Young Thornhill Gymnasts Strut Their Stuff

A new song, written by two teachers, was the closing feature of the Henderson Avenue Public School physical education annual spring display March 9. The music was written by Ken Butler and the lyrics by Mrs. Janet Wilson. Mrs. Wilson co-ordinated the evening's program and was assisted by Mr. Butler and Mr. Carmen Foti.

The youngsters from grade 1 and grade 3 presented a display of folk dancing, the boys showed their prowess in tumbling and vaulting and the girls presented a display of rhythmic of the Scandinavian type with scarves and balls, under the direction of Mrs. Marily Etchells, as well as balance beam work and tumbling.

Oak Ridges Midget, Bantam Teams Offensive. Weapons, Marijuana, Arson, Hit-And-Run YRP Arrests

Oak Ridges had something to shout about over the weekend as their midget and bantam teams came home with two tournament championships.

The midgets won four out of four in the Hespeler Tournament "C" division with the final being a 4-1 triumph over Maple Saturday.

It was much the same heady wine of triumph for the Bantams who won the Little NHL "B" Division at Cobourg Saturday with a final game 4-1 win over Penetang.

The win in this division qualified them to meet Midland in the AA Division. They were defeated 4-3 in overtime.

Midget action saw Oak Ridges open their Hespeler Tournament with a 5-2 win Tuesday against St. George.

Terry Legge and Bill Guinane led the scoring with two goals with the others going to Paul Madaleno. Assists went to Albert Shaw two; Guinane, and Brent Orser.

Legge was the hero again scoring both goals as Oak Ridges edged Hagersville 2-1 in an exciting contest.

Assists went to Paul Madaleno and Steve Ground.

Oak Ridges kept on rolling in Friday's game as they defeated West Rouge 3-1 with Legge knocking home two goals with the other going to Bill Guinane. Assists went to Mike Judge and Paul Madaleno.

Saturday's final game saw Oak Ridges downing Maple 4-1 in the championship game.

Everyone got into the scoring act in this big one with goals going to Bill Guinane, Brent Orser, Steve Ground, and Mike Judge.

Madaleno got two assists with singles going to Ground and Legge.

Ken Summers and Terry Haviland both played well in the Oak Ridges nets.

The four-day tournament involved 36 teams divided into Juvenile and Midget divisions according to population.

The Little NHL action saw the Ridges boys make a strong but futile bid for the Grand Little NHL championship against Midland only to lose 4-3.

Both teams were tied at 3-3 at the end of regulation time with Midland scoring in about three minutes of the first 10 minute sudden death overtime on a fluke shot.

The puck was shot out from behind the Oak Ridges net and bounced in off a Midland player's skate.

Single goals were scored by Billy Metcalfe, John Lenneville, Al Heintzman, and the same players also drew assists.

Oak Ridges got into the grand championships game by downing Bancroft 5-4 and then Penetang 4-1.

The Bancroft game saw John Lenneville score four of the five goals with Al Heintzman getting the other one.

Assists went to Dale Roffey, Paul Smith, Gary Gee, two; and Heintzman.

Then came two goals by Lenneville against Penetang with the others going to Paul Smith and Al Heintzman.

Assists went to Tim Watt, Dale Roffey, and Al Heintzman.

Other action saw Oak Ridges "C" Peewees drop a 4-2 game to Richmond Hill.

Scoring for Oak Ridges was Steve Michalsky and Randy Kotoff, Mike Cruze assisted.

Oak Ridges H. Brown Fencing Novice "B's" downed King City All-Stars 6-2.

Goals were by John Cummings, two; Charles Trask, two; and singles by John Vanderploug, and Mike Dalton. Assists to Allen Bestard, two; Mike Dalton, Gary Burns, Charles Trask, Tim Parker, and John Cummings.

OMHA Play Bond Steelers 3rd Game Championships Tonight

Bond Steel Minor Midgets are the only Richmond Hill OMHA representative team still alive in this year's competitions and are now engaged in the provincial championship round with the powerful minor midgets from Chinguacousy. This is a best three-out-of-five series and the Steelers are off to a bad start, having lost the first two contests.

Chinguacousy 5, Richmond Hill 2

In the first game of the championship series played March 25 trailed 5-2.

Scoring for the Hill were Tom Lamb and Kevin McKeage with assists coming from Jim Graham and Rick Sackfield.

Chinguacousy 8, Richmond Hill 4

In the second game played Sunday in the local ice box, the Steelers improved their marksmanship but still lost to the tune of 6-4.

Lamb accounted for two of his team's counters and Sackfield and Graham one each. Active in the assist department were Graham and Clement with three each, McKeage, Kevin Brillinger and Rob McDonald with one each.

Fan support was very disappointing at this match — perhaps it was because of surfeited hockey appetites at the close of the week-long midget tournament. But the Steelers deserve better support than this — they are Richmond Hill's winningest team this year.

You will have the opportunity to show you appreciate their efforts tonight (Thursday) at the local arena. Game time is 8 p.m.

The fourth game is scheduled for Chinguacousy the following Monday and the fifth and final game will be played here April 9.

OAK RIDGES MIDGETS BRING HESPELER MIDGET CHAMPIONSHIP HOME

Oak Ridges Midgets coached by Danny Madaleno and managed by Ken Summers and Trained by Neil Roberts won the hearts of the fans in Hespeler as well as at home this past week by winning over St. George, Hagersville, West Rouge and Maple while playing in the Hespeler Midget week long Tournament. Six other teams participated in the C Division of the Hespeler 36 Team Tournament.

Their first game against St. George wound up 5-2 in favour of Oak Ridges. Opening the scoring for Oak Ridges was Bill Guinane with assist going to Albert Shaw. Second goal by Terry Legge unassisted. Guinane tallied the third goal for Oak Ridges assisted by Brent Orser and Albert Shaw, with Terry Legge getting the fourth marker with Bill Guinane assisting and Paul Madaleno rounding out the scoring unassisted.

In the second game Oak Ridges faced off with Hagersville and at the end of three periods the score was 1 all, with the game being made a goal tender's dual as they both refused to let the rubber get by them. However, in the overtime period Oak Ridges' Terry Legge managed to thread the old needle and sink one past the Hagersville goalie. For Terry it was his second goal of the night, assisting on both Legge's goals were Steve Ground and Paul Madaleno. Manager Summers said that this seemed to be the turning point for the team and there was just no stopping them from there on.

When they met West Rouge from Toronto in the next game the whole team put forth a brilliant effort and came out with a 3-1 win. Goals going to Terry Legge (2) and the first one assisted by Mike Judge and Paul Madaleno, and the second one unassisted. Bill Guinane tapping away the insurance goal late in the third period unassisted.

This win entitled the Oak Ridges team to play for the Grand Championship against Maple on the Saturday and for Oak Ridges it was another splendid effort and at the end of the third period the score was 4-1 in Oak Ridges favour. Goal getters for the squad in the fourth and deciding game were Bill Guinane assisted by Paul Madaleno, Brent Orser assisted by Paul Madaleno, Steve Ground assisted by Terry Legge and Mike Judge assisted by Steve Ground.

Sharing goal tending duties throughout the Tournament were Kenny Summers and Terry Haviland and they were just outstanding, even when the team did have a lull, refused to let the score go against Oak Ridges.

At the end of the game the Trophy was presented on the ice to the Captain, Brent Orser, by the Hespeler Tournament Committee Chairman, Bert Jobe, with thanks to all the boys for a job well done.

After the team had their victory celebration in the dressing room, we spoke to Coach Madaleno and Manager Summers and asked them what their feeling was on bringing home the trophy to Oak Ridges in the Richmond Hill area. For both Coach Madaleno and Manager Summers it was one of the highlights of the season and they both had nothing but praise for the way the Hespeler Tournament was operated. Manager Summers said and I quote "That it surely let the other areas know where North York Minor Hockey stands when two teams from the North York Minor Hockey Association faces off in the final game for the Grand Championship."

Coach Madaleno, whose squad entered the Tournament without the services of Dave Stuart, out with a broken ankle, and James Roffey, out after a cartilage operation, had entered the Tournament with a definite handicap and was asked what seemed to give his team the fire to come on so strong in the Hespeler Tournament. He felt that the whole team was inspired to go out and prove themselves after being refused entry in the Richmond Hill Tournament and were just not going to be denied the opportunity to show they were quite capable of competing in any hockey game and he had nothing but praise for every player on the team and rightfully so boasted the fact that no player at any time during the Tournament gave up for one minute. He hopes now that when they face Maple once again for the North York Championship the team will come through with the same splendid effort. By press time the results of the first game will be known as it will be played on Tuesday. The next game will be Sunday evening with game time at 8:30.

For the Oak Ridges Midget squad it has been a very successful hockey season, with the team winding up first in the North York standings losing only two games in regular season play.

Coach Madaleno was chosen to lead the All Star North York Midget Team against the Georgian Bay All Star Midget Team at Christmas and bringing home another win to his tally, with three of our own Midgets being chosen to take part in the All Star game. Then in an exhibition game that was slated right after the All Star Game against a Junior D Club, coming home once again the winners.

To the Oak Ridges Midgets congratulations and the best of luck in your North York finals against Maple.
