Neighborhood Notes
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Sherman who celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary August 17. Their children entertained at a party at the Board of Trade club at Woodbridge for the occasion. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Couperthwaite and family, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Roberts and family, Misses Joyce Sherman of Montreal and Liz Sherman of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sherman of Thornhill, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cordina of Bolton and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sherman of Markham. The community extends best wishes.

A number of local friends attended a corn roast Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roadway, Mount Albert. They included Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Walton, Jack and Miss Mary Rodick, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Paterson, Mrs. Douglas Hood, Miss Rhea Scott and members of the Stonehouse family including Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leaf and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stonehouse.

Friends are sorry to learn of Elmore Hill's illness. Mr. Hill was in Scarborough Hospital for surgery two weeks ago and was making good progress until early last week, when a relapse occurred. We wish him a rapid recovery. During his illness the Hill's daughter Allie of South Porcupine has been staying with Mrs. Hill.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Steffler who celebrated 32 years of marriage last week. At present the Stefflers are immersed in moving their home base to Brussels in the Listowel area. They have been active members of this community for 25 years, particularly in Brown's Corners. Unless circles where Mr. Steffler has been a member of the Board of Session and Mrs. Steffler secretary of UCW. Both have served also in youth work and the senior choir. The community will miss them.

Mrs. Alfred Miller is in York Central Hospital this week for surgery. We wish her a rapid recovery.

Church Banner Completed
At a luncheon meeting of Brown's Corners UCW at the home of Mrs. Alfred Miller Wednesday of last week members watched the unveiling of a church banner. It was beautifully designed and worked by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Rae Allen during the summer months. The theme "Brotherhood" is exquisitely depicted on a background of deep blue velvet (representing sky and sea), with doves bearing olive branches to the chalice (the Lord's table) and the Bible.

The banner represents the long hours of exacting work. It will be on display at St. Mathew's United, Crosby Avenue, Richmond Hill on September 26 with banners from other churches in York Presbytery.

Mrs. Walter Craig chaired the meeting and guests included Mrs. Margaret Murphy and Mrs. Patricia Moss (the Patterson sisters) and their mother Mrs. Stan Patterson. The girls sang several numbers accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Stan English.

Mrs. Harold Steffler was presented with a crystal bowl as a farewell gift. Mrs. Steffler has been a member of the UCW executive for more than 20 years and the family is leaving the area. She has been an asset to the group and will be greatly missed.

Following the presentation Margaret and Patricia sang "Amazing Grace" with the last verse composed by Mrs. English for the Stefflers.

Mrs. Craig also received a gift presented by Mrs. English, a travel notebook for the European trip the Craigs will take in the near future. During business members were reminded of the annual smorgasbord put on by UCW and the church — the date, October 25. Tickets are $2.50, with children $1.00.
