IN THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE

Church Street, entertained at a dinner party of 17 of their friends on the occasion of their Silver Wedding Anniversary, October 23. The same evening, they were surprised at a party of nearly 40 friends and relatives in the hall of the Maple United. They had received a host of cards and had visitors from as far away as Orangeville, Creemore, Cooksville, Brampton, Hornings Mills and Kettleby, as well as from Richmond Hill, Woodbridge and Maple.

A lovely buffet lunch was served, including an anniversary cake in the shape of a book on which was written "Whom God Hath Joined Together." Mrs. Gladys Maginn was happily surprised when she responded to an invitation to a Tupperware Party, and turned out to be the guest of honor at an "apartment warming party" at the home of Mrs. Florence Marwood. Mrs. Maginn received lovely household items from her friends that will be most useful in her new apartment in Woodbridge.

Friday's Dance
The dance being held Friday evening at the community hall, is being sponsored by the home and school association and is a dance for the parents and teachers, but we should point out that it is open to all members of the community. Since there is no Lions Dance planned for the fall, it is an economical outing of dancing, buffet and bar with fun and friends.

For tickets call Mrs. Eleanor Brown at 832-2364.

Scouts and Cubs
A good representation of Scouts and Cubs, Guides and Brownies, were on hand for the annual church parade to the United Church last Sunday. A wonderful turnout of young people enjoyed the message of Rev. Stanley Snowdon, geared to the children, but timely as well for the adults.

The leaders of the packs marching from the community hall to the church and back behind their colors and under the leadership of Scoutmaster Ian Ferguson were an impressive sight.

Bowling
Ladies — After the bowling October 25, Maverick's have 27 points Mustangs 27, Firebirds 26, Falcons 22, Barracudas 19, Impalas 19, Cougars 14 and Wildcats 14.
High single went to Flo Newman with 287, who also had high triple with 696. High average is still held by Lorraine Leonard with 211.

Pioneer — Pete Craibe's men took five points from Orland Downey who were left with 2. Jack Gooderham's team trimmed Len Weeks team, taking all 7 points.
This leaves Gooderham's with 16 points, Craibe's with 15, Weeks with seven and Downey's with four.
High triple went to Clarence Brown with a good night of 685 and high single went to Len Weeks with 255.

From the George Bailey School, Miss Patricia Chumko's 6-B class spent last Monday at Burlington Outdoor Resources Centre, after having their pictures taken for the second time after the first attempt had problems.

Senior Citizens
The seniors enjoyed an afternoon of euchre October 25, with two high scores of 47, Mrs. Ethel Kerswill and Mrs. Evelyn Hamilton. Mrs. Pearl Brown playing on a white card came up with 53, and Jack Kyle had the other men's high score.
Two birthdays were honored, Mrs. Cora Magee, in absentia and to Mrs. Marion Bowes, "happy birthday" was sung.

A Halloween program was planned for November 1, with games and prizes and games again for November 8.
Names are fast coming in for the mystery trip planned for November 23, so that those wishing to go should contact Mrs. Louise Cooper 832-2408 this weekend.

The complete itinerary is ready for the February Florida Trip and deposits are being taken. Again those interested should contact Mrs. Cooper.

The Old Rabbit In The Hat Trick! It's Magic!

It may be old, but it is still entertaining, as witness the expressions on the faces in the above picture taken at the "Magic Night" at the Joseph Gibson Public School in Maple October 22. The event had a two-fold result, a fascinating evening of entertainment for the children and their parents and a substantial contribution for the arthritis and rheumatism campaign. The auditorium was jammed to its doors and it is estimated that substantially more than $200 was raised for this worthy cause.

Kleinburg Klarion

Church News
Kleinburg United Church will be marking Remembrance Day with Rev. Arthur Hamilton speaking on "Going a Little Further" November 7. The service is at 9:45 am and the school for kindergarten and primary is at the same time. The junior and intermediate school is at 11 am. Central United service is at 2:45 pm and the church school is at 1:45 pm.

Nobleton United Church services at 11:15 am and the school at 10 am. Both choirs will be singing this Sunday under the direction of Mrs. Verna Patton. Rev. Arthur Hamilton is minister for both churches.

Subjects
Dress-up day was October 28. If more than 80% of the school came dressed in their Sunday best, then on October 29 the student council would sponsor a Halloween Dance.
To make the deal even more exciting that day would be called grub day, the opposite of dress-up day. The dance would take place from 2:05 to 3:15 and to top this refreshments would be available.
For any who did not want to dance there would be a game room and a film.
Well! As it would be too much to miss by not getting all dolled up, it really turned out well. Grub day was a real success with the grubbiest girl being Karol Visagie and the grubbiest boy William Perry. They were really quite handsome the day before.

The kids carried UNICEF boxes Halloween night.
Winners of the regular series of girls' football were: The Road Runners: Captain Karen Snider, Joanne Johnston, Wendy Colton, Nancy Whetstone, Lynda Jones, Corinna Ammoser, Venecia Colton, Heather Hill and Diane Decaire.
Winners of the playoffs were: The Giant Eozrs: Captain in Lori Smithers, Lorain McMillan, Barb Copthorn, Ann Hustis, Janet Steinhof, Mary Beth Vivash, Liz Donovan, Heather Bird, Minneke Jorens and Cathy Blachal. The season is finished.

John Martin, principal of the junior school and his teachers decided to have a Halloween Parade with all the children. It was absolutely marvelous. There were ghosts, gypsies, witches, cowboys, clowns, even a couple of spidemen, a couple of princesses, fairies and many more. The hall was decorated with large posters made for Halloween by the children and the staff room was busy with food coming and going.
There were real pumpkins everywhere. Some of the children and teachers made pumpkin pies and tarts right from the pumpkin — no store mixes or cans.

Open house at the junior school is scheduled for November 8, 10 and 12. The hours are more important because of the buses coming and going — 9:15 to 12 noon and 1:15 to 3:15. Wednesday the school will be open in the evening for working parents from 7:30 to 9 pm. This is an excellent opportunity to see what and how your children are taught and what excellent teachers they have.

The open class will be having a bake sale on the morning of November 4. All parents of this class are asked for donations of home baking to be sold. The bake sale is to help with the cost of the two trips planned by the class. The baking will be for sale to all the children and parents of the school. Help is needed.

The school was a bevy of pretty dresses and handsome outfits as the girls and boys prepared for color pictures to be taken. These class pictures are always getting more and more appreciated. Principal John Martin says these pictures will be available to all parents in about three weeks. The parents are under no obligation whatsoever to purchase them. There will be a note coming home as to the prices.
November 11 will be a school holiday. Remembrance Day will be observed in the school on November 10.

Neighborhood Notes

Vermeere. Willem is the brother of Annie Vermeere. She said they had a lovely family visit.

Dirk and Annie Vermeere of Nashville visited the Netherlands this summer. Cornelia Vermeere flew to the Netherlands the first part of July and was joined later by her family. Annie and Dirk took their other two children, Marina and Gary, leaving Nashville in early August. Highlight of their trip was a return to Katwoude, which is about eight miles north of Amsterdam. The citizens were recognizing the town was 650 years old. Mrs. Vermeere said it was so nice to be back and attend the school reunion with all the people she had grown up with. There was a lot of excitement for three days. Mrs. Vermeere said the whole family had a wonderful time but it was good to get back home to Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nunes (nee Jean Miller formerly of Coleraine) were guests of honor at a bridal shower and tea October 24. It was given by the bride's aunts, Laura Miller and Jean Thomson.
Jackie Chefero has been promoted to a full time job with Avon and is in training in Toronto and Montreal. She will then become district manager in Willowdale.

Murray Carrick is in Brampton hospital.
Janet Robinson is still recuperating after her accident.

Last week Rotarians visited here from the Weston - Mt. Dennis Club. Norn Garrick who lives between Kleinburg and Pine Grove and is in charge of CBC programming, outlined some background work that is necessary before films are selected for the CBC. Jim Maw said it was a good meeting and they had a fun night too.

Irene Train here in Kleinburg picked beautiful red raspberries from her patch this week. She figures the October picking was well over 100 quarts. Another neighbor Mrs. Luena Thompson still has beautiful roses blooming so perhaps winter will stay away for a while yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken McKay are proud grandparents of a new granddaughter Margaret Ann, born October 28. They are very happy to have Kathy staying with them till her mother comes home from hospital. The proud parents are Ken and Diane McKay.

The bowling has been going very well and all teams are now filled up. The girls bowl every Thursday afternoon and now have some results. High score, Jean Adamson; high triple, Jean Adams; high triple with handicap, Dianna Smith; high single, Sandra Shano; and team with most points The Jets with Captain Ev See.

Guides and Scouts
The Guides are in full swing this year with a full program ahead. Five girls have earned their naturalist badges: Cheryl Donneral, Lynda Jones, Yvonne Shaw, Kelly Maw and Judy Hessack.
Cub Pack 2 had a really great time with a Halloween party Wednesday night of last week. The Monday night pack is filled, but there is still room in the Wednesday night pack. If any boys are interested in learning new and interesting things as well as having a good time, join the Cubs now — Wednesday at 7 pm in the junior school.

Nashville Cubs are up and going again. On November 13 and 14 they will be off to Guelph to what is being called the Guelph-Nash Bash. They will be going with their leaders Jimmy and Orma Maw and Mark Banks.
Just a few of the things they are looking forward to are a tour of Guelph, swimming, games, handicrafts and possibly a movie. This is held at the Boy Scout camp in Guelph.

The Scouts and Cubs of Nashville will be around November 6 to 9 in Kleinburg and Nashville to pick up old newspapers. This is a way of disposing of the papers as well as helping a good cause. November 6 is the date.
