Coaches This Week Must Report Player Grades

All players must be graded as to playing ability this week. Coaches submit their A, B, or C grading of players to the following division managers: Squirt Girls - Bonnie Spierans, Pee wee Girls - Fern Bennett, Bantam Girls - Julie Booker, Squirt "B" - John Zubick, Squirt "A" - Bruce Turner, Pee wee - Stan Levine, Bantam - Stan Rowe.

If your division manager is on vacation, turn the grading lists in to Marg Houghton with this week's score sheet. The league must have these ratings to attempt to balance next season's teams.

Shopper's Drug Mart 7

Judy McLean's and Mary Danis' Thornhill Pet Shop seem to have broken their losing streak and moved back into sole possession of first place. With six games still to be played until the end of the season, it's still anyone's division.

At the top of the third inning the score was 7-0, but a 1-2-3 out in the fourth for Pat Tuck's Shopper's and the game belonged to the Pet Shop. Kathy Keffler pitched for the winners. LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. GEOFFREY COOK
84 Garden Avenue, Phone 889-4553

Mrs. Bernice Lever of Denham Drive, head of Richvale Writer's Club, has returned home after a short stay in York Central Hospital. She wants to express her appreciation to Drs. Kirby and Bate. The nurses on the second floor were always cheerful and helpful and did everything within the doctor's instructions to make the patient as comfortable as possible. Cheerful nursing care is so important to the well-being of the patient, she says.

We just returned from a week on an island in the French River, away from the traffic and noises and the sneezing polens of Southern Ontario. The weather was beautiful, the water peaceful, and only the biting flies and mosquitoes brought us down to earth. On the way back along Highway 69 we stopped at a trading centre and reptile house. The children went in to see the alligators and snakes while we looked at the Japanese Indian trinkets and the real Indian leather items.

It was nice to get back to our cat who had been looked after by our dear neighbors, Arthur and Marion McGeachie.

I, and the other readers, would like to hear of your vacation doing at home or away. Please call me at 889-4553.

Heritage Carpet 12

W. A. Stephenson 3

Tom Tuck and Paul Allison's Heritage downed Bill Bogle and Cliff Chinnery's W. A. Stephenson 12-3. Winning this double header put them in first place.

Keith Boss and Robert Newton combined to strike-out 16. Ken Fontaine, playing fantastic ball, made catch after catch and tied the game with his homer with bases loaded.
