Joe's Garage Gets Back Into Win Column 12-0

The powerful Joe's Garage boys demonstrated July 10 to Elgin Auto Service and to the crowd on hand that the picnic was over. After a rather dismal showing for a club of their stature the week before, they demolished a pitiful Elgin gathering. For the league leaders it was 12 runs on 12 hits and one error. Elgin managed no hits, no runs and nine (count 'em) errors.

Girl's Bantam Tourney Is Rained Out Will Continue Play On Sunday July 30

The weatherman wasn't very co-operative last weekend as heavy rain made Bradstock Park completely unplayable and forced postponement of the first annual Richmond Hill Bantam Girls' Tournament at about its halfway point. Because the town park was all mud, the tournament was moved to Bradstock and only the hard work of Alf Fry and his associates kept the diamonds there playable until the rains really came.

The tournament was an eight-team affair with winners of the first series going into the "A" Division and losers going into the "B".

In the opening round, Scarboro defeated the Richmond Hill Bantams 17-5, Dorchester downed Smithville 13-1, Fort Erie beat Mississauga 17-7, and Richmond Hill "B" upset favored Bay Ridges 24-12. Debbie Howarth was the winning pitcher in this game with home runs going to Cheryl Paxton, Arnita Dimonte and Leslie McCleave.
