Big Night Of Basketball Season

The long standing sports rivalry between Bayview Secondary and Richmond Hill High was at its peak Friday night of last week at the Bayview gym.

However, Bayview came out on top this time by almost making it a clean sweep in the basketball triple-header between the two schools.

Bayview won the midget and junior games, but lost the senior game in a close contest to Richmond Hill.

A full house was on hand to cheer the favorite teams on to victory.

POWERFUL BAYVIEW

It was really no match in the midget division, as a powerful Bayview squad trounced Richmond Hill by a score of 55-22. The pace of the game was evident by half time, with the score 33-11 in favor of Bayview.

Coach Tim Malcolm of Bayview received good performances from Craig Davies who scored 15 points and Rick Carton who racked up 13.

Rick Murphy was Richmond Hill's leading scorer with 10 points. Richmond Hill was coached by Jim Muir.

COMPETITION KEENER

The competition was much keener in the junior game, as Bayview again won this exciting contest 63-49.

There was lots of fast action and plenty of end to end rushes. The score at half time was 26-25 in favor of Richmond Hill.

But, Bayview made up the difference in the second half due mainly to the outstanding performance of John Olson. He paced Bayview with an amazing 42 points in the game. It was nothing less than spectacular to watch him manoeuvre the ball around the court. I would have to say that Olson was the best player on the floor out of all three games.

Richmond Hill's leading point getters were Scott Macdonald and Norm Alferman with 12 points each.

Both Coach Mortson of Bayview and Barney Matisko of Richmond Hill should be pleased with their team's performance.

RHHS SENIOR VICTORY

The senior game, which saw Richmond Hill defeating Bayview 52-50, was undoubtedly the most exciting game of basketball I have ever seen in this region.

The teams had the crowd standing and shouting to the top of their lungs.

Bayview was in control of the game up until half time, when they led 29-19. Then Richmond Hill came on and the competition became fierce, with the action being fast and furious.

In the last two minutes the crowd reached a feverish pitch. The chants of "RHHS" and "Here's to Bayview strong and true", led by the teams' cheerleaders, raised the roof of the house.

One could not help but be caught up in the excitement and tenseness of this game. However, there has to be a winner, and Richmond Hill came out on top with a two point margin.

It was anyone's game right up until the last second. Pandemonium broke out when the game finally ended.

Greg Binkley was Richmond Hill's standout performer with 17 points.

Paul Ranieri and Gord Woolnough each scored 14 points for Bayview. Woolnough and teammate Jim Campbell both had to leave the game because of fouls.

Coach Don Fleming of Richmond Hill really had his team up for this game. It must have been a real heartbreaker for Coach Cliff Nuttall and his team to lose this one.

Between games and at half time, Bayview's Basketball Pep Band played for the audience and inspired the team. Richmond Hill also had several musical representatives.

Steve Juhasz also performed on the trampoline during the intermission. All in all, it was a great night of basketball at Bayview.

This was undoubtedly school sports at its best. I only hope that many more sports events of this calibre are in store for us in the near future.

(Due to certain circumstances, I was unable to personally attend this gala sports event. Randy Henderson, a grade 12 student at Bayview, was kind enough to step in and take over for me on this occasion. The story you have just read and the format in which it was written were basically Randy's ideas, with only a few minor changes being made by me. For a first time reporter I feel that he did a commendable job and wish to thank him for doing so.)

GIRLS' TEAMS OFF TO FAST START

Both Bayview's junior and senior girls' basketball teams Wednesday of last week travelled to RHHS to compete in their third game of the season.

Both teams came away winners, with the juniors winning by a score of 35-26 and the seniors rolling to a 36-11 victory.

Outstanding player for the junior team was Donna Walker, while the seniors had so many it would be unfair to mention only a few.

Both teams are off to great starts, as both presently hold down a 3-0 won-lost record.

MIDGET BOYS TOURNAMENT

The midget boys basketball team attended a tournament last weekend, and did not fare all that bad. They won the first game, but had to bow out as they were defeated in their next two matches.

Further details of this tournament will be available in my column next week.

FUTURE SCHEDULE

Tuesday, January 25 — Langstaff versus Bayview Midget boys; Thursday, January 27 — Langstaff versus Bayview junior and senior boys.

FUND RAISER QUILTS IN DISGUST

Dear Mr. Sports Editor: Let it be known publicly, the Hockey Fund Raising Chairwoman Helen Price does hereby resign.

I have been connected with the Richmond Hill Hockey Association for approximately 10 years, one way or another — either parent-wise, wife of a coach or on the board of directors. For the past two years the latter has been my niche. I have worked, I feel, for the entire organization — but in turn it so seems, the established executive does not participate with same.

On January 15 a lot of hard work and effort went into a dance held at the Lions Club in Richmond Hill. The dance included a buffet dinner and I might add a live band — something of a novelty in any of the past performances. Unfortunately only about 200 people attended this dance when we had prepared for between 350 to 400. Of these 200 people only ONE was an executive member.

The executive, ladies and gentlemen, are the powers to be that detail costs and budgets, monies to be raised, make important decisions — in general, run the association one way or the other.

On the Monday preceding this dance, fund raising and budget was an important issue. If we need so much money gentlemen — why did the executive fail to have some kind of representation there? I was given a reason, quote "This didn't want to be backed into a corner" unquote. They was referring to a decision that was made the night before — I'm afraid I just can't buy that kind of an excuse — mainly because I was under the impression we had MEN on the executive, not just male members.

Thanks fellows for two years of political warfare.

HELEN PRICE, Fund Raising Chairwoman

Plan 2 New Arenas In Thornhill And Unionville

The "in" thing today in area municipalities is to announce proposed plans for construction of a new hockey arena and/or recreation centre.

It was Markham Town Council's turn Tuesday afternoon of last week when it approved in principle the construction of arenas on Grandview Park in South Thornhill and on Concession 7, north of Highway 7 between Unionville and the Old Town of Markham.

Total price for both arenas is estimated at $900,000.

Construction hinges on approval being received for a loan under the federal, provincial and municipal loans program for 1971-72.

The program is a federal government job-creating scheme to encourage municipal projects.

Council also received an offer of assistance in the way of co-operation in constructing a new arena. This offer was from members of the Thornhill Lions Club.

The Thornhill Club reported in a letter that its members have been investigating costs and visiting other areas where arena-auditorium type structures are in existence.

Councillor Bob Adams, himself a member of the club, said Thornhill with "a population in the area of 20,000 persons is sorely in need of an arena."

"We are now in the process of getting costs and looking at various sketch plans with a view toward coming up with a pre-engineered type of building," he said.

He added that feelers had been made to both Vaughan and Markham as regards possible financial backing.

It was also reported that a number of other interested service groups in the municipality had been holding meetings in an effort to organize a drive for a new arena or arenas.

Council decided to hold a meeting with the various organizations as well as the Markham Junior "B" hockey club executives and discuss the matter further in committee.

A new arena-recreation centre has also been announced for King Township at an estimated cost of $250,000 and Oak Ridges for an estimated $275,000.

local boys with his Brantford club. "Then along came this year and the Brantford people were after me to coach there," said Artemchuk. "Again it was the travel — the being away from the family — that made me hesitate."

A few weeks ago came another pitch. The club was fighting for the last playoff spot. It was in trouble.

"They figured I could get the team in the playoffs. It looked like — and looks like — a challenge. I took it," he said.

Pete hasn't pulled off any miracles yet. But he has accomplished two things no one else has been able to do with the club since its inception in the league two years ago. And this after only two or three games.

RECORDS, YET!

Under his tutelage, the club downed Windsor 7-3 in Windsor. It was the first game the club had ever won away from home.

Then Pete's Marvels shut out Sarnia 6-0. It was the club's first shutout in its two-year history. Not bad, eh? Tomorrow, the world!

He's lost a few since then. But they've been close. The wins have got to come.

"We've been really hit by injuries," he said. "One of those things."

Injuries have been so familiar names as Colin Wood who is coming off a broken ankle, Larry Kellett, broken elbow, Hal Murphy, bruised hip, charley horse, etc. Other Richmond Hill stalwarts on the club are Tony Bellevance, Scott Mabley, and Goalie Dave Carnell.

Artemchuk is particularly high on Murphy who has scored 35 goals to date in the Southern Ontario loop. Three of those came on a hat trick just after Pete took over. Murphy is also from The Hill.

"This kid is a real worker. He deserves a lot of credit. I think he's got a good future in hockey," said Pete.

Pete's coaching philosophy? "I guess you could say I use the 'soft-sell' approach. These fellows are men and I talk to them that way. I can be exacting... firm when I have to. But then I do it in private. If I'm critical of an individual I take him aside and tell him. I give him a chance to rebut my arguments. Of course, I have the final say."

Artemchuk will tell a player once. He will tell him twice. If that doesn't work the player is in trouble.

CAN'T BUY RESPECT

"You can't buy respect from the players," he states. "You've got to earn it."

One incident before I close. Pete mentioned that a player he has recently signed was undecided whether to go with him or Guelph. Guelph is a top club and had more to offer the player.

Pete figured he had lost him. But the player commented that his father had noticed that he (Artemchuk) was a less vociferous, ebullient coach than the Guelph mentor. In other words, he talked to his players. He didn't shout.

The father mentioned this to his son. The next day the boy called Artemchuk and wanted to join the team.

That's what I mean. I like the quiet types. Just a personal preference of mine.

HIGH SCORING

On the bowling side of it, Terry Byer, 11, of 78 Cartier Crescent came up with a fat, fat 356 single over the weekend at ABC Bowling Alley. His triple for the night was 678.

And to close with a footnote regarding Artemchuk. Pete lives at 171 Laverock Avenue, and is employed with Canadian Pipelines of Toronto. He's married and has four children, Debbie 6; Bernadette 15; Arland "Chuck" 13; and Kelly 7. His wife's name is Lee.

Other team members are: Jim Waddington, Weston; John Bright, Dixie; John Telespa, Toronto; Tim Ampleford, Weston; Brad Winton, Weston; Dave Dudley, North York; Robin Ayers, St. Mike's; John Gerns, St. Mike's; Randy Clouth, Downsview; John Sturges, Toronto.

Five Rams Make All-Star Squad

A total of five Richmond Hill Rams, including one complete line, will be participating in the Metro Junior "B" East-West All-Star game next Wednesday night at 8 pm at St. Mike's Arena.

The Rams, along with Markham Waxers, have dominated the standings throughout the first half of the schedule this season.

This was reflected in the All-Star selections as the high-scoring line of Steve Colp, Craig Terry, and Darryl Rice were a unanimous pick as a complete unit for the starting Eastern line-up.

Named as second goalie was Gary Carr.

The fifth man selected was Paul Terry, who is playing his first year in Junior hockey.

The line of Colp, Terry, and Rice was easily a unanimous choice as they top the Richmond Hill individual scoring leadership by a good margin. Between the three of them they have scored 77 out of the 178 goals the team has scored this season.

Craig Terry rides atop the list with 29 goals and 32 assists for 61 points in 30 games.

Behind him is young Colp, who is rapidly becoming the standard of the team in his first year of Junior action. Colp has 24 goals and 32 assists for 56 points in 28 games.

Rice, who stars both offensively and defensively in penalty killing roles, has 24 goals and 29 assists in 28 games for 53 points.

Paul Terry, Craig's brother, is one of Coach Karl Brimblecombe's more pleasant surprises this season, back on the rearguard.

Carr, of course, has given the Rams strong goaltending along with Gordon Woolnough all season.
