Concord Fire Victims Still Homeless

Still looking at press time for a suitable home in a country setting where they can keep their big dog and Lawrence Lonero and their two-year-old daughter who attends nursery school in Thornhill. The Loneros had no insurance when they lost all their household possessions in a fire that destroyed their rented home on Dufferin Street in the Concord area of Vaughan Town on January 2.

"Finding the kind of home we want is a rather difficult matter this time of year. If we had a place to put it, we could probably scrounge enough household stuff to get by. The demand seems to far exceed the supply of homes for our kind of country living," said Lonero. The family has been staying with neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ginsberg at the old Witty farm on Dufferin Street.

They have offers of help from the Maple Lions, friends and people in the neighborhood if they could find a place to live. Vaughan Fire Chief James Davidson says there has been no further report so far on the fire. A Fire Marshal's investigation was started when evidence of a break-in was found at the scene.

Looking Around
We are constantly being assured that changes, good or bad, can be accepted because "that's progress". It is interesting to note that back in 1890 there was a daily stage coach to Richmond Hill from Maple with a fare of 25c. There are many in Maple who would probably welcome even a stage coach at times in 1972. This is progress?

We are sorry to report that several children in the Maple area are sick or in hospital, including Jimmy Ostveen who is in Sick Children's Hospital. Bruce Plunkett who cracked a collar bone on a toboggan last week. Kellie Hudson who has had a virus infection for several weeks, and Brian Hay who has had his tonsils out. We send get well wishes to each of these as well as to the many other children ill with flu and sore throats.

Lori Lawson enjoyed a visit with her friend Susan Mason of Unionville last weekend. Maple residents may remember Susan and her parents, Marg and John, who moved from Maple to England and have returned to live.

The Voice Of Concord
Sympathy
The condolences of the community are extended to the family of Mrs. Lillian Smurthwaite of Baldwin Avenue, who passed away December 28. She is survived by her husband Ernest and daughter Jean (Mrs. Norman) Clarke and two grandsons.

We also regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Eleanor Maude Dempster of Hillside Avenue, December 25. Mr. and Mrs. Dempster had celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary only a few weeks before. Mrs. Dempster is survived by her husband, Capt. William Dempster and three daughters, Velma (Mrs. J. Guest) of Hillside Avenue, Elsie (Mrs. A. Garlep) and Elsie (Mrs. A. Louis Rice). She is also survived by eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

MAPLE MINOR HOCKEY RESULTS

HOUSE LEAGUE
NOVICE
(January 8)
Automotive Supply 2
Continental Shoes 2
This game could have gone either way. It was a very good effort for both teams. Steve Fitzgibbon knocked in two for Continental aided by an assist from Timmy Taylor. Bill Allen tallied one for Automotive and added an assist. Ray Brown also got a goal.

Crestwood Texaco 1
European Delicatessen 1
Another tie game with both teams battling right down to the wire. Wayne Boudreau scored Crestwood's goal unassisted. Doug Hay scored the one goal for European which was also unassisted.

IGA 4
Parkers Spray Paint 3
IGA had to work to win this one. A close contest all the way. Jeff March collected two big ones. Mauro Farina got one and three assists. Dave Plunkett added the other goal for IGA.

Assists also went to John Phillips, Blair Ivens and Scott Wright. Brian Hasselvelt scored twice for Parkers with Mark Munshaw getting the other one. Drawing assists were Harry Ruttie, Randy DePiero and Danny Munshaw.

Superior Propane 5
Maple Farm Supply 2
Superior looked good, skating and checking well and Farm Supply couldn't hold them. Bob Wilnot led Superior with two goals and an assist followed by Chris Plunkett with another two goals.

Bill Appenshaw also garnered a single. Assisting were Steve Boneman with two and one each to Barry Key, Mark Delvocco, Carmelo Natario and Jeff Sandford. David Clendenan scored two goals for Farm Supply assisted by Randy Lind and Steve Le-moine.

Rival Appliances 4
DH & A 0
This shutout was a fine team effort for Rival, headed by the steady play of Allen Rot, Bob Edmondson, and Dave Kelton. DH & A never really had a look-in.

Marko Pidursky led the scorers with two dandy goals while Paul Cloutier and Robert Preisner adding one each. Robert Fenton, Terry Thorsall, David Kelton and Doug Kriptomk each took an assist.

Maple Lions 3
Disposal Services 3
Both teams went at it hot and heavy in a ding dong contest. A very evenly matched affair. Glen Leonard knocked home two goals and added an assist for Maple Lions. Ron Guio-tolin had a goal. Bryan March-son and Bill Lamonte each had an assist.

Norm Stapley, Doug Fox and John Poulet scored for Disposal from Gerry Spoor, Steve House and Gary Gath.

Fred's Shell 2
Contractors 1
The Shell boys pulled this one out of the fire in the last minutes of the game when it looked like a sure tie. A well deserved win.

Geoff Shaw tallied one goal and an assist. Stuart Bellamy had a goal with Dexter Salna and Gord Cameron assisting for Shell.

Contractors' loner was unassisted and was scored by Pat Hudema.

MIDGET "B"
(December 27)
La Riviera Coiffure 7
Bowden 1

La Riviera simply outskated and outgained a short handed Bowden team. The Coiffure boys show a terrific team spirit.

Jim Lessif scored three goals. Greg MacDonald, Brian Bailie, Joe Moore and Mark Sones notched singles. Sones added two assists as did Jim Moor-head. Seige Pflug and Jim Wolkoff had an assist apiece.

La Riviera Coiffure 4
CND Construction 1
Riviera went out to win this one and kept CND off balance most of the game.

Scoring for the winners were Jim Lessif, Greg MacDonald, Mark Boswell and Brian Bailie ably assisted by MacDonald, Jim Moorhead, Kevin Shuttleworth and Jim Wolkoff.

OMHA HOCKEY
NOVICE
Maple Honey Pot Bees 3
Oak Ridge 2

Honey Pot had to buckle down and work to beat a fired up Oak Ridge team.

Greg Munshaw had a goal and added an assist. Jeff Brookes and Ray Mondolo each garnered a goal. Other assists went to Blair Sutherland, Scott Lawson and Ricky Haas.

AURORA: Mayor Dick Illingworth described regional government as a solid base on which to build a modern form of local government in his year-end message to the town's citizens. He predicted improvements in all areas during the coming year.

Church News

Kleinburg has been a very busy place and is now getting settled down a bit. The Hi-C group will long be remembered as they went about carolling on Christmas Eve. The next meeting for the Hi-C will be January 16 at the church. All teens are welcome.

Congregational meetings to elect new stewards, elders, trustees, etc., will be held as follows:
Nobleton, January 14 at 8 pm with refreshments.

Kleinburg, January 16 at 7:30 pm, starting with dessert and coffee.

Central, January 23 at 12:30 pm at the manse, to begin with a luncheon.

The Nobleton UCM met January 5 and Rev. Arthur Hamilton presided over the installation of officers: Past President Jean Boynton, President Ellen Bobson, 1st Vice - President Ethel Dodson, 2nd Vice - President Doreen Chapman, Secretary Marg Robinson, Assistant Secretary Jessie Kenney, Treasurer Laberta Hamill, Assistant Treasurer Gladys Adams, Pianist Bernice Irwin.

Central Area UCM held its meeting January 4 at 1:30 pm, at the home of Mrs. Ken Fry in Nashville. Rev. Hamilton conducted the installation of officers. This year the ladies will be rotating presidents. Secretary is Mrs. Alex Johnston, Treasurer Mrs. Russell Livingston, Program Convenor Mrs. Howard Codlin. Mrs. Howard Clark was in charge of the program with devotionals. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Howard Clark and Mrs. Geoffrey Story.

Kleinburg United service is at 9:45 am. Rev. Arthur Hamilton will speak this Sunday on "Getting Started" as we all start 1972. The Sunday school for kindergarten and primary is at 9:45 am with the junior and intermediate at 11 am.

Nashville Presbyterian
Church service is at 9:30 am. Rev. Warren McKinnon will be absent this week as he attends a retreat in Guelph. Last week Mr. McKinnon spoke on "Paralyzed by Last Year." The readers were Walter Veenstra and Audrey Colton. At Bolton the readers were Mrs. Ernest Stewart and Lois Downey.

This week the service will be conducted by Gordon Alcott in the absence of Rev. McKinnon. The readers will be Ginny Zimmerman and Leola White, at Bolton Starr Olsen and Arthur Geddis. On the minister's return the following Sunday he will speak on "Take off Your Shoes."

January 14, 15, and 16 the Presbyterian of Brampton is sponsoring a mid-winter retreat for adult education. The conference ground in the city of Guelph will be well packed with interested people seeking to spend time in the study of God's word. Among the topics will be "How Do We Speak About Jesus" and "What Moves People To Give." Speakers will be Rev. Wayne Smith, secretary of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action, Rev. George Vais from the Presbyterian Church in Huntsville and Rev. Warren McKinnon from Nashville Presbyterian Church.

Bolton Presbyterian WMS met January 10 at 8 pm at the home of Mrs. Marion Stewart of Bolton.

At Calvary Baptist Church, the ladies fellowship held its annual election of officers, January 11 at 6:30 pm, beginning with a pot luck supper. The ladies coffee hour and Bible study is Thursday at 10 am.

"The Person of Christ" will be studied. All ladies are given a warm welcome.

Wednesday evening is a busy night, the Pioneer Girls and the Christian Service Brigade both met at 6:30 pm.

The regular praise and Bible study is held at 8 pm then choir practice at 9 pm.

Wednesday, January 19, the annual business meeting will be held. All interested should keep this Wednesday evening open.

Rev. William Pardee will be speaking Sunday morning at 11 am, "Ministry Of The Gospel."

School News
Kleinburg Junior Public School has not much to report this week. Principal John Martin says they are getting set for the spring and taking a breather from the busy Christmas Season. The children are digging right into their work and the choir is doing well. Some children are going to make musical instruments. Others are taking folk dancing. There are just a few of the things on the agenda for the coming season.

Mackenzie Senior Public School is starting out the New Year with lots of news. Volleyball is a favorite and the team is doing well. The final standings and points are Woodbridge 8 points, Royal Orchard 8, Roselawn 6, George Bailey 4, Mackenzie 2 and Woodland 2. Mackenzies team is composed of Corina Ammosera, Karen Snider, Sandra Cherofer, Kathy Barnes and Lorna McMillan.

Soccer has been a great success and a lot of fun, even when played in ice and snow and lots of puddles. The students especially want to thank the referees Jim Stevens, Steve Pocock, Jack Steinhof, Stewart Adamson, Ralph Schubert, Gord Whitney, Ian Howard, Kevin Atwell, Glenn Adgey, Andrew Barker, Larry Teeple, and Doug Nichol for their good efforts.

The league standings are: Midgets 15, Poppin Hoopies 14, Bora Winners 13, Chiefs 9, Dribblers 9, and Vagabonds 0. The Midgets team Danny Connors, Gord Whitney, Paul Mor-season the winners were the Alley Trotters, captained by Dionne Woodley. The team is composed of Joan Love, Heather Spence, Pauline Fry, Irene Pletzer and Gail MacCormach. The other teams intend to give them a good run for first place this season. President Em. Dunne, Secretary Pauline Fry and Treasurer Pat Deans head the league.

Librarian Mrs. Mildred McCutcheon says the hours at the library are back to normal after the holidays. There is a section of new books to interest every reader. The "Story Hour" for pre-school children is held Mondays at 2:30 pm. Mrs. Glenna Hayhoe is the reader. Mothers are most welcome to come and enjoy a book while waiting for the children.

Monday, January 17, the annual meeting of the Kleinburg and Area Ratpayers will be held at the junior school at 8 pm. There will be a report on the past year and the election of new officers for the coming year will take place. A slate of officers has been selected but nominations may be sent to Box 86, Kleinburg, Secretary Miss Rita Shure. Nominations will also be taken from the floor. All interested are urged to attend.

The WI meeting is coming up January 18 at 1:30 pm. The topic for this meeting is about "Pollution." In the roll call members will be thinking about what they have done to curb pollution. The program will be prepared by Mrs. Molly Burnfield and Mrs. May Tennant. The ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Jackie Cherofer (in the Estates). In charge of the lunch will be Mrs. Luena Thomson and Mrs. Nora Stephenson.

We have a few on the sick list this week. Our very best wishes for a speedy recovery go to Bessie White who broke her wrist. Al Snider who is in York Central Hospital, Mrs. Eleanor Love who is in Brampton Hospital, and Mrs. John Eard who has a broken hip and is in York Central. We are pleased to report Pauline Fry is doing well and will be bowling again before long.

Congratulations go to John and Gail MacCormach who recently celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary by attending the Royal Alex and seeing the play "Applause" they report it was terrific. John and Gail are soon to take a marvellous vacation in the Bahama Islands. We will expect news when they return.

Heinz and Elizabeth Kuehn celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary December 26. They were married 16 years ago in the minister's living room under a large Christmas tree. Mrs. Kuehn said it was most beautiful.

Euchre is having good turnouts each week. This week the games were held at the home of Peter and Phyllis Gellatly of Nashville. There were five full tables with winners Iva Paul, Dorothy May, Ruth Whitehead, Henry Paul, Heather Spence and Carl Toll. The president of the club is Charley Agar, Vice-President Henry Paul, Secretary Heather Spence, Associate Secretary Dorothy May and Treasurer Dorothy Todd.

Rotary news included a very good Christmas Party held at May Watts Humber Valley Inn. A lovely silver tray was presented as a wedding gift to May (who is now Mrs. Albert Cayen) for all Rotary meetings are usually held at Humber Valley Inn.

Kleinburg Firefighters enjoyed dinner last night at the Rotary Club. Captain Bob Arnold and Firefighter Murray Hilliard gave a talk and showed a film "Life Of A Firefighter." Most of the crew of station 4 attended with the exception of those that had to work. Those present were Bob Arnold, Ken Sanderson, Bill Ash, Walter Bell, Harry Dyke, John Engel Dennis Findly, Murray Hilliard, Roy Hilliard, Mike Murphy, Don Snider and Don Verdin.

Bowling
The girls are bowling again each Thursday afternoon. Last
