Neighborhood Notes
The Richard Pralets have returned home from a visit to family and friends in Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stots returned last weekend from a three week vacation to the west coast, with visits to the Calgary Sampedo, Banff and Lake Louise, Vancouver and Victoria, and back by a route south of the border through Yellow Stone National Park. A wonderful trip.

The Stots returned Saturday to find that neighbors to the north and south had sold those properties — the Eskesens and the Ernie Walton's former home.

Jack and Marion Stephenson and their three sons of Unity, Saskatchewan, have been visiting with Marion's mother Mrs. Douglas Hood and Isobel, and with Don and Dorothy Reesor and their family.

Congratulations to Clifford Cox who has been promoted to the rank of sergeant of detectives with the York Regional Police. Cliff was a former detective with the Markham Township force.

Friends have been happy to see Mrs. Jean Cook in the neighborhood. She has been a guest of the Sherman Families recently.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edgar McAllister of British Columbia have been guests of Jack and Mary Rodick prior to their return home next week.

Another guest is Mrs. Jean Mitchell of Edmonton who is recuperating from an accident near Bolton in early June.

Mrs. Sidney English has been holidaying with relatives near Clearwater.

Mrs. Fred Leaf and Lynda visited friends near Arthur last weekend and attended a performance of King Lear at Stratford.

Buttonville WI members took a bus trip to Granvenerhurst on Wednesday of last week for a cruise on Lake Muskoka.

They returned in late afternoon and dined at a Barrie restaurant, to complete a delightful day.

Hostesses responsible were Mrs. Alvin Robinson and Mrs. Joe Robinson.

Guests at the Leaf Home Thursday of last week were Rev. Roscoe Chapin of Unionville with his daughter Joan, Mrs. Quast and daughters Lora, Cheryl and Leslie of Terrace, B.C.

Rev. Allen Hallett performed a wedding at the Church on July 26, when Maureen Booth became the bride of Michael Ross Irvine.

Mrs. Gertie Wilson of Collingwood has been visiting here with Miss Mabel Sanderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamilton and Vincent Willis took Kevin Nichols to his home in Knoxville, Penn. following his recent stay here with his grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Ronald Gee and family in the passing of a loving wife and mother, Mrs. Dianne Gee, following a lengthy illness. She is survived by her husband, daughter Sandra, son Paul, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Barkey and two brothers, Donald and David.

AURORA: At a special meeting with council Ontario Humane Society General Manager Tom Hughes predicted that a child will die from rabies in the Region of York this year.
