Youth Plan Gets Federal Money

Roy Caven, spokesman of the Roseview Community Workshop, has informed "The Liberal" that his group of young people has received approval of a $15,000 grant from the Federal Government Local Initiatives Program to create jobs and community betterment.

The group has also received a grant of $2,000 from Richmond Hill Council, he reports, and will need another $5,000 from interested and generous citizens to get the project underway.

Over the past few months, Caven reports, this group of approximately 40 young people came to realize that there is a marked lack of facilities in this community where old and young alike may be brought together in an atmosphere conducive to communication. The need at present is great and projected population growth will only increase the need, the young people believe.

To answer this need the Roseview Community Workshop has acquired 1,400 square feet of space at 121 Yonge Street South to serve as a coffee house and a free school facilities will be made available for creative arts such as drama, candlemaking, pottery, ceramics weaving, astrology, sewing, music, etc.

Work has already begun on a clean-up, paint up and equipment campaign with the hope that the centre will open early in May. All instructors will be volunteers and all very qualified people, he says.

The young people are hopeful the program will stimulate the individual and thus benefit not only the individual, but the community at large. They hope this is the beginning of one more step towards bringing the community of Richmond Hill more closely together.

Roseview Community Workshop may be contacted by writing P.O. Box 28, Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Robinson has been a member of the Buttonville YCHA since its inception in 1962 and has served as chairman of that branch, chairman of committees and as chairman of a hospital auxiliaries district. She was also the originator of the hospital's baby photography service, on which she served until recently.

The award was presented at the annual meeting of the auxiliary and was made by Mrs. Betty Lund of Oshawa, chairman of Ontario District 7 Hospital Auxiliaries.

At present Mrs. Robinson is in York Central Hospital for surgery. We wish her a rapid return to health.

There were 19 tables of players at the winter euchre series game Friday night of last week at Buttonville WI Hall.

First Payment 1972 Taxes Due April 20

An interim tax levy of 12 mills on the 1971 assessment was approved by Richmond Hill Council at its Monday night meeting and three readings were given the necessary bylaw. This is 50% of last year's tax levy.

The levy to be collected in equal payments due April 20 and June 20 will raise $2,756,376.30.

A penalty of 1% will be assessed on the first day of default of payment and a similar penalty will be added on the first day of each calendar month.

A final tax bill will be issued later in the year, after the 1972 budget has been set and approved by the provincial authorities. It is planned that it, too, will be payable in two instalments.

Treasurer Mack Clement reported that advice from the Department of Municipal Affairs was that the municipality should use the most common mill rate for a public school residential taxpayer and that not more than 50% of last year's levy could be raised in an interim levy.

Last year council levied seven mills on an interim basis and since it was not possible to issue the final bills until late in the year, the town had to operate on borrowed money for the greater part of the year, and as a result had to pay an excessive amount in interest.

$74,250 Loan Sewers Approved

Richmond Hill Council Monday approved construction of 1440 linear feet of sanitary sewer on Browndale Crescent, Keats Road and South Taylor Mills Drive at a total cost of $74,250 dollars.

The town will borrow the money for this work from the federal-provincial Special Development Loans Fund. It provides for forgiveness of 75% of the cost of on site labor to a total of $31,500, bring the final cost to the town down to $42,750. OMB permission for the work has been obtained, it was said.

The sewer installation will include 12, 18 and 20-inch pipes. Councillor Andy Chateauvert said the work is designed to clear up sewer backdrop problems in the area. The problems have existed for some years.

Neighborhood Notes
Best wishes and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Anning of Carrville United, on their 47th wedding anniversary February 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bushell have just returned from a holiday in Florida.

Looking radiant in a dress of princess lace, Donna Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wade of Carrville, became the bride of Charles Bourne of Toronto, on February 19 in Asbury and West United.

The bride's flowers were of white and red roses. The reception followed the wedding with immediate relatives and friends.

Before her marriage the bride was entertained at a shower given by her aunt Edna for the relatives of the couple, on February 11. Another shower with friends was held on January 15 at the bride's home.

Your correspondent and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ellie Park are happy to announce the birth of our grandson Christopher Sean McLean on February 25, son of our daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Michael McLean now living in New Glasgow, Nova Scotia.

two words to remember when you add an extra room:

electric heating

Electric heating is almost as easy to install as it is to enjoy. It eliminates the expense of extending ductwork and pipes. In fact, electric heating puts no strain at all on your present heating system—or your budget.

If you're adding a room, or making an existing room cosier, consider electric heating. Just contact a qualified electric heating contractor. Or call us.

The Consumers' Association of Canada is celebrating its 25th anniversary across Canada this week. Members of the local group will be taking a survey in Richmond Heights Centre and the public library this weekend on the public's willingness to separate garbage and to bring bottles, tins and newspapers to a depot for recycling.

A public meeting will also be held in Richmond Hill Council Chambers March 7 at 8 pm with a special speaker from Pollution Probe. There will also be displays throughout the town on ways to reduce wastage. Remember the effort of every consumer counts. For further information phone 887-5627.

Gormley Women's Institute met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Charles Milsted. This marks the 75th anniversary of the WI, but for the Gormley Branch it is 42 years since it was organized.

A social half hour followed when a special birthday cake was served.

Christmas Gift from the sister institute in Hailsham, England, was read.

Mrs. John Brown presented a very detailed study on the rabbit and Mrs. Milsted read a paper prepared by Mrs. Linda Brown on the founding of the WI at Stoney Creek on February 19, 1897 — and its founder, Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless.

Mrs. John Gamble gave a reading, "What A Grandmother Is." Mrs. Russ Elias read a paper also prepared by Mrs. Brown on "The Meaning of Names."
