UCW Learns How To Use The Bible
The World's Best Selling Book Rev. Gordon Hunter spoke on "How To Use The World's Best Seller—the Holy Bible" at the spring rally of York Presbyterian UCW recently. York Pines United Church, Kettleby, was host to around 150 women.
 The guest speaker is working in an undenominational capacity under a fellowship known as "Faith At Work" and is recognized as an outstanding authority on the Bible and methods of Bible study.
 Mrs. Arnold Gardhouse of Sharon presided.
 William Bird of the United Church Book Room brought the group up to date on reading resource information and had a book display including the "Indian Pack" which is the study book for the coming year. Mrs.
 Norman Gibson of King City led a singsong with Mrs. Stewart Rumble of Headford at the organ. This included the "Banner Song".
 In the name of our God we will set up our banners That all men may see them and all men may know —We set up our banners for God.
 Banner Day will be September 26 in Richmond Hill United when it is hoped that each church in the presbytery will have a banner to display. This will be hung in their own church later. There are 44 churches in the presbytery.
 Rev. Mr. Hunter spoke with humor and enthusiasm on his subject. He referred to the

COMMUNE BREAKS UP
Fire Destroys House
Smith Says It's Arson Arson by persons unknown is blamed for a Friday morning of last week fire that destroyed an old farmhouse described as a commune on Woodbine Avenue (Don Mills) north of 17th Avenue in Markham Town.
 Fire Chief Myrl Smith said firefighters were called to the property on two occasions the previous Tuesday to extinguish fires. Firefighters suspected the fires were apparently set as the commune was breaking up and the members moving out.
 York Region Police were called to investigate after firefighters believed kerosene had been thrown around the barn to start the second Tuesday blaze.
 The first fire on Tuesday was in a chesterfield in the house. The Fire Marshal's office investigated Friday after the house fire but nobody was in the house and nobody had been charged at press time.
 Fire Chief Smith said no value is placed on the building or the old furniture it contained. There was no insurance.
 The property is owned by Murray Acreman of Unionville and was rented to a Mrs. Norman Fisher, Smith said.
 Markham Firefighters announced the Friday alarm at 9:20 a.m.

MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND IS Established By Langstaff Family
 A Bob Reaman Memorial Scholarship Fund will be set up as an annual award in the York County Board of Education.
 Board members accepted the proposed award and authorized the principle of Langstaff Secondary and other board personnel to finalize the arrangements.
 A letter was read at the annual board meeting on Monday night of this week on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reaman explaining the terms of the award.
 The late Bob Reaman "was an outstanding student at Lang-staff Secondary School and graduated in 1968 with an overall percentage of over 90 percent. He was killed in an unfortunate accident very early in the year."
 Mr. and Mrs. Reaman wish to perpetuate their son's memory in the form of a scholarship fund from which an annual award would be given to a worthy recipient in the sum of $50.
 Reaman was killed in a motor car accident January 14 while on his way home for a weekend from Laurentian University in Sudbury.

No New Schools In BAIF Subdivision: Province

BY FRED SIMPSON
 Signs of uneasiness were in evidence among members of the York County Board of Education trustees Monday night over recent refusals by the province to approve additional elementary and secondary school facilities in the BAIF subdivision in Richmond Hill.
 A staff report to the board noted that a request for a building proposal approval for a 320 pupil place addition to Ross Doan Elementary School was submitted to the Ministry of Education in May of 1971.

In December of 1971 a request for a 1,000 student secondary school in the subdivision was submitted.
 Both were rejected.
 The report, in regard to the elementary school, says the province stated recently "it had been decided to withhold approval of this school building proposal until further development in the BAIF subdivision takes place." Reason given was that the progress of house construction and its possible effect on future enrolments could-not be definitely determined before the end of 1972.
 A number of factors were given for rejection of a secondary school on the site.
 These included:

"The present enrolment compared with the accommodation available in the secondary schools within a reasonable distance of the site of the proposed new school."
 "The opening of the new Aurora High School in September of this year and the addition to Thornlea Secondary School later in the year."
 "The progress of house construction in the BAIF subdivision and its possible effect in future enrolments."
 * * *

It pointed out that the new Aurora High School, built to accommodate about 1200 students, will likely have an initial enrolment of approximately 470 secondary students.
 This caused the upset among some trustees who didn't like the idea of the possibility of transferring secondary school students from the Richmond Hill area to Aurora.
 Trustee Deena Simpson of Richmond Hill said she was mainly concerned that students already living in the Hill would be forced to attend high school in Aurora.
 "It can be expected that incoming students after the BAIF development has been created might have to be transported to Aurora but I feel the students already in the area have a right to be educated in their own areas." Still other trustees could-not see that taking students 10 miles to Aurora would present that much of a problem.

 Another area of major concern is the fact that the province is cracking down on the construction of new schools in Ontario due to a projected drop in school population.
 The staff report said that "it is recognized that the ministry is very concerned about utilization of facilities, particularly since the rapid increase in pupil population characteristic of the sixties no longer holds."
 "But it can be argued that while this board may have inherited certain examples of overplanning, it has been quite conservative in initiating projects since January of 1969. It could be contended that this board has more ready access to date than the ministry. However, it is clear that the ministry holds the top cards in any conflict."
 The report suggested several alternatives to be con-
 These included accommodating elementary school students in space presently available at Ross Doan and Roselawn Public School and, as the need arises, utilizing accommodation at C. Howitt and J. A. Gibson. Then reactivate the elementary school addition project when students for the addition are clearly in view.

 It also suggests adjusting secondary attendance areas so that "some students presently attending secondary schools in Richmond Hill and Markham would be transported to schools with available student places.
 It was this latter alternative that concerned Mrs. Simpson who felt the board should look into the whole impact of such a move as it not only concerned the BAIF proposal "but the whole school area."
 Trustees were also concerned that new residents moving into BAIF would realize that no schools would be available in the school areas marked out.
 It was suggested that perhaps the board should erect signs stating that the site for a new school wouldn't be built on in the near future.
 Someone else thought this might upset the developers in the BAIF subdivision.
 It was finally decided to study the alternative methods in an attempt to come up with some answers for Further action.

 Latest plans for the BAIF subdivision indicate a completion of 120 dwelling units by December of this year; an additional 120 units by June of 1973; and a further
