HOUSES SHAKEN

Two 45 gallon drums of naptha were in the enclosure. Residents over a wide area reported houses shaken. The fire chief said nobody was hurt and the only loss was the drum of volatile naptha. clw40

The next Thornhill alarm came March 14 at 11:28 am to the Weybrough residence at 29 Vaillonclife Road where Mrs. Weybrough reported a fire in her clothes drier. Firemen found the electric motor of the drier burnt out. The only other damage was from smoke. clw40

The next Thornhill alarm came March 17 at 7:51 am at Gage Envelopes Limited on Steeplecase Road. A high pressure hose when used caused a surge in the sprinkler system and set off the alarm. clw40

GARAGE BLAZE
Later that day at 1:53 pm at Dishar-Farrand Limited, Lot 5 John Street, there was a fire in a contractor's service garage. The blaze was quickly contained and damage was estimated at $700 to contents of the garage and $150 to the building. Fire Chief Smith said. clw40

CHILD HAD MATCHES
Fire Chief Smith said Lisa Starr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Starr, 18 Cypress Point Court, somehow managed to get hold of some matches and start the fire. Her twin brother Michael was credited with saving her from more serious injury as he ran for help and the flames were smothered quickly. clw40

Careless smoking in a bedroom was blamed for a fire that started in a bed and heavily damaged a home March 19 at 7:37 am in Thornhill. Nobody was hurt. Damage to the Mugford residence. clw40

Blaze In Stolen Car At Concord
A $200 blaze in a Maple car on Highway 400, a $50 fire in a stolen car near Dufferin Street in Concord and a $500 basement fire in a Highway 50 office building. These were the most serious alarms for Vaughan Town Firefighters in recent days. This week Vaughan Firefighters started a 40-hour course in driver orientation at Seneca College. The volunteers will finish May 5 and the full times men finish April 7. clw40

MAPLE FAMILY RUNS
Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bjarnason of 2751 Teston Road, Maple were driving down Highway 400 at about 10 p.m. Sunday with their two children when their car caught fire. Tight brakes were blamed for starting a tire on fire and the flames spread to the car. clw40

Rams Losers By 4-3 To Markham Facing Elimination In Playoffs
By FRED SIMPSON
The Richmond Hill Rams give it their best shot but it just wasn't quite good enough as they dropped a 4-3 thriller Tuesday night to the Markham Waxers. It was the Rams' third loss in the Metro Junior "B" best-of-seven finals and left them with elimination staring them in the face. They won their only game 7-4 Monday night in Markham. clw40

Blazing Nightgown Burns Thornhill Child

Wayne Carson, 13, was trapped in an elevator jammed between floors for over an hour in an apartment building at 7471 Yonge Street. Firefighters were called at 4:57 pm on Saturday of last week and brought the boy out through the elevator's emergency door. An elevator cable had jumped off a pulley. clw40

Trees being burnt close to houses at Baythorn Drive and Yonge Street caused a false alarm at 11:37 am Tuesday. A garbage chute fire in an apartment building brought Markham Firefighters back out to the apartment building at 7471 Yonge Street at 2:04 pm Tuesday. There was no fire damage and smoke was confined mainly to the basement area. clw40

A snowmobile crash fire and an emergency caused by gasoline in the Mill Pond Court sewers were the most serious alarms last week for the Richmond Hill Fire Department. Aubrey Thornhill of Thornhill Haulage, Bayview Avenue South at about 8 pm on Wednesday of last week was riding his snowmobile across a field southeast of Bayview Avenue and Markham Road. Without knowing he roared over a bank into a roadway ploughed across the field, hitting the opposite bank and rolling his machine over. clw40

The snowmobile caught fire and burned but Thornhill didn't have anything worse than a few scratches. Damage was estimated at $900 and the machine was insured. clw40
