

Rotary News

Rotarians as they are all workhave been brisk this past week fered by Lewis Hotel-Motel Div- terested ladies. so if you want a really good ision of International Career tree, reasonably priced, don't Academy of Canada Limited. community-minded club.

Toronto recently.

past record of achievement.

the middle of January.

dish which family or friends tots in the morning, and still a Each week one will be published in this column - how about first time, an afternoon class in

COCOA TRUFFLES

3 ozs cocoa 3 ozs castor sugar 2 tbsp. of sultanas 2 tbsp. of chopped dates 2-3 tbsp. of cream. Almond or rum essence

Mix all the ingredients to- the mill pond, firehall and Topper. gether in a basin. The mixture Bruce's Mill will all be on the should be just moist enough to social calendar for these lucky mould easily into shape. Form preschoolers. granulated sugar and cocoa.

(This recipe is geared for the first general meeting where or kept as a treat for the fam-ingly good) to proud parents ily and guests on Christmas the youngsters are now eagerly

The Exemplar Chapter of A few openings are still Members of both congregations has presented excellent pro- 884-5750 or 884-7012. grams this fall, necessitating much thought and research. The programs have been on the uplifting thoughts to contem- esses.

home, where they entertained all of whom were presented to the familiar carols. the Markham chapter and shar- with specially chosen gifts. ed their program, which was The other hostesses also recably presented by Joyce Linder- eived gifts and corsages, and in man and Judy Smith, following turn, with the three prizewinthrough on the same theme of ners, presented Mrs. Zinck with the good life. Richmond Hill a beautiful gift. chapter had 100% attendance A hot and cold Christmas and thoroughly enjoyed renew-buffet dinner was served, foling acquaintances and meeting lowed by movies of the Marinew faces in Markham. Helen times, with some incredible Foord and her able committee close-up shots of whales. looked after refreshments. It Attending were Pat Guergis, was a pleasure to have former Irene Phillips, Loretta Metcalfe Social Sponsor and Internation- and Louise Page, from Angus: al Honorary Member Jean Nora Snow and Glenis Claydon et, as their guest for the even- Mrs. Annette McNaughton, Aurora and Mrs. Rose Dubey, Betty Chapter members have en- Bunce, Cathy Lortie, Anne joyed two social evenings with Jones, Maureen Bunce and Mrs. their husbands, the first on Oct- Beryl Kirby from Richmond ober 23, when they went bow- Hill. Nineteen were unable to ling and later enjoyed pizzas attend due to sickness.

Bruce Smith on Ferneigh Cir- Kirby and Mrs. McNaughton for Centennial Pool for five cle North, "Good things come their very kind assistance. in small packages" - the high On the evening of December single for the evening was tiny 6 an Artex unit meeting was Elaine Balogh. The second mix- held at Mrs. Zinck's home, ated social was the annual Christ-tended by Unit Manager Miss mas party held December 4 at Yvonne Crease, Leona Crease the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. and Doris Davis from Don Mills; Foord, Markham Road. This was Mary Watts and Shirley Carter a tremendous success, fondue from Richmond Hill, Lynn Roy, bourguignonne being the piece Holland Landing and Marg de resistance. Cooper and Marlene Fraser of Good wishes are extended to Toronto. all members for a happy holiday They exchanged gifts and en- goose is getting fat, please put time next week. season and a successful New joyed a Christmas buffet dinner a penny in the old man's hat" Tickets at $1 for adults and Mrs. William Ellis, Mrs. Rod served by the hostess.

Mother Wins $18 At Kresge's from many lands drop in and describe how they celebrate Christmas, sing carols of their down to the annual Christmas.

Mrs. Betty Harris of 68 Bridgeport Street, Richmond Hill, had an extra $18 to spend for Christ- by Candee Turner. mas because she cashed her November family allowance cheque in the Kresge Store in Richmond Heights this theatre group has enter- her accordion and Magician from noon to 5 pm. Until Janu-Centre. Her entry form was the one pulled from the drum in Kresge's monthly Triple Your Baby Bonus Draw.

Mrs. Harris is seen above accepting her prize ious hospitals and nursing best of everything for the New being served - hot mulled cidmoney from Kresge Assistant Manager Les Holm. homes.

White Gifts will be welcomed The Fellowship Club of St. Friends of Mrs. Albert Smith, The Rotary Club held its an- at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Mary's Anglican Church is plan- Elgin Mills Road, extend their nual children's Christmas party Church next Sunday, at the ning a "Holly Day" Luncheon deepest sympathy on the death on December 12 at the Summit church school and also at the for January 11, 12 noon, when of her mother, Mrs. Florence Golf and Country Club and morning service of worship. members will gather in Wrixon Babcock of Toronto, who passed from all reports it was a great All gifts received will go to Hall for the first meeting of the away last Thursday at North the needly and non-perishable New Year.

This is a busy season for food is especially appropriate. During the month of Decem- Funeral services were held ber, no meetings will be held. Saturday at Flynn's Funeral ing on shifts at the Rotary Harry Edwards, 115 Ruggles President Dorothy Fry, 884-5534 Home in Mount Dennis. Christmas Tree lot, located this Avenue, has successfully com- will be pleased to supply furyear in front of the Dairy Queen pleted the comprehensive course ther information about this Duplicate Bridge on Yonge Street North. Sales in hotel-motel management of group and its activities to in- Monday winners were Bob delay. All proceeds from the He received a certificate of Branch 375, Royal Canadian (E-W). sale go towards the many pro- proficiency at graduation cere- Legion, held its Christmas din- There will be no duplicate jects undertaken by this very monies held at the Old Mill in ner meeting at Legion Court bridge games on December 24

Top O' The Hill Nursery welcomed guests, Liaison Of- day, What's Cooking? School has topped even its own Members William McPherson Residents of the Hill are reficer Bob Dickson and Branch With capacity attendance of and George Morrison. The din- minded that beautiful Christsubstantial waiting list, Rich- Marsh Thompson. Gifts were Industries, the work training ery school will initiate, for the President Joan Dickson.

Four teams were entered in located at 321 Enford Road. the Zone E2 Shuffleboard For these newcomers the Tournament held last Saturday the shop from now until best of the year is yet to come at Bolton. Winners were: 1st Christmas. If you have a few - for winter term includes Bolton, 2nd Richmond Hill with hours to spare for this task skating weekly at Richmond players Mary Robson and Ethel Hill's arena - and warmer Buck, 3rd Newmarket. The othweather touches off a round of er three Richmond Hill teams spring outings. The sugar bush were Ruth O'Hara, Tillie Dice-(at the height of the maple man, Janet Johns, Edith Titsyrup season), Riverdale Zoo, shall, Adelaide Mill and Sheila Emmanuel Anglican and Carrville United Churches are planinto little balls and roll in With the Hallowe'en party al- ning another joint-venture with ready history, along with the which to end the year. Earlier younger set - they're easy to mini-students showed off their other's church in turn and took make and can be boxed as gifts initial attempts (some surpris- part in services of Holy Comcarol service and pageant in awaiting the next big date on mmmmmmmm the calendar, the Christmas

Mrs. Eric Zinck of Beaverton Sunday evening, December 19, held for them at 10 am on Wed- and John Jupp. theme "The Good Life" and Road entertained Sunday after- at Emmanuel Church on Mac- nesday next, December 22, at have provoked much discussion. noon, December 5 at a Christ- Kay Drive in Richvale. The sec- St. Mary's Anglican Church. Members went home with many mas party for her Artex host- ond will be on Tuesday evening Communion will be admini- Channel 10's weekly program

On November 3, members got runner-up, Mrs. Dorothy Cam- 7:30 pm. Participants in the the service. together and car-pooled rides bourne of New Lowell and the pageant will be robed, and the Call the church office at 884out to the little village of "youngest," 90-year-old Mrs. two choirs will be singing spec- 2227 to arrange for transporta- agers from St. John's Anglican Whitevale to Nelly Williamson's Laura Paddison of New Lowell, ial Christmas music in addition tion

> Local Swim Coach Receives Top Award

Stephen Gentles was an honored guest at a presentation and reception at Queen's Park last Friday to receive the Royal Life Saving Society Diploma from Lt. Governor Ross Thomson, formerly of Richmond from New Lowell; Mrs. Lynn MacDonald.

Hill now residing in Newmark- Roy from Holland Landing: This is the highest award for swimming achievement given by the society and of the four who qualified in Ontario, two were from this area - Stephen and Ed Bean of Thornhill.

Stephen, 22, has worked at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thanks are extended to Mrs. at Richmond Hill years and coached the local speed swim team. He is currently studying drama at Queen's University, King-was just one of the Christmas 25 cents for children may be Stanfield, Mrs. Denison Featherrhymes and carols presented by obtained by calling Joan Ryland stonhaugh, Mrs. Grenville Temthe theatre class of the Candee at 884-2917 - but don't delay, ple, Mrs. Gerry Crack, Mrs. Turner Studio of Dance Arts to tickets are of necessity, limited. John Beresford Anderson and patients of St. John's Convalescent Hospital Thursday even- R. H. Senior Citizens

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gentles of Sussex Avenue attended the cere-

"Everywhere Christmas."

ience into their living room Mrs. Edna Harding was appoint- century gown, welcomed guests where a fire is blazing and a ed entertainment convenor. at the door. with him and he then goes into season. the audience distributing carol Bowling notes - high triple, traditional decor reminiscent York General Hospital.

and Edna Dunn who were also the N-S winners on Friday with The Ladies' Auxiliary to Florence and George Laundry or 31. Otherwise, games are The 38 auxiliary members 8 pm every Monday and Friner was served by volunteer mas cards and other gift items waiters. George Diceman and are available in the shop at ARC mond Hill's co-operative nurs- presented by Santa Claus - centre of York Central Associaplease phone 884-5861.

Bill Fahey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fahey. Libby Boulevard, has successfully passed his final examination and received his CA Degree.

A graduate of Richmond Hill High School, Bill received his Bachelor of Commerce and Finance Degree at the University of Toronto, and has since been employed by Price Waterhouse and Company in Lon-

The first will be held next need a special service will be and Don Daynard and Georgina Mill Street.

at Carrville Church on Carrville stered to people sitting in the "Chit Chat With Mona" is preplate during their daily routines.

Hostess of the year was Mrs. Road, west of Bathurst Street. pews, if desired, and refreshments will be served following show next Tuesday evening featuring the "Mixed Blessings," Christmas" at St. Matthew's Un-

> Graham Carson. David McCartney, a pupil of Estelle Markham, ARCT, RMT, the hour from 6 pm onward. played in the ORMTA Recital held on Saturday at the North IIII York Public Library.

David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond McCartney of Driscoll Road, qualified to play in the recital by obtaining an A plus at the auditions held earlier

The younger pupils of Estelle Markham will celebrate the end of term with a Christmas party on Saturday next at the studio. Classes will recommence in the New Year.

"Christmas In The Market Place" being presented by St. Matthew's Players on December 22 in the church, will provide an excellent holiday for the whole

Directed by Edith Jones, the cast includes Lloyd Linderman, Russ Urguhart, Jean Johnson, Beryl Radke, Doreen Kendry and children, Greg and Doug Kendry, David Linderman, Drew Ryland and Tracy Urquhart. Gloria Park is the organ-

Next Friday morning Mr. Linderman is taping a program for Channel 10, in which he will discuss the play and prod-"Christmas is coming and the uction. This will be aired some-the many guests attending the The monthly meeting was preview of "Christmas Past and The "old man" was Maarten held Wednesday last, chaired by Christmas Presents" sponsored Heilbron, director of the theatre President Stewart MacPherson, by the Garden Club of Toronto groups' new Christmas musical with 134 members and eight at Gibson House on Wednesday new members, in attendance. last. Club President Mrs. Ernest The children take the aud- During the business session, Redelmeier, in a charming 19th Christmas trees stands unador- Mrs. Effie Morrison gave a Gibson House, an oasis of that ned. An old man comes begging humorous reading "The Invent- century, at 5172 Yonge Street, at the door and the children or's Wife" and a representa- Willowdale, was recently restorinvite him in and while they are tive from the Globe Travel Ser- ed by the Toronto Historical busily decorating the tree, he vice showed a film on Hawaii. Board at a cost of about $140,takes off his long overcoat and The singing of Christmas carols 000 paid for by the borough of hat - and lo and behold it's was followed by special refresh- North York. It has now been Santa! The children sing carols ments pertaining to the festive decorated for Christmas by sheets enabling one and all to Kay Seymour 719 (223, 239, of the type that was made more oin in a rousing sing-song. 247); high triple, Joe Swan 639; than 100 years ago. During the musical, children high singles, Joe Swan 269, Bert The decorations are delightful and of particular interest is describe how they celebrate Two hundred members sat the outdoor tree hung with balls Christmas, sing carols of their down to the annual Christmas of suet, berries, seeds and nuts country and do their national dinner on Thursday evening at for the birds to enjoy - it dances, the latter choreographed Richmond Hill United Church, even has carrots for the rabbits. Six-year-old Stacey Morning en- Gibson House is open from This is the second year that tertained with a few numbers on 9:30 am to 5 pm daily; Sundays tained local shut-ins at a Henry Smith mystified every- ary 2, admittance price has been Christmas musical, which is fast one with his slight of hand. raised to 75 cents for adults, 50 becoming an integral part of The seniors wish everyone a cents for children and students, the Yuletide festivities at var- very merry Christmas and the as Christmas refreshments are ler, cookies and fruit loaves. Year.

Rita and Ernie Raymond, 232| Players between the ages of Zelda Crescent, who will cele- 12 to 22 years are wanted to For devout Anglicans, rec- brate their Silver Wedding An- form a youth concert band. The eiving the Sacrament of Holy niversary December 18, were initial rehearsal will be held Communion at Christmas is a entertained at the Royal York during the first week of January Beta Sigma Phi, XI Beta Rho, available. For information call and the community are invited must, and to enable shut-ins Hotel recently in honor of their at the Parks and Recreation and the community are invited and the community are invited and senior citizens to fulfill this and senior citizens to fulfill this anniversary by neighbors, Carol Building (the Pump House) on

> For further information call Business Manager Herb Smith Mona Robertson, hostess of at 884-7420. If you're free next Saturday musical event "The Sounds Of on Centre Street West with 200 males attending.

Save Those

USED STAMPS.

and Christmas mail can assist a very worthwhile cause

- the Leprosy Mission -

which is now in its 97th

In addition to its own leprosy centres, the mission

co-operates with 90 missionary societies in some 30

countries of the world,

seeking to reach leprosy patients with spiritual and sale of used stamps, the only requirement being that they are cut from envelopes leaving a 1/4-inch or more small, would be very much appreciated and may be left at the office of Richmond Hill United Church

or at the home of Mrs. W.

Boynton, 47 Centre Street

Mrs. V. Wallace were among Contributions, however

Funds are raised from the year of service?

physical help.

around the edges.

Did you realize that all the folk choral group of teen- ited Church. Featuring the Bayview Sec-Church, Jefferson, led by Mrs. ondary School Band, the Pleas-The program is televised on antville Public School Choir under the direction of Mrs. Judy Wales, and the renowned Ellis McLintock as guest conductor, it also marks the premiere performance of a special arrangement by Mr. McLintock of the "Huron Indian Carol" for band and choir. Tickets, at $1 for adults and the stamps on your regular $2 per family, may be obtained Entertaining at dinner, cocktail or wine and cheese parties? Expecting guests from out-of-town? Or planning to take off to the sunny climes for Christ-

Fashion Gets Served With Food

luncheon sponsored by Rick Butt of Warwick House Fashions in the Richmond Heights Centre. A display of jewellery and evening bags from Dynes Jewellers and cosmetics and perfumes from Allencourt Drugs also headed the list of gift ideas for that "special one" in a man's life. Models included Anita Stainer, Marylo Graham, Vivian Smith, Pat Bedford, Sadie Arai, Jennifer Howe, Denise Pick, Sylvia Claydon, Barbara Mann and Margot Crack. The luncheon was held at the Lions Hall

Anne Winstone models a hostess gown amid an admiring throng of males Thursday at the combined fashion show and

News of your social activities make interesting reading for "Life in the Hill" columns - also for distant relatives and friends -so why not call the Social Editor Margot Crack at 884-1105/6 or drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South? There is no charge for this service, we enjoy hearing from you.

Passports • Publicity Weddings . Commercial

Stuart's Studio - PHOTOGRAPHY ---30A Yonge St. South Richmond Hill, Ont.

by calling 884-4453 or at the door. Curtain time 8 pm. Our Lady Queen of the World

BINGO

EVERY THURSDAY AT 8 P.M.

4 Special Plus 21 Regular Games at $20. East side of Bayview at Crosby Ave. *****************

Gordon S. Wood

PRESCRIPTION OPTICIANS GLASSES

CONTACT LENSES "FITTED TO YOUR EYE DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION"

> 34 YONGE ST. S. RICHMOND HILL 884-1955

Open Mon. to Wed. 9 am - 6 pm - Thurs. & Fri. 9 am - 9 pm Saturday 9 am - 4 pm

DEMAND!

KRESGE'S in Richmond Heights Centre continues the Baby Bonus Draw for the month of December.

You can TRIPLE your Baby Bonus Cheque! All you have to do is cash it in our store and fill in a coupon for the Lucky Draw.

Winner must consent to have her picture taken, for advertising purposes. November's lucky winner was Mrs. D. Harris, 68 Bridgeport St., Richmond Hill, Mrs. Harris tripled her cheque for an $18.00 win.

THE JENNIFER MORTON SCHOOL OF DANCE AND THEATRE ARTS

WRIXON HALL

St. Mary's Anglican Church Reasonable rates

(Photo by Stuart's Studio)

For information call 884-6002

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT

Make 1972 the year you discovered that piano lessons can be fun. A demonstration lesson will show you just how easy learning can be . . .

ESTELLE MARKHAM ARCT RMT 884-3787

SURPRISE!

MACHINE WASHABLE PURE WOOL

100% fine English botany, random space-dyed, full-fashioned, long sleeved pullover, with back-zippered mock turtleneck. Continental band and cuffs.

Co-ordinated skirts and pants to match.

> the last word in mirack

Warwick House

"For Women Who Deserve The Best" South Block - Richmond Heights Centre 884-4741