Thornhill and District News

"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of interest contributed by its readers in the Thornhill area. Please call Miss Margaret Govan, 14 Deanbank Drive, 889-5372

Socially Speaking In Thornhill

The Thornhill Library pre- organization. (It began in Stoney with, disagree with, or just to and presented her with a pot of help when you have come back rics, floors, windows, accessories ents a program "How to sur- Creek and spread to Britain, consider thoughtfully. The first African violets. Mrs. Ann Har- down to earth. This list has ... this readable book also inive in the Wilderness", for 6- Australia, New Zealand, etc.) was to do with women to-day. ris took care of the refresh-been compiled by Markham, cludes "an artfull alphabet" of 2 years olds this Saturday at Mrs. Percy Bone was the de- Heretofore she has been con- ments. 0:00 am at the Royal Orchard lightful hostess, and there was sidered in her role of child Thornhill United Church Public School in Thornhill, almost a full attendance and bearing and rearing, and has Don't miss this final program two visitors who had had an been brought up to do so. Now The United Church Women Any of these books . . . and Home Furnishing Ideas — Here f the season with Ron Sautman active connection in the past: since she lives so much longer are holding their annual sacrif the Boy Scouts of Canada, Mrs. Richard Neil and Mrs. and since much of the training ficial luncheon on March 29, ailable through each library . . . decorating ideas including comwho will tell you how to sur- Beatrice Swabey of Orangeville, of children is being taken over The guest speaker will be Mrs. if the title you want is not in plete decorating schemes for rive in the wilderness. Satur- Both were past presidents. | more and more by institutions, James Scorgia of Newmarket the branch you use, a quick various rooms in your home.

There is an excellent registra- "What I like or dislike about Some of the points raised time of the year and the ladies bring the title to your branch utions for problem windows," ion for the school break pro- daily newspapers." Everybody were that women who are congram which was held at the be- made some comment. There tented with the role of being welcome guests to join with the ny kind are very popular. The Thornhill and Area Horshe only read what she pleased, is always need for that . . . and icultural Society held a tour it really didn't matter what was is always need for that . . . and a trip to Fort Lauderdale, like in spare time occupations.

New Bank Of Montreal useful collection of suggestions on how you can put your creations.

March 18. The greenhouses read and the treasurer's report there are women who have irst entered were set apart for gardinias. The plants had some some bills. Mrs. The plants had some some bills and are apt to be unhappy besettings plus a water-skiing expecialized training for careers and a profuse number of the plants had some some bills. The proposed for business make the most of limited space, illustrations and a very practical for the plants had been some bills. The proposed for business make the most of limited space, illustrations and a very practical for the plants had been some bills. buds. The roses were being the district meeting where she cause of this waste of skill.

held back, as the gardener ex- was a delegate.

Chornhill and Area

Iorticultural Society

vhites, pinks of various shades, from the home: china from Mrs. as male or female. course, there were Easter lilies, across the ocean two genera- jumping off place the fact that amazing show place. cheduled to be at their very tions ago, shawls . . . a sum-insurance companies charge best next week. Most of the mer one and a winter one . . high premiums for drivers adies were given a lemon from which had belonged to Mrs. under a certain age. This is so varding tour. Senior Citizens But those who came had an in-lar in it, given to her when situations too. eresting and enjoyable after- she was five! (It is interesting The third topic had to do with phone system. with refreshments. The travel- five cents! ers are expected back very Mrs. Anne Heslop, the other Young persons are taught to pack to normal again. Mothers' Break Program The community sponsored and another from the back of culinity. Young children have mothers' break program makes the United Church calendar certain qualities because of ts beginning on March 28, 9:30- about the old Methodist grave- their sex which are normally 1:30 am at Thornhill United yard. Church. Mrs. Anne Crandell, Mrs. Doris Donaldson gave a be fostered and cultivated. of Cherry Blossom Lane, a reading which might have been The last topic was to do with physical education graduate, entitled "How Not to Chair a the role of the family in regard will give some keep fit exer- Meeting." It was most amus- to the children. At first it must rises not too many. This will ing. Mrs. Neil reminisced about provide for the care and shelter e followed by discussion, her time in the chair, hill Recreation Committee, etc. colors, such good sandwiches grow up. older children and a play wagged you may be sure.

ime. You are needed. The Richmond Hill and Thornhill Area Family Service in Langstaff, Mrs. Frances Sin- ed, and the bonds must be Thornhill Area Family Service dent of the Institute. a counselling service) are hold- CHURCH NEWS ing their annual meeting in the Holy Trinity Anglican Church their words of advice, Thornhill United Church on Last Wednesday evening the Christ the King April 6, at 8:00 pm. The new second of the series on Family Lutheran Church

On March 16, the WI held a ospital.

School News

gala celebration. It was their He had chosen four topics Mrs. Joanne Wilson demonstrat- and conduct drama classes. 70th anniversary as well as the and prepared a statement with ed the basic knots in macrami inning of this week. Crafts of were objections to the surfeit of mothers, feel pressured by pubhorror stories, and the lack of lic opinion, to take on another and rewarding get-together. more pleasant ones. However career: There are plenty of ways Of Interest one lady remarked that since for her to use her skills . . . in Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bone, plained, until Mothers' Day. Mrs. Lex Jamieson was pre- situations and people, and some-Buds were being pinched off so sented with a life membership times there doesn't seem to be hat the crop would be in ex- by Mrs. Claire Thompson, much any easy solution. But much ellent condition five weeks to Mrs. Jamieson's surprise and of the frustration could be delight. There was a sing-song, avoided if the two sexes were Another series of green- Mrs. Anne Empringham, one not prepared for different roles, nouses were given up to hyd- of the convenors for Historical but both prepared for a share in angeas and they were a gorge- Research, gave a fascinating the homemaking. Children ous sight, ranging through the talk on a number of objects should be trained as people, not ind deep blues. Then, of Bone's household that had come The second topic had for a they do not fly away. An posit box customers, and an ittle lemon trees. It was a re- Empringham's grandmother, a often a cause for friction. Much pocket for valuables which but of the friction can be avoided toned onto the petticoat band by preparing for this well in Between the horrible weather under the skirt; a child's advance, by talking over what and southern travellers, the handkerchief which her father to do about it, and by making ttendance at the regular meet- had had as a boy, and the purse decisions which take in the ng of the Thornhill Senior that belonged to her childhood whole family and its needs. Of Citizens, was disappointing. with an American silver dol- course this applies to other 100n. Bell Canada provided to note that Mrs. Empringham the traditional attitude that wo films, one the life of Alex- attended Langstaff school as did men must be trained to be agander Graham Bell, and a sec- her father, her son and her gressive and women accomand on the workings of the tele- grandson.) There was also a modating and submissive for butcher's bill which made every sake of maintaining the species. Of course there was an one nostalgic . . . two and a This has had an influence on pleasant social time afterwards, half pounds of steak for twenty- sports and attitudes in home and community.

soon and so the club will be convenor, read an excerpt from play on certain roles because a paper of 1950, about the his- of their sex. But aggressivetory of the Women's Institute, ness is not really a sign of masexpected, but they should not but its goal is to help the chil-Some of the topics will be: The tea party with a beauti- dren take over these responsi-Gardening, Fashions, the Thorn-ful cake decorated in the WI bilities for themselves as they

There will be a nursery and cookies, and a lovely look- Often the family is not in a school type of program for the ing table followed. Tongues position to offer the children help. Children are exposed to period for the younger. The The only sad note was when experiences by today's media at organizers could use more the group remembered Mrs. a far earlier age than their parvolunteers with the children. Ernie Burt who passed away ents, and also the horizons are Please telephone Mrs. Judy recently. She had married again greatly stretched. At the same Flow 889-6807 if you have any only four years ago and had time they do not usually have a moved to Willowdale. For 40 greater sense of responsibility. years previously she had lived So this sense must be develop-

The Richmond Hill and clair, and had twice been presi- loosened. Parents must be continually aware that their example is far and away beyond executive director, Dr. Frank Life Education was held at Holy The Women of the Church. Fidler, will speak. There will Trinity Church. The subject Christ the King Lutheran also be a film. The public are was 'Let's Work It Out To- Church, met last Tuesday at the urged to attend. It will be a gether," and the very lively home of Mrs. Prisca Kenel. The discussion was led by Roy Ross, devotions were led by Mrs. Neuropsychologist, Sunnybrook Mary Suter. The topic for the meeting was creativity, and party, Mrs. Baker called Mrs.

were accompanied as far as

The mayor of Cochrane had Thornlea A-V man.

cluded a Finnish bath and a the equipment," volunteered Mrs. Evans.

South Thornhill And Bayview Glen News

Mrs. Elizabeth Russell at 889- ladies' club's 25th birthday

CORRESPONDENT: DAVE BARBOUR - PHONE 889-5205 - 366-1720

On display at the E. J. S. and 8096. Junior School, March 29, will A rummage sale of goods, John Barbour long distance to be the results of the school's clean used clothing, furniture, extend greetings to the club school?" asked one of the guides. science fair competitions for etc., will be held by Unit 3 and best wishes to her former this year. The students whose UCW April 22. Please call 889- associates. Mrs. Baker is now exhibits are considered most 2269 or 889-1569 for pickup. staying with her son in Bowpraise worthy will be invited to The Thornhill CGIT girls are manville and is not totally bedsubmit their work in inter- preparing already for their an- ridden. Plans are being made groups school competitions coming up nual "tea" scheduled for April for a club member to visit Mrs. 29. Proceeds of this event will Baker soon in Bowmanville and room. "We've got recorders and they've . . ."

Bruce's Mills Conservation be used to support their foster present her with a commemora- "Tubas, violins, drums . . ." filled in Cindy. Centre is the destination for child in Taiwan, Chow Fang tive club pin. Mrs. Jeanette Scott and her Cheng. The CGIT has been Steve Jackson and Bob unwieldly tour. Taking the back door we entered grade 2 and 3 class March 30. supporting young Chow for the Phinnemore left Thornhill by the "loft" or the stage. This part of the school was Mrs. Doris Lawson and Mrs. past four year. Chow is 14 truck for Cochrane with four appreciated by all. Especially the lighting booth. Nancy Bodway, March 28, will years old now and he and his snowmobiles and equipment for "Hey, man!" "Oh, yeah!" "Look at that, will ya!" take their grade one classes to young foster parents correspond a 1,400 mile expedition. They visit the Baker Sugar Bush. frequently.

Mrs. Betty Ann Ferguson will Neighborhood Notes

Mrs. Betty Ann Ferguson will Neighborhood Notes

take her grade 3 class on a Sympathy of the community tour of Bruce's Mill March 29 is extended to the Murray Bar and Christine, who will return right up the alley for Thornlea's A-V students. tour of Bruce's Mill March 29. is extended to the Murray Bar- to Thornhill after seeing the "A-V" stands for "audio-visual" and audio-visual rington family, Clarke Avenue, men away on their snow jour- includes a lot of things. And just about everything The UCW "Sacrificial Lunch- on the passing of a son, who ney. eon" will be held March 29 at 1 died shortly after birth, repm. Guest speaker will be Mrs. cently.

I. Scorgie who will speak on an Birthday greetings are in arranged a "traditional" cereorder for Petra Kuyten, 14 Orsi mony honoring the venture Volunteers are needed for the Crescent, who will celebrate her and the adventurers. This in-United Church's new program 17th March 27. "Mother's Break" which begins Mrs. Jessie Baker, who lived polar dip, and documents to be March 28. Help is required to on Clarke Avenue up to 10 presented to the mayor resource centre. That wrapped up the tour and the supervise pre-schoolers while years ago was a very faithful of Churchill, Manitoba, at the their mothers take a break and hard-working member of completion of the journey. Please phone Mrs. Judy Flow at the Doncaster Community The adventurers were to have were "just great". After homeroom they set to 889-6807.

Unit 4 of the UCW is holding heart problems and at that morning and should be travelits 6th annual spring bridge and time went to stay with rela- ling along the edge of James euchre party April 5 at 8:15 pm tives. in the auditorium. Please call. On the day following the this time.

Ladies. She suffered severe reached Moosonee Wednesday

Bay in a northerly direction at

BOOK TALK THORNHILL PUBLIC LIBRARY

Books For Spring

Decorating Books - Spring tion on house and apartment has officially arrived, bringing decoration with helpful tips on the spirit of renewal — filling working with architects, plansome of us with the yen to ners or decorators. Even for spring clean, and who has ev-those who won't afford the er rolled up their sleeves for mouth-watering suggestions, ilthat job without entertaining lustrated, book-shopping and grand thoughts and dreams of dreaming will be enjoyable. re-decorating the entire house Starting From Scratch - by or apartment from top to bot- Joanna Barnes. As the name implies, this book will guide you Following is a sampling of in decorating your home from many decorating books available start to finish. Divided into in the library, to fire your im- practicle chapters on every as-75th of the founding of the each, for the audience to agree Mrs. Ruth Keffer thanked her agination, and to offer practical pect of decorating ... color, fabraries, the three branches of the for further reference.

Better Homes And Gardens Markham Library system. ay Programs will re-commence The meeting began in its reg- she finds herself with skills who will speak on the Easter phone call by the Librarian and Valuable articles such as "How ular fashion with the roll call: which are no longer useful. Theme. This is a very special one day is all that is needed to to sew lined draperies," "Sol-

> House And Garden's Com- The Money Savers' Guide To ating - a lavishly illustrated The author, a graduate of the (in color) collection of informa- New York School of Interior

The latter has gardens but the with certain lighting which day through Thursday.

makes it possibly for you to The attractive branch proaviary and hundreds of bird ing services and is fully-equip-"around-the-clock" depository unit for safe-keeping. Manager of the Bayview and

Area 3

Science Fair

April 7

County Board of Education

Area 3 will be held April 7 at Langstaff Secondary

School on Garden Avenue and will be open to the mentary and secondary schools in the Town of Vaughan and in the Thornhill-Thornlea area of the Winners at this fair will go on to compete in the

York County Fair scheduled to be held at Don

Head Secondary School

April 14 from 1-9 pm and

April 15 from 9 am to 3

Included will be 25 ele-public from 1-9 pm.

Town of Markham.

for the morning.

The science fair for York

torium, March 25 at 8 pm. Six suit furniture and draperies. | doesn't hesitate to combine of Logopedics in Wichita, Kan- present home, and how to make of these books from your local sas, as a service project. Lopo- use of it. Learn how to finish library . . . and have fun. pedies is "the study and treatment of speech defects"

However, funds raised in the Ontario District by shows such as this remain in trust here and are made available to Ontario children and teachers who bene-MM fit directly from this support.

Vision Thornlea

Thornlea Secondary School

By Rae-Marie

St. Anthony's Pupils Visit Thornlea

ing down at you." These were some of the remarks made by the seniors at Thornlea. That is the visiting seniors from St. Anthony's Roman Catholic School, North Thornhill. Last week Mrs. Gisele

Evans, their teacher, brought the class to Thornlea change. Generally the Thornlea students come to our school every week to give classes in theatre teacher Howard Reynolds' special course. The course is for students who wish to be "apprentice teachers" in theatre arts and English. Each week Thornlea students go around to various elementary schools by two fheatre arts students, Cindy Sneath and Linda Keegan. Interested in everything, they be-one of their favorite activities."

gan their guided tour of the school.

to the plants that grow in our "jungle".

We thought it would be fun to come here for a

This is another aspect of Thornlea theatre arts

"The kids really love it," said Mrs. Evans. "It's

The group was met at the entrance to Thornlea

"Hey look at that!" said one of them, pointing

"Is this anything like the jungle at your

The students in the halls showed as much inter-

After the jungle the next stop was the music

Piling out into the hall we continued our rather

It seemed that most of them were especially "The kids really enjoy this. A lot of them are Moving on, the art room was next and then the kids, under the care of Linda and Cindy headed for the theatre arts room. The girls thought the kids was explained to the visitors by Ed Fitchett, a est in the visitors as the visitors showed in them.

"Did you see him?" was a question asked by both

"I feel so punky here." "All these big guys look-

(Photo by Wayne Goldstein)

7th Thornhill Cubs Honored

At the recent father and son banquet 10 boys of the 7th Thornhill group were awarded plaques for completing the work toward all five stars in Cubbing.

Back row (left to right) are: Scout Howard Wirth, District Commissioner Ken Collins (who presented the awards), Scout David Greer and Scout Tom Lomax. Front row: Cubs Bob Houghton, Michael Shukster, Jim Houghton, Donald Mulholland and Kenneth Eaton (Absent were Scouts Garth and Gordon Thompson).

Mrs. Nellie Abas and the Ladies' Auxiliary arranged a chicken dinner for three Cub packs, two Scout troops, a Venturer company, all the fathers plus a few uncles and grandfathers.

icultural Society held a tour it really didn't matter what the fathers plus a few uncles and grandfathers.

The Bank of Montreal has outlay.

The Bank of Montreal has outlay. field. It opened for business make the most of limited space, illustrations . . . a very practical and how to distinguish true book for any home owner with The modern, new B of M fea- from false bargains. Also inclu- a yen to expand main features are: a safari zoo tures convenient banking hours ded, for auction and antique orating - by Dorothy Draper which you go over in an aerial for shoppers. It is open from buffs, are cautionary tips for orating - by Dorothy Draper. car, an ordinary zoo, a chil- 10:00 am to 8:00 pm on Friday, the unwary. There are black This new illustrated edition by a dren's zoo, an underground zoo and from 10:00 to 3:00 pm Mon- and white illustrations and distinguished interior decorator many practical diagrams. contains short, chatty sug-

Design, has put together a very

How To Do Your Own Paint- gestions for brightening up nocturnal animals, an vides a complete range of bank- ing And Wallpapering - by every corner of your home. To-Jackson Hand. For spring gether with an idea for every flying loose. Since their food ped with tellers' wickets, privis there and the climate is right. ate coupon booths for safety dewants to do his own repairs and special occasions, a practica decorating. This book contains question and answer section. complete details for painting and a useful index. your home with many illustra- The Book Of Home Decora> tions, showing the preparation ting Ideas — by Charleton Var-Romfield B of M is John Flett. needed before starting to paint, ney. Essentially an idea book as well as the proper tools re- with tips on how to improve quired. There is an excellent your life style through every-Barbershoppers chapter on refinishing hard-thing from a "banana-split" decwood floors with illustrations orating scheme (yes ... it means | showing the equipment needed just that ... sundae colors) to 8 and how to use it. For those who bedrooms complete with a motprefer wallpapering to painting if of zebra sheets, Mr. Varney the chapter on wallpapering is has decorated the homes of The Thornhill Barbershoppers for you ... it's a combination numerous celebrities and are presenting a program of how to, where-to, and what-to-believes that good decorating barbershop singing and piano do section with illustrations combines the best of yesterday music at Seneca College Audi-showing different papers to with the best of today, and > quartets and choruses will be How To Make Your Own Rec- many different styles. The book reation And Hobby Rooms — by is illustrated with numerous The SPEBSQSA is devoted to Ralph Treves. Do you want to black and white drawings. producing beautiful harmonious live in a larger house without not a book however for the budsound, and its chapters have buying one? This book reveals get minded. chosen to support the Institute where the extra space is in your Dream or do with help of one

Ring Funeral Home

BYRON E. RING 7783 YONGE ST. THORNHILL

889-7783

FAIRLAWN JUNIOR

8403 Yonge Street, Thornhill

NURSERY SCHOOL

Servicing Richmond Hill and Thornhill Area Fully Licensed - Open All Year Creative Art, Free Play, Music, French Transportation - Staff Driven Vehicles Assistance with your fee can be arranged if necessary

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CALL

Bank of Montreal

The First Canadian Bank

Opening Monday, March 27th is your branch of the Bank of Montreal at 8218 Bayview Ave., right here in Thornhill. Now you've got a good bank close to where you live. A bank that offers you a complete range of financial services, including everything from personal loans and mortgages to deposits. And notice that this bank will be open on Friday nights till 8, so now you can do your banking when you're doing your shopping. And that's convenient! (So is the parking). Manager John Flett and his courteous staff look forward to serving you by offering you efficient, helpful banking. They want to get to know you. They want you to get your money's worth.

Banking Hours Monday to Thursday 10 to 3 Friday 10 to 8

We're launching a new branch in Thornhill!

work. Improvisations, exercises, all the "regular theatre arts stuff", but this time the students weren't even enrolled in the school. Oh well, see you next year St. Anthony's, in theatre arts class.