Church News
Rev. Arthur Hamilton of Kleinburg United will begin his Advent series November 29 with the sermon on "Roads To Christmas". His first topic will be "God's Road". Others in the series will be "Caesar's Road", "Mary's Road", "Shepherd's Road", and finally on Christmas Sunday, "Wise Man's Road". The Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held again.

Regular hour of worship is 9:45 am Sunday when the kindergarten and primary children also meet at 11 am.

At Central United worship service is at 2:45 pm. Rev. Hamilton will speak on the Advent topics outlined above. Church school is at 1:45 pm. He will deliver the same series of sermons at Nobleton United. The service is at 11:15 am and the church school at 10 am.

Nashville Presbyterian had a wonderful anniversary day, starting off with a well attended breakfast. Gordon Alcott spoke about Bible class organization, where he said adult help is always necessary, although the young people are capable of assuming much of the responsibility.

The service, which marked the church's 96th anniversary, was also addressed by Mr. Alcott, whose topic was "Go To Where The Quiet Is".

Next week the service will be as usual with worship at 9:30 am and Sunday school at 10:45 am. The adult discussion group will meet after the service. Caven Presbyterian in Bolton holds its worship service at 11 am. Rev. Warren McKinnon is the minister of both churches.

In the absence of the pastor and his wife on holidays at Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. Elmer Austerling will be speaking at both services on Sunday. Austerling is with the Regions Beyond Mission Union and will explain how one does not have to go to a mission field to be a missionary.

"The Three Crises in The Life of Moses", at the 11 am service. At the 7 pm service Austerling will be showing a film and talking on Peru, dealing with the Quechua and Chayahuaita Indians.

The young teens will be meeting following church at the home of Ernest and Ruth Bond in Rexdale for a fellowship hour. December 10 will be bowling night.

The senior teens will have a banquet this weekend with Doreen and Bob Dennison. On the menu are cold turkey and ham, hot scalloped potatoes, macaroni and cheese, salads, pie and fruit punch. Special speaker will be Rev. Robert Rumball, former football star and now pastor of the Church For the Deaf in Toronto. Music will be provided by Paul and Hudson Taylor.

Neighborhood Notes
Kleinburg Junior School pupils are trying to find time to think about Christmas. Principal John Martin feels that the recent week-long open house was most successful.

For the past two months the boys of Mackenzie School have been participating in the Canada Fitness Award Program sponsored by the Department of National Health and Welfare. The boys were timed and measured in six different events. These levels of attainment were compared to nationally established standards. Each boy's best four events were averaged to obtain his final standing. Averaging 55% received bronze crest, 80% silver crest, 95% gold crest. Out of 112 boys that participated 48 earned bronze, 39 silver and one gold. The events tested were one minute speed sit-ups, standing broad jump, shuttle run, flexed arm hang, 50 yard run and 300 yard run.

The gold crest winner was Steve Pocock. In his best four events this 13-year-old did 51 sit-ups in a minute, jumped 6 ft. 9 in. in the standing broad jump, ran 300 yards in 57 seconds and did the flexed arm hang for one minute and 58 seconds.

This is a continuing fitness program and it is hoped the experience gained this year will encourage some grade 6 and 7 boys to participate and practice the various events over the next 10 months. Next year students will try to attain higher standards and even a more advanced crest.

On November 12 the 33 game schedule of touch football climaxed with the "Born Losers" defeating the League champion "Stampede" in the contest for the "Not So Grey Trophy".

The winning team included Glenn Adey, Tom White, Jeff Moulton, David Thorpe, Mark Enright, Hugh Dawson, Gord Whitney, Daryl Wilkes, Glenn Schubert, Murray Alexander and Shawn Adey.

The standings after 30 season games. Stampede 10 games - 18 points; Born Losers 10 games - 12 points; Argos 10 games - 9 points; Roughriders 10 games - 6 points; and Colts 10 games - 5 points.

In semi-finals Stampede defeated Argos 20 to 0, Born Losers shutout Peanuts by the same score. The Stampede's include Jim Stevens, Jack Maw, Kevin McCallum, Steve Pocock, John Wood, Keith Howard, Terry Sweet, Ian Bell, Paul Hollingshead and Garry Hilliard. They went down by a score of 11 to 3 in the final against the winners Born Losers. Now that football has been wrapped up for the year the boys have turned to soccer and the house league will run until Christmas snow or no snow.

In Beasley's Patrol the boys are in groups of four working on silver citizen, first-aid and swimming badges. The councillor has invested Ian Bell, Robert Hall, James Gibson, Gary Hilliard and Jamie Sweet. Visagie's Patrol is losing one member Walter Nixon. He is going to Collingwood.

In Jones Patrol the following were invested: Christopher Jones, George Robinson, Grant Beasley, Brian Hess, James Turnbull and Paul Jennings.

In Bahen's Patrol a pen desk set was presented to John Kaszab by the Cougar Patrol. The plaque bears the motto "Always Be Prepared". Kaszab was the leader when this patrol was formed.

The boys went on a trip to Tru-Mold Ltd. Plastic products, drill presses, paper towel holders, combs and wheels were some of the items they saw being made.

Hains Patrol is working on the gold stage of Explorers and gold stage Citizenship badges. They had a special meeting last week as they went swimming in Dr. Peter Granger's swimming pool. The troop met at Kleinburg church on Sunday to see slides of the boys at Haliburton last summer and the world Jamboree in Japan.

A presentation of Kleinburg Scout badges was made at that time to Brian Granger and his sons John and Glen from Burlington in appreciation for weeks at camp this past summer.

The troop is attending a St. John Ambulance first aid course run by James Orton. Also participating are 10 Girl Guides with their Captain Shirley Jones. The course got started without any hydro and was saved through Beasley's lamp. Graham Ford had to put his new found first aid to use in a rescue of a hurt skater at the arena this week.

The Scouts in Nashville had a committee meeting. They have some new members. Secretary is Bill White, with Chairman Bill Brown and Treasurer Barry Silver. Scout Leader Don Ross says theirs was the most successful paper drive yet and expressed his thanks to all in Kleinburg and the area who helped.

Nashville Cubs had a terrific weekend as they journeyed to Guelph. They joined together with a group from Guelph and stayed at the Barber Scout Camp. It was a busy weekend with no spare minutes. They visited the Korkwright Water Fowl Sanctuary. It has every kind of fowl there from all over the world and the boys found this very interesting.

They went to Halton County Rail Way. This is a collection of antique street cars. They have a track 1/2 mile long and the boys had a ride on an old street car.

Swimming was even worked into the busy weekend at the Centennial Pool. Then there was a big campfire and even time for some good rousing games. The boys made bird feeders and brought them home when they returned from a well spent weekend. They thanks go to Leaders Jimmy Maw, Mark Banks and Billy Maw.

Some very sad news has come to me this week. Local citizens are very proud of the teenagers here in Kleinburg and surrounding areas. They are all the good and wonderful happenings they are doing and if I miss any by all means let me know. But now about this mess in the lobby of the post office. Mr. and Mrs. George Watson are really great people, well-liked by everyone. They are extra busy with the Christmas season coming. They sure do not need messes to clean up. Besides all this, it only takes a few to make a lot look bad. So come on now kids, let's keep our town knowing what really great teens we have.

The Home and School meets November 29 at Mackenzie Senior School. This is to be a little different meeting but a very helpful one. Dr. Andrew Kizik, a psychologist with York County Board of Education, will be the speaker and another speaker from the mental health unit will also be coming. There is to be a question time, but only on the everyday little problems we face with our children.

One other item which will also be on the agenda is the skating rink at the junior school. The rink is there but in very bad condition. There is need for some new boards, plumbing, lighting and etc. This is a real need for the smaller children in the area, as the park is too far for them to walk. Ice skating is a way of letting off steam that is badly needed in the winter months.

There will be a desk diary book with all the advertisements by the local merchants, phone numbers and other helpful bits. This will be for sale to raise money for the repairs the rink needs. A vote of thanks to the Venturers who offered to do the flooding. This is a big job.

There is to be a special movie at the junior school on a Saturday afternoon in the near future. It is a Walt Disney picture.

The Lions Club met Tuesday evening and they had a very good meeting. A cheque has been sent to the recreation committee for the snowmobile draw that was held and sponsored by the Lions Club at Bindertwine Festival.

The Lions are also sponsoring a turkey shoot on Saturday, November 27. You must use shot guns only and anyone who hasn't got a shotgun may use club guns on that day. You may have a second chance if you missed the first time by trying again December 11. Or if you were lucky try again. The place for all this excitement is Mayor Garnet Williams' Farm.
