancient lantern type) had been installed at the Newmarket Courts, but unfortunately they had not been wired up in time for the match that night.

The men's and ladies' doubles pairings were all victorious in this encounter, while we could only manage a single win in mixed play. Karl Allison and Henry Smith downed Don Paul and Doug Smith 8-3. Allison and Bob McKee dumped Don Smith and Bruce Koller by the same score, Frank Robinson and myself came from a slight deficit to win 8-6 over Koller and Perkins, while John Anderson and yours truly eeked out an 8-7 victory over Perkins and Leightel.

Pat Robinson and Judy Litt, playing competitively for the first time this season as a doubles unit, made short work of Fran Perkins and Elaine Burt, in winning 8-2. Lou Holland and Irma MacMillan were very stingy towards their youthful opposition of Nathalie Macfarlane and Rosemary Davis, trouncing them 8-1. Lou counted two wins on the night, her second coup coming in the mixed, an 8-2 triumph with partner Bob McKee.

The same night as our YNL crew's decision over Newmarket, our Inter-County "B" Team hosted the Brampton squad. For the second week running our "B" unit had to settle for a 3-3 draw.

On July 28, our ladies so-journed to Mimico. The 6-3 score in favor of the Mimico girls would suggest our ladies had some difficulty in getting untracked. Only the combination of Monica Vermeulen and Joy August (1st couple) could find the winning touch for the Richmond Hill side, taking their three matches 6-5, 6-5, 6-1. Currently the Richmond Hill ladies are in a four-way tie for second place in the league standings, with 10 points. However, if one looks at the breakdown in terms of total sets won, Richmond Hill is a clear third behind Pine Point. Mimico, incidentally, is leading the pack with a comfortable four point bulge.

Richmond Hill's ICTA "A" team had a dismal time of it this past week, having to play two matches, one being a postponed contest with Thornhill, carrying over from the previous week July 28, under threatening skies, our "A" squad met the Thornhill forces. This was a crucial encounter for both parties, especially for Richmond Hill, as they needed a win to maintain a fighting chance for first position in the standings. Richmond Hill certainly didn't get off on the right foot on this occasion, being down three matches before you could bat an eye. With the fourth and pivotal match proceeding on the middle court, i.e. Hillers, Judy Litt and Henry Smith vs Sandy and Noreen Kelson, rain began to fall. As it became heavier the players elected to retire to shelter until it had subsided.

Incidentally the score at this juncture was one set to the Kelsons of Thornhill, 6-5, with a 4-3 count in the Kelsons' favor in the second set. Naturally the Kelsons were eager to culminate the match, and thus assure a Thornhill victory. If the match had been called at this point due to unplayable conditions, the contest would have had to be played at a future date, starting with a clean slate. The shower subsequently waned and the match decision continued again on second court. However, the shower increased once more and the adage "You don't know enough to come out of the rain" became quite applicable to the scene at hand. After much beckoning from the sidelines, the competitors were persuaded

Baker's Undefeated In League Win First Playoff Game 16-6

Scoring 54 runs in two North York Softball league games last Sunday afternoon, Baker's Sales and Service Squirts defeated Thornhill 24-6 in Thornhill, and Markham 30-0 at Crosby Park in a five inning contest.

Lorne Davidson won his fifth ball game as he tossed a fifty four-hitter against Thornhill, while Ted Inch threw a one-hitter against Markham in four innings, with Ross Queregesser shutting out that team for one inning.

Chris Nye and Pete Tipold hit grand slam homers, while Phil Wood hit his fifth homer of the season. The real highlight was the insertion into the lineup of Tykes Billy Madden, Warren Nye and Dale Moreland, who all showed hustle and talent. Scorekeepers Lionel Gleason and Rose Tipold had a frantic time trying to keep up with the scored runs, runs batted in, etc.

Baker's 11
East Gwillimbury 2
The following night, Baker's travelled to East Gwillimbury for their last league game and won 11-2. Ross Queregesser defeated that team for the fifth straight time, as he threw a sparkling five-hitter, shutting out the opposition until the bottom of the seventh with two men out.

Leader Greg MacMillan knocked in three runs and scored twice as he maintained his torrid hitting, going four for four, with two triples. Home run King Phil Wood cracked his sixth of the season. Wood earned three runs batted in, Chris Nye two, and Queregesser one.

Wood, Craig Stoness and Pete Tipold scored twice, while Steve Madden and Robbie Bryan each counted once.

With this win Baker's completed their league play undefeated, winning 16 straight ball games. They scored a total of 231 runs while allowing the opposition 82.

Baker's 16, Stoffville 6
Last Thursday night at Crosby Park Baker's Sales hosted Stoffville in the first game of a two out of three semi-final play-off, and they promptly proceeded to win 16-6. Ross Queregesser threw a nine-hitter for the win, striking out 11 while walking but two.

ed to come in from the wet. With a slight subsidence in precipitation, out they went again, this time to the bitter end (bitter end if you were a Richmond Hill devotee.) Henry and Judy gave it a good go, but failed to take the second set, losing it 5-6.

Both Judy and Henry should be commended for their sporting conduct in this match, as they continued to play even when the rain was relatively heavy and the majority of their sideline supporters were urging them to halt play. Admittedly towards the dying stages of their match the rain had pretty well expended itself and the playing conditions were quite acceptable. In fact, I would think the rain that did fall, would have stabilized the pebbly court surface to some degree, making it easier for the players to maintain their footing. It was little consolation to the Richmond Hill side that they won their last two matches, Bruce Munro and Phil August defeating Tamblin and Preston 6-4, 3-6, 6-3 and Monica Vermeulen and Karl Allison downing Bob Row and Fran Perkins 6-3, 3-6, 6-5.

The following night, the Richmond Hill "A's" took on Mimico, at Mimico, and were cut down 4-2. Only our first and second men's doubles pairs could muster wins, John Marais and Don Paul counting a 6-4, 6-5 triumph and Phil August and Barry Munro besting their rivals 6-2, 6-1.

As a result of these defeats at the hands of Thornhill and Mimico, Richmond Hill's "A" squad quashed any hopes of capturing the coveted No. 1 spot. They are currently running third, five points behind North York who trail the leader, Thornhill, by a single point.

The third (and final) senior round robin tournament of the 1971 season was run off Saturday. Although at first it appeared the turnout was going to be rather sparse, a last minute flurry bolstered the field considerably. In fact, we had a total of 38 entrants, four more than the previous round robin held back in June. The event was played off in three sections, the winning combinations reading as follows: Joan Freeman and Ted Moritsugu, John Marais and Rosemary Redgate and Ann Casey and Joy August. The weather was ideal, the refreshments were superb and the tennis was, on the whole, closely contested, with no one pair amassing an astronomical total of games.

As many tennis fans are aware, the Ontario Junior Open was contested this past week and hopefully many Richmond Hill residents followed the fortunes of young Mark Girdler in this event. Mark advanced to the semi-finals in his 12 and under category, before bowing out to Quebec's top seed Greg Boire, 0-6, 4-6. This is an exceptional showing for Mark, considering that he faced the cream of the crop in the province's foremost junior tournament. Rebounding from a 0-6 slap in the face, to a respectable 4-6 count shows Mark has no deficiency in the competitive drive department. Whether it is within my jurisdiction or not, I congratulate Mark, on behalf of the Richmond Hill Tennis Club, for his outstanding effort in the Ontario Junior Open. And wish him continued good fortune in his future tennis battles!

A total of $154,000 in grants to 47 Ontario sports governing bodies have been announced by Minister of Education Robert Welch. The grants come from his department's youth and recreation branch.

Largest grant, $19,000 goes to the Ontario Ski Council, a federation of four ski zones which in previous years each received a grant.

The Ontario Lawn Tennis Association will receive $11,000, the Ontario Hockey Association $8,750, the Ontario track and field clubs $8,500 and the Ontario Soccer Association $8,000.

United Soccer Club Downs Orillia 5-2

Richmond United Soccer Club travelled up to Orillia July 24 and came away with a fairly easy win and a very important one.

The ground at Orillia was wet and heavy, making ball control difficult. However, after 15 minutes of play with Orillia looking better, Ian McGinnis broke through and put the "Hill" up one. Shortly after, Bruno D'Giovanni, the captain and contender for top goalscorer of the league, got two quick ones, giving him 15 goals in seven games.

United was awarded a penalty kick 15 minutes before half time and Jim Ball made penalty kicking look easy when he rocketed the ball into Orillia's goal. Five minutes later Frank Unger collected a good pass from George Senetos and trapped a slippery ball underneath the goalkeeper making Richmond United up 5-0.

The second half was quite tense and Orillia managed to get two but never had much chance to make it even.

This win brings United clearly in second place in the second division of the league.

Next game is against Aurora Reserves, August 7, at Thornlea Secondary School. Kickoff will be at 6 pm.

Worldwide Squirts Win Their First Game

The losing streak of the Worldwide Shipping Team in the Town Squirt Softball League was shattered last week when they fought valiantly to get their ninth loss of the season but were outsmarted by Town Auto Body who allowed the Shippers to win 9-8, with six runs in the last inning. The big hitters for Worldwide were two tyke players borrowed for the game — Jamie Tucker and Mike Mulvihill. The small fry hit singles to drive in the tying and winning runs.

Murphy's 17, Bob's Boys 9
The Murphy Real Estate team left little doubt that they meant business with six runs in the first inning. Ted Inch pitched the shutout and Gary Gentry played well for Bob's Boys.

Hodgins Hardware 7
N. S. Smith Real Estate 6
With three runs needed in the last inning, N. S. Smith Realty made it most interesting with two runs across the plate before the Hodgins team put the last man out. Paul Mills looked good for Smiths, while Tony Makohin played faultlessly in the field for Hodgins.

Dairy Queen 8,
Mr. Transmission 3
After a rapid start in the win column, the Mr. Transmission team has now fallen back into the pack with yet another loss, this time to Dairy Queen. Terry Byer and Gord Dumas supplied the power for the ice cream clan, while Scott Taylor looked good for the slipping Transmission outfit.

NEWMARKET: James Robertson, a would-be soul-saver, appeared before Judge Russell Pearce July 19 charged with creating a disturbance at the Goodwood and was brought up immediately and given a suspended sentence by a choice of directions he chose the judge on the condition he stay out of York Region. He was similar orders from the west back in court again July 22 and east. He was taken north when he hitched a ride outside to Bradford, where he was picked up and brought up immediately and offered banished to Barrie.
