Counsellors of the summer playground at Sixteenth Avenue Public Thursday of last week held their parents' morning. Miss Carol Trotman introduced Allan White of the Richmond Hill parks and recreation staff to the mothers. Allan White informed them of the success of this program and barring any obstacles, there would definitely be a full day summer program for all the children of this area next year. This is very good news for this community.

Miss Carol Trotman then thanked the counsellors Miss Ann Legge and Miss Susan Ball for their hard work with the children.

The mothers were entertained by the children singing the following songs — Good Morning, Ten Little Ducks, Bringing Home a Baby Bumble Bee, Jack In The Box, Hoky Poky, and Five Little Chickadees — the

Elderly Man Succumbs

While At Steam Bath

An 81-year-old Toronto man collapsed while having a steam bath in Lake Wilcox last week and was dead when the ambulance arrived, according to a report from York Region Police.

York Region Police, who have still not been able to locate the deceased's next of kin, said the man suffered a heart attack while in the North Road baths.

chickadees being Susie and Teresa Muus, Jennie Logush, Loretta Lazar and Kim Prebble. They also went on a Lion Hunt.

EATING CONTEST
The licorice eating contest was won by Michael Ohlis, Morris Lazar, Benny Muus and Jimmy Logush.

While enjoying the refreshments the mothers examined the display of crafts their children made while attending the summer playground. The work was very well done.

After the inside activities they all went out to the playground and the mothers participated vigorously in the planned sports program. After the competitions Mrs. Ted Muus was crowned queen of the day.

During the five weeks the children enjoyed scouting around the school grounds gathering material for their many projects. They went on a trip to the fire hall last week. Mrs. Ann Ohlis, Mrs. Donna Stevenson and Mrs. Ruby Prebble provided the transportation.

YRP Constable Doug Young visited them to explain the safety rules to them.

The playground ended with a costume party Friday of last week.

Belated birthday greetings to Jackie Peace of Duncan Road who celebrated her birthday on Saturday. Birthday greetings to Sandra MacDonald of Duncan Road who celebrates her birthday Friday and Laurianne Tustin of Sixteenth Avenue who celebrates her birthday Sunday.

Neighborhood Notes
Cool days and heavy rains remind that autumn is in the offing — Exhibition starts next week — school opening is less than four weeks away (did I hear a mild hurrah?) — but meanwhile gardens are flourishing, summer is to enjoy.
By the way, if you are missing the name and telephone number at the head of this column, for phoning in information, please call Jean Leaf, 294-5290. I'll be glad to hear from you.

Romance is in the air. Congratulations to Linda Jones whose parents have announced her engagement to Edward Robert Hartwick of Keswick. Gregg Hood is also eligible for marriage congratulations.
The Jack Goughs have been spending considerable time with Rae and Mary Grant at Lake

St. Nora and with the Ted Goughs at Twelve Mile Lake. On Saturday of last week they attended the regatta which was held from Ted and Ellen's place.
Rev. Bradley Cruyton was guest speaker at Brown's Corner United on Sunday and Jack Gough was soloist with Mrs. Don Reesor organist.
Ken and Lois Bennett have been building resort cabins at their summer property near Dorset this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ford spent some time at Foxboro last week visiting their son David and his family there.

Arrest For Molesting

Allege Assault On Girl

A molester of young women allegedly struck again last week in Richmond Hill, but this time York Region Police made an arrest. There have been several such incidents in the town during recent weeks.

Steven Huntley, 19, of 181 Ruggles Avenue, Richmond Hill was arrested Wednesday evening of last week at the local police station after an investigation into a Monday night complaint, YRP said.

Two 14-year-old Richmond Hill girls told police they were walking at 4:45 pm along a secluded pathway between Yonge Street and Newkirk Road in an area behind several drive-in take-out restaurants. As they crossed the railroad tracks, one was grabbed by a young male. She said she was pushed into some bushes and indecently assaulted. The other girl yelled someone was coming and the man fled, police said.

Swidersky - Stephenson

Beautiful Summer Wedding

At St. John's Anglican Church

Orange gladioli and white snapdragons decorated St. John's Anglican Church for the August 5 wedding of Valerie Linda Stephenson and Boris George Swidersky. Rev. Earl C. Gerber officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Stephenson of Bathurst Street. The groom comes from Alliston.

For her wedding the bride chose a long gown of white polyester satin, trimmed with lace and fashioned with a chapel train. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, blue cornflowers and baby's breath.

Attending the bride were her friend, Mrs. Carolyn Gondor, as matron of honor and her sisters, Audrey and Rosalie Stephenson, as bridesmaids. Bestman was Lyall Johnson of Alliston and ushers were the groom's brother Len Swidersky of Alliston and Norman Rybak of Toronto.

The matron of honor wore a yellow gown and the bridesmaids pale green gowns and white hats with a matching velvet trim. Their gowns were fashioned with a square neckline trimmed with white daisies and they carried pink chrysanthemums and baby's breath.

Miss Eleanor Stephenson of Willowdale sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

The reception followed at the Summit View Gardens, with the bride's mother receiving in a peacock blue crepe dress and the groom's mother in a bright pink crimp knit long gown. Out of town guests came from North Bay, Cannington, Woodville, Alliston, Thornbury, Heathcote and Toronto.

The young couple are honeymooning in Powassan. On their return they will be living on Clearview Heights Drive in Toronto.

Church News
The service at St. John's Anglican Church Sunday will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 10:30 am.

Last Sunday there was a service of the Litany, with the lay readers officiating. Robert Sayers preached the sermon and Dorothy Wilton sang the solo, "I Asked The Lord".

St. John's Anglican Church young people's group will meet Friday evening at 7 pm for swimming and fellowship.

Community News
Nancy Browne and Dorothy Ann Tucker of Bathurst Street have just returned from a delightful two weeks at the Candee Turner Summer Dancing Camp at Karney.

Jack Fullman and his daughter Karen have recently returned from a week's holiday in the Haliburton Highlands. They stayed at Brae-Mar near Redstone Lake. While there Mr. Fullman and Karen swam, canoed and went sightseeing. Mr. Fullman's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John MacDonald, owners of the cottage, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John MacDonald and their son and daughter spent the week with the Fullmans.

Mrs. Beryl Riley, mother of Mrs. Robert Bowyer of Gamble Sideroad, recently returned from a month's holiday in England where she stayed in the Cotswolds with side trips to Scotland and to London.

Entertaining in honor of bride-elect Valerie Stephenson prior to her wedding on Saturday to Boris Swidersky were: fellow workers at the Department of Transportation and Communication at Downsview; Doreen Mitchell of Oak Ridges who held a family shower; Mrs. Gladys Rumble of Bathurst Street who hosted a shower attended by neighbors and friends; and the Women of St. John's Anglican Church who held a shower.
