BY MARGARET HOUGHTON OMHA Minor Peewees Edge Alliston Lose To Woodbridge

Thornhill's Minor Peewees, sponsored by S&H Reliance Photo-Engravers, lost a close contest to the Woodbridge Major Peeewe Club December 7. The big Woodbridge team scored two unanswered goals in the first two periods, and finally Thornhill tallied with a fine effort by Eric Coyne, assisted by Scott Burkhart, who seems to have recovered from injuries received during the last encounter between these two fine clubs.

Thornhill's goaltender, Jamie Davidson, was outstanding, and kept his team in there during the entire contest.

Sparked by an opening goal scored by Ricky Booker at the seven second mark of the first period, Thornhill Minor Peeewe edged an important win over Alliston 5-4 December 11. Scott Howson played an outstanding game, scoring the four remaining goals for Thornhill, three of them unassisted. Ricky Buchan drew an assist on Howson's third goal. Thornhill's strong team effort and hard skating has paid off, as they now have taken over first place in the league standing.

OMHA BANTAMS Barrie Trounces Thornhill OMHA Bantams 8-0 The Commercial Plumbing and Heating Team met their best opposition of the year and went down to defeat by the lopsided score of 8-0. The boys were not skating in this game, and the team play, so evident in recent games, was lacking in this contest.

OMHA GIRLS The second meeting of the season between the Thornhill OMHA Girls and Agincourt resulted in a 3-1 loss for Thornhill. Janet McKay scored the lone Thornhill goal. Thornhill's girls were unable to skate with the fast Agincourt Team. The next game is slated for 12:00 noon at the Doublelink, Saturday. Brampton will provide the opposition.

SQUIRTS St. Luke's Fraser Dunns 2 Presbyterian Tomahawks 2 Two hard-fought squirt games ended in ties, as St. Luke's equalled the Presbyterian Tomahawks 2-2. Telfer Hanson netted a pair of unassisted markers for St. Luke's. Hanson opened the scoring, and Clark Smith of Presbyterian tied it up. Bruce Mitchell is credited with Smith's assist. Hanson scored his second goal, and David Reynolds tied it up, drawing an assist from Simon Tresider.

TYKES Trinity's N. S. Smith 2 St. Luke's Miklas Assoc. 0 Robert Peters in the Trinity nets gave a superb performance, and backed by a strong Trinity Team, kept St. Luke's scoreless. Jim Houghton scored unassisted in the first period, Wayne Parsons scored the second goal.

MINOR ATOM St. Luke's Thornhill Bldg. 2 Trinity Thornhill Paint 2 A scoreless first period was matched by a tied second, as Trinity's John Bell started the proceedings, and Randy Barr was assisted by Bell and Scott Fotheringham. On the other side of the score sheet, Andrew Marcus was assisted by Keith McMahon, and Neil Morley was unassisted.

St. Edward's 3 United Invaders 2 Jim Matthews led off the St. Edward's marking, drawing from an assist by Robert Reichardt. Joseph Domotor was then assisted by Ron Floyd. Completing St. Ed's scoring, Floyd notched an unassisted goal. Rallying late in the game, United's Mike Danckert was assisted by Scott Jarvie and David Lind. Doug Yielding was assisted by Jarvie.

Presbyterian Royals 3 United Rams 2 A see-saw battle between Presbyterian Royals and United Rams was tied in the first period. Presbyterian Eric Engelmann's goal, assisted by Robin Culley, was soon matched by United's John Still's goal, with Warren Thompson assisting. Ray McAffer put the Royals in the lead again, and Thompson tied it up. The second period belonged to the Royals, as Jim Belch was assisted by Bill Fry and McAffer.

ATOMS United Panthers 5 Trinity Turnpenny Shell 2 United Panthers kept Trinity scoreless in the first period to win the game 5-2. Bill Buckler opened with two goals, assisted by Glen Perret, then Gary Valient. Perret then made it 3-0. Mike Finch for Trinity was assisted by Ted Fisher, to start off the second period, but Jeff Churchill matched that with Doug Heron's assistance. Ted two by Ralph Sickenger and Loufite. St. Luke's continued to score however, as Tom Vatrozav, Hugo Fusco and Dave Skinner were assisted by Mischtian, twice by Rozycki and McMahon.

BOOK TALK THORNHILL PUBLIC LIBRARY

New Books Now In The Library

If Santa Claus doesn't bring you all the reading material you asked for, remember that the Thornhill Public Library gets most of the new books just as soon as they are published.

Louis by Max Jones and John Chilton. Of all the many biographies which have come out since the death of the great trumpeter, Louis Armstrong, this one, by two English jazz experts, have received the widest critical acclaim.

Living Well is the Best Revenge by Calvin Tompkins. The often tragic story of Sara and Gerald Murphy, a wealthy American couple who were especially close friends of Scott and Zelda Fitzgerald, but whose uniquely gracious home was a gathering place for prominent artists and writers of every nationality during the 1920s.

Eleanor and Franklin by Joseph Lash. A meticulously researched study of two exceptionally crowded lives. Special emphasis is placed on the emotional significance of the many events experienced by these complex and deeply serious people on each as an individual and on the two together as husband and wife.

Madame by Patrick O'Higgins. The thin fabric of this biography of Helena Rubinstein is liberally spangled with glittering sequins of gossip about everyone from Truman Capote to the Duchess of Windsor.

Two Gentlemen To See You, Sir by Victor Carasov. The autobiography of a man now in his sixties who, since committing his first crime at the age of 11, has spent most of his life in English prisons. His strange, sad story is told in a crude, persuasive, but almost ultimately compelling style - as if he gripped the fascinated reader by both lapels and was spitting out his bizarre narrative in his face.

Life Is A Four-Letter Word by Nicholas Monsarrat. A two-volume life history of one of England's most successful writers. The books deals frankly with his unhappy experiences at public school, his dissipations at Cambridge, his marital tempests, his final emergence as a important modern author and as a mature and tempered human being.

Tracy and Hepburn by Garson Kanin. A dual "biography" by anecdote that probably reveals more about these two uncompromising individualists than could any conventional chronological account of their lives. The author, a prominent director, screen writer and playwright, has known both Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn since the beginning of their theatrical careers.

The Brass Ring by Bill Mauldin. The cartoonist whose well-remembered drawings commented trenchantly on the tribulations of the foot-soldier in World War II has written his autobiography. His talent as a journalist, which was noticed by his teachers even before his genius as a cartoonist, is clearly evident in this easy, humorous account describing the fifty odd years of adventures which took him, by way of Sicily, Korea and Vietnam, from the ranches of New Mexico to the canyons of Chicago.

Death Of The Fox by George Garrett. An historical novel based on the life of Sir Walter Raleigh, richly detailed and dipped in the color of Jacobean and Elizabethan England. Good reading for everyone.

The Harness Room by L. P. Hartley. An absorbing and moving story about the sensitive, studious son of an army colonel, whose plans to toughen up his son lead to unforeseen conclusions. This has the compassionate touch evident in Hartley's earlier book "The Go-Between."

Rabbit Redux by John Updike. The hero of Rabbit Run, Updike's 1960 novel, returns ten years older, a settled man, married and leading a conventional suburban life. His world is shattered when his wife leaves him for another man. Updike brilliantly conveys his hero's bewilderment in the 60s world where social and personal continuity is hard come by.

Lives Of Girls And Lovers by Alice Monroe. Anyone familiar with rural Ontario towns will identify with the people and life depicted in this beautifully written work by a Canadian author.

Betrayed By Rita Hayworth by Manuel Puig. The first novel of an Argentinian writer published for the first time in English. Using the technique of personal narrative, the author brings vividly to life the members of a Brazilian family for whom movie going forms a way of life. A unique novel which has received much critical acclaim.

We also have all the best sellers. (You'll have to wait for "Wheels".)

Christmas Carols The Thornhill Green Social Committee invites all area residents to a Christmas Carol Sing Song at the Thornhill Community Centre (Heintzman House) on Sunday from 8:00 pm to 10:30 pm.

Hot chocolate, doughnuts, Christmas Cake and candy canes will be served. Two pianists and members of the Thornhill Barber Shop Group have volunteered their services for the evening.

Take the opportunity to come and extend season's greetings to your neighbors in the Green. A giant Christmas Card will be in the foyer for all to sign.

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. SOPHIE LOGUSH Telephone 889-4405

Neighborhood Notes It has been brought to my attention that a lot of people in this community do not realize that we have a bus service which takes us to the shopping plaza. This was arranged for our convenience and unless we start using it more often we will lose this long awaited privilege.

Recently our 16th Avenue Home and School general meeting was held. Charles Stewart he departing president addressed the gathering with his farewell talk in which he summarized the committee's activities during the past year. He thanked school principal George McKelvey for his co-operation with the committee and for helping to make the past year successful. The executive for the next term was chosen.

Mrs. Hill gave a very informative talk on the reading program in the school, after which a discussion followed and many points of interest were cleared up in our minds.

The second topic was "Why Are We So Permissive?" A very lively discussion took place. Coffee and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Our birthday girl of this week was Cathy Thomson of Duncan Road who celebrated her eighth birthday on December 13.

With the holiday season upon us, how about letting others know how you and your family spent the joyful days?

NEWMARKET: Sixty-nine percent of 1,143 voters approved cocktail bars for this town in a recent vote which cost the town about $3 per ballot cast. This was a scant 15% of the eligible voters. This means that a person can buy liquor or beer without ordering food. At present there is only a dining lounge and private clubs licensed in the town.

Come and hear Carolling in Eaton's Outdoor Court. Thursday evenings will feature the Bramalea Chapter of Sweet Adelines from 7.45 pm.

Friday evenings will feature the Salvation Army Band and Songsters. The Salvation Army Christmas Kettle will be available for those who wish to contribute to those less fortunate than themselves.

Bramalea Jaycees Christmas Trees will be on sale from December 10th.

Santa Claus will be in his Caravan every day until Christmas (except Sundays). All the children will receive a free Candy Cane and may have their picture taken with Santa.

Breakfast with Santa every Saturday morning at 8:30 A.M. Tickets must be purchased at Eaton's in advance. A delicious breakfast, fun with Ruffles the Clown and a visit with jolly old Santa.
