

They Had The Hallowe'en Spirit

Hallowe'en came to Kresge's Store in Richmond Heights Centre a little early, as members of the staff entered into the spirit of the occasion and served the customers in fancy costumes. They were motivated by an offer of prizes by Store Manager Bruce King.

16th Avenue Public School

On October 29 the home and school held a Hallowe'en Party. There was a good turnout of children and parents.

The ghosts, goblins, beautifully dressed young ladies, queens, brides, etc. really made up the Hallowe'en atmosphere.

Trustee Mrs. Deena Simpson judged the costumes and the following were the winners: Lisa Gillespie dressed as a fairy, Jesse Waddington a beautiful young lady, Scott Breodon a tree or bird, whichever way your eyes saw him, Leo Waddington dressed as Superman, Dough Thomson dressed as a spaceman.

Mrs. Ted Ross, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mrs. Allan Breodon, Mrs. Stewart Thomson, Mrs. Byrle Thomson, Mrs. Frank Meggitt, Mrs. Arthur Longstaff, Mrs. Rosa Bryne and several other kind ladies helped out during the evening. Principal George McKelvey and Teacher Bruce Bone made this event possible.

One person who will not forget this party for sometime is Frank Brass who put the finishing touches to the school after evening left.

On Saturday the home and school is holding a skate exchange in the school gym from 10 am to 12 noon. Anyone who has skis which they would like to exchange please bring them to the school no later than

Wednesday

The name, size and price must be on the skates. For further information please call 889-4405.

November 11 is Remembrance Day and the children will have a holiday from school.

Wedding

RAE - HANSEN

Evangelistic Centre at York Mills Road, Willowdale, was beautifully decorated with mums on October 16 when Gayle Hansen, daughter of Ruth and Earl Hansen of Sixteenth Avenue, Richvale, became the bride of Arthur Rae son of Lila and the late George Rae of Toronto.

The traditional ceremony was performed by Rev. Ronald Stevens of Brampton and Rev. Lloyd Mosley of Willowdale.

Mrs. Hazel Sproule of West Hill played the organ while Mrs. Hazel Preeble of Markham and Mrs. Betty McNealy of Toronto sang the hymns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a magnificent white gown of polyester satin with lace applique top and sleeves with a long train which was fashioned by her mother. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Patricia Boyd was her sister's maid of honor and wore a dark green velvet gown. The bridesmaids were Lynda Simon and Donna Hansen. They were clad in gold velvet gowns. The attendants all carried bouquets of bronze, gold and yellow mums.

Robert Osborne was groomsmen and the ushers were Arthur Boyd and Hughie Gagnon. The bride's young nephew Jammy Boyd carried the rings.

The reception was held at the Royal Fountaine Bieu at Sheppard Avenue East, Willowdale. Out-of-town guests were the bride's uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mills of Aylmer, Ontario.

Neighborhood Notes

If you like good music re-serve the night of Tuesday, November 9 to hear the Jennie Bouck Singers at Brown's Corners Church at 8:30 pm. The singers are tops and their program will be a varied one and was presented this summer at Ontario Place.

Children are admitted free and the charge for adults is nominal. The senior choir is sponsoring this project. Proceeds are for the purchase of new hymn books.

Ann and Tom Cordina (nee Ann Sherman) are the proud parents of a daughter Stephanie Ann who arrived — all pounds, 11 ounces of her — at York Central Hospital October 20. Stephanie Ann is a new granddaughter for Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Sherman.

The Elmore Hills returned home from an extended Western visit with members of their family.

Ken and Lois (Clark) Bennett's new son is doing nicely after recent surgery.

Church News

The Explorer group at Brown's Corners United has made a good start this season. On October 14 they met at the home of Mrs. William Best for a weiner roast, with 17 girls present. Monday night of last week there were 23 present for the Hallowe'en Party.

CGIT girls have been painting the nursery at the church as a project.

On Friday evening of last week Rev. Allen Hallett and the Brown's Corners United Choir were at Union Villa for the weekly chapel service. Mr. Hallett spoke briefly and the choir sang.

Mrs. Jim Wolfe played the prelude and postlude and accompanied a hymn. Mrs. Donald Reesor accompanied the anthem and sang a duet with Jack Gough. Mrs. Marguerite Jones sang a solo. There was a duet by Mrs. Alf Miller and Mrs. Harold Steffler. Miss Sharon Buchanan accompanied the choir in a song. A quartet composed of Sharon, Darlene Stevenson, Patty Gough and Donna Stewart, also sang.

Last week's smorgasbord at Brown's Corners was a memorable evening. The cooks outdid themselves. Adele Carruthers' decorations were gorgeous as always. The entertainment was intriguing and the diners were appreciative. Add to that the beautiful weather and the picture was complete.

Among those assisting Mrs. Dorothy Reesor and Mrs. Marguerite Jones with the program were Sharon Buchanan and Paul Steffler playing a piano and flute duo. Gordon Brown played guitar and sang. Don Reesor showed some beautiful autumn scenes of the countryside.

Vaughan Township History Book To Be Released On November 11

Vaughan Township Historical Society held its annual dinner at Vellore Hall on October 27. Every seat at the dinner table was occupied, 90 persons altogether.

Vellore WI served a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. There were truly magnificent pies with a second piece for those who wished them . . . or had been wise enough to reserve space!

Alvin Wood of Woodbridge thanked the ladies.

President George Snider was chairman. He announced the book "History of Vaughan Township" would be introduced to the public November 11 at a special meeting to be held for that purpose.

The author is Dr. G. Elmore Reaman. He died before it was quite ready for the publisher and the Historical Society took it up as its first project.

Mrs. Norn Garrick, accompanied by her son Kirk, sang a medley of old songs. Archie Cameron Senior introduced evening speaker Russell Cooper, administrator of historic sites for the Metro Parks Commission.

His special responsibility is Pioneer Village which was in Vaughan Township until the boundaries of North York were extended. A small piece of the farm is still in Vaughan, and many residents of the township are very much involved in the activities in the village.

Guest Speaker Cooper said a large Indian encampment dating back before white immigration had been found in the valley below that will take fifty years to excavate, and this is included in the future plans. Pioneer Village had more than two million visitors so far, and of these 70,000 have been school children visiting as classes.

There needs to be continuous changes and improvements to hold the interest, he said.

Cooper showed the society a collection of canes that were made with a dual purpose. The second purpose was hidden in what appeared to be an ordinary walking stick. There was a prod, sword stick, an air gun, fishing rod for poachers, even a narrow bottle and a glass. These aroused great interest. He then showed a series of short films on activities in the village, covering everyday life before Confederation, farming, craftsmanship, etc.

An added interest was the fact that local people were involved as the characters.

At the end of the evening Mrs. Garrick and Kirk played a piano duet.

With Ziebart Rustproofing, your truck won't look like it should be put out to pasture before its time.

It kind of makes you sad to see a truck grow old before its time.

And if the truck is yours, it can make you pretty upset, too. Especially when you see your investment slowly rusting to rust, day after day.

But there is a way you can help your truck last longer.

Get it rustproofed by Ziebart. Because only Ziebart's unique sealing compound and special tools cover every square inch in every tight little spot that could possibly rust.

So only Ziebart Rustproofing can really keep your truck from rusting. And that's especially important for trucks that carry fertilizer and other corrosive chemicals, or drive on country roads where calcium chloride has been spread to keep the dust down.

In fact, Ziebart Rustproofing protects so well, we'll guarantee your truck against rust for five years or fifty thousand miles.*

So you can see why we're pretty confident about our process. After all, we've been in business for over 18 years.

And there's a lot more years left in us, too.
