Two Charged Concord Arson

Two 16-year-old youths at press time were waiting to appear in Richmond Hill Provincial Court on an arson charge in connection with a $16,000 January 2 house fire at 8066 Dufferin Street in the Concord area of Vaughan Town.

Charged are Franklyn Smith and Ronald Wiesner of Concord, York Regional Police said.

Police allege there was a break-in at the house December 31 and entry again January 2. Vaughan Fire Chief James Davidson called the Fire Marshal's office to investigate.

The house was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lonero and their infant daughter. They were away visiting at the time of the fire. The family had no insurance on the household furnishings and personal belongings they lost.

Vegetable Storage Building Destroyed

Damage estimated at about $200,000 was experienced in a fire that destroyed a storage and vegetable packing house in Holland Marsh early January 14. The building, owned by Springdale Farms Limited, was demolished, and its contents composed of tons of onions and carrots, heavy machinery, a panel truck and fork lift trucks were consumed.

The 200 by 80 foot structure was a mass of flames by the time firemen from Schomberg and Bradford arrived. The flames were fanned by heavy winds.

Firemen chopped holes in the ice of the nearby Holland River and pumped water to a pump truck to be used in fighting the blaze. The ruins were still smoldering 14 hours after the fire started.

Cause has not been determined.

Hill Picks Centennial, Library, Parks People

Richmond Hill Town Council decided Monday evening to reduce the number of members on the Parks and Recreation Committee to nine from 11, including the two council representatives — Shaun Beggs (who serves as committee chairman) and Stewart Bell.

The seven citizens named to this committee are Harold Jones, Ken Blyth, Pat Decianis, John Pennfather, Russ Tilt, all members of the 1971 committee, and Glen Philip and Dave Barton. Retiring are Mrs. Peggy Clark and Paul Flood.

LIBRARY APPOINTMENTS
Council also named Cam Smith and Councillor Lois Hancey to the public library board. Both are re-appointments.

New representatives on the Civic Improvement Committee are Regional Councillor Donald Plaxton, who replaces Councillor Stewart Bell, and Judge James Butler.

CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE
The committee charged with the responsibility of celebrating the town's 100th anniversary of incorporation next year was revamped. This committee in 1972 will be chaired by Councillor Louis Wainwright with Councillors Andy Chateauvert and David Schiller, members of the 1971 committee, completing the roster of council representatives.

Other council committees and appointments remain unchanged from last year.

Striking Sign-Waving Picket Line Of Workers Greets King Council

A line of sign-waving picketers greeted King Township councillors Monday night of this week as they arrived for a regular council meeting.

It signified the going out on strike of 20 of the municipality's public employees. The walk-out officially commenced at 7 am on the same day.

Persons attending the council meeting were handed information sheets by the picketers under the leadership of CUPE Canadian Union of Public Employees which is negotiating for the municipal employees.

The sheet, headed by the wording "The Township of King Negotiates By Ultimatum," charges that:

"The council demands that its employees accept 'Take it or Leave it' offers and then condemns its employees for having the guts to insist that a settlement be reached by negotiation."

SEPARATE AGREEMENTS
The union is particularly incensed at what it terms municipal...

This event is free of charge to all regular bowlers. Guests are welcome and there's plenty of parking space available.

YRP Investigating 3 Separate Road Deaths

York Regional Police investigated three separate deaths last week.

A 51-year-old Stouffville woman, Mrs. Vera Dorothy McGarry, was found dead in her car early Thursday morning on Woodbine Avenue (formerly Don Mills Road) just south of the Gormely Sideroad.

Police said Mrs. McGarry was apparently proceeding north on Woodbine when her car went out of control. It went into a ditch and flipped upside down.

It's believed the accident occurred around 11 pm Wednesday night but it wasn't discovered until 7 am the next morning.

The car was wrecked. Mrs. McGarry lived on Lot 10, Concession 8 of Whitechurch-Stouffville.

KILLED AT MAPLE
Wilfred Windsor, 63, of Rougemont Drive, Agincourt was killed Wednesday of last week when he was run over by a Piggyback trailer at the CNR yards near Maple.

Police said the railway workman somehow got under the wheels of the trailer as it was being moved.

He was pronounced dead later at York Finch Hospital.

An autopsy was ordered to determine whether or not Windsor died before the accident.

DEAD IN CAR
In the second accident, John Lorne White, 61, of Camelot Court, Don Mills, was found dead in his car on Highway 7 at Keele Street in Vaughan Town.

Police said the man pulled to the side of the road and his car smashed into a second vehicle when a motorist stopped to help.

The White car was stopped but lurched forward into the rear of the second car when the driver pulled off the road in front of it. The other driver was not hurt.

SNOWMOBILE CRASH
A snowmobile crash Saturday in Holland Landing seriously injured James Stewart, 26, of River Drive Park.

His snowmobile struck the rear of a parked car. He was taken to Newmarket York Central Hospital with a broken arm, a broken leg, cuts, head injuries, and shock.

A passenger, Donald James Young, 17, was treated for a broken wrist and released.

CARRVILLE

Correspondent: Mrs. Arlene Parke - 884-5051 260 Weldrick Road

Deepest sympathy from the community is sent to Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reaman in the loss of their son, Robert, due to a car accident on Friday.

Get well wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sommerville who have been ill with the flu.

A fast recovery is wished for Mrs. Ella Bradfield and Mrs. Frances Purves who are also on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Read have just returned from a ten-day vacation in Miami, Florida. The perfect way to shed the blues that always seems to take over at the start of winter.

The Carrville United Church Annual Congregation meeting and pot luck supper will be held on January 26, and the supper will start at 6:30 pm.

The Carrville UCW meeting of February will be held at the home of Mrs. Irene Bowes in Maple.

Stan Woods of Carrville is now a patient at the Villa Hospital. Mr. Woods enjoyed the Christmas holiday season with his family and stayed at the home of his daughter Mrs. Frances Purves where all his family and friends visited on New Year's, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Everingham from Scarborough were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purves were hosts over the weekend to four players from the peewee hockey team from Ottawa who are the winners of the "B" Championship.

Negotiations had been underway between CUPE and the municipality for some seven months before the break came.

Maple Downs Golf Club $1,500 Pro Shop Blaze

Damage was estimated at $1,500 Tuesday morning when fire spread from a space heater to wood panels at the Maple Downs Golf Club in the northeast corner of Vaughan Town.

Vaughan Fire Chief James Davidson said the alarm was at 1:22 am to Dufferin Street (Lot 28, Concession 2).

Vaughan firefighters also spent more than three hours cleaning up water at the Parker Brothers Limited factory, 7883 Keele Street, January 15. Frost burst a 1 1/2-inch sprinkler pipe and set off a sprinkler flow alarm at 8:47 pm.

Another frozen water pipe brought firefighters to a dwelling at 83 Keele Street North at 10:16 am the same day.

A motorist called in a fire alarm January 16 at 11:39 am when a boiler was being tested at Domtar Packaging Limited, Keele Street, but there was no need for firefighters.

A call to Vaughan Fire Department January 13 underlined the need to give accurate information during a fire alarm, said Fire Chief Davidson.

Vaughan firefighters hurried to 6095 Keele Street at 9:27 am with a rescuserator. A child was reported turning blue with breathing problems.

But there was no such address of control. It traced the call to 1695 Keele Street in Metro, where the emergency was over.

Meanwhile Richmond Hill was keeping up its good record of few calls and only minor fires since December 1. In this period there have been only 19 alarms and four fires with any damage, said Fire Chief Alfred Stong.

There was a false alarm January 15 at 6:30 pm at the Dominion Store on Yonge Street South when there was a short circuit in the alarm system.

Firefighters were also called January 16 at 12:30 am to 170 Bayview Avenue where a radiator had broken in an apartment building.

He was pronounced dead later at York Finch Hospital.

An autopsy was ordered to determine whether or not Windsor died before the accident.

DEAD IN CAR
In the second accident, John Lorne White, 61, of Camelot Court, Don Mills, was found dead in his car on Highway 7 at Keele Street in Vaughan Town.

Police said the man pulled to the side of the road and his car smashed into a second vehicle when a motorist stopped to help.
