Baker Squirts Win Guelph Consolation

The Richmond Hill Baker's Squirts missed out on the big one but came up with a consolation prize Saturday in the first annual Guelph Softball Tournament.

They downed Grimshy in the consolation finals 8-3 after losing their first game by 6-4 to Guelph and then defeating Kitchener 5-4.

That final game saw Ted Inch pitching a strong game allowing only three hits and striking out 11 Grimshy batters.

Dennis Kane and Matt Zurich had three hits each and both scored three runs apiece.

Dale Moreland, Jamie Tuck and Bruce Buchan also came up with two hits.

The opening game loss saw Guelph coming up with three runs in the seventh inning to win it.

Baker's left three men on base each time in the first four innings and couldn't come up with a clutch hit.

Dale Moreland, Jamie Tuck and Dennis Kane had two hits in this game.

The Hillers got off to a fast start in the second game scoring five runs in the first inning against Kitchener.

Kitchener came back with two runs in the third and two in the fourth and two in the fifth but some strong pitching by Inch held them at bay.

Saturday Bakers travel to Port Perry for a tournament and this will be the final games of this season.

were safe at first on errors. She ended the scoring as she came home on Henry's single.

Shakespeare scored one run in the sixth on a triple and a Richmond Hill error.

The Legion Ladies came right back in the seventh with a run as Williamson advanced to second on Fox's sacrifice bunt, stole third on a wild pitch and scored when Elliott walked and was put out trying to steal second.

Shakespeare scored its last two runs in the seventh when they got two hits and Richmond Hill committed two errors.

The Legion scored their final three runs in the ninth as Fyffe was safe on an error and scored on Olsen's triple. She scored on Williamson's bunt. Mary advanced to second and scored the final run on a triple by Mortonson.

Oshawa got their only two runs in the eighth on a Richmond Hill error and one single and a triple.

The Legion Ladies scored their final five runs in the ninth when Liz Fyffe and Olsen scored on a sacrifice bunt.

Richmond Hill scored its first run in the second when lead off batter Muriel Mortonson tripled and scored on Merrylynn Henry's sacrifice fly to left field.

They scored one more run in the second when lead off batter Merrylynn Henry and Judy Elliott singled to put runners on first and second and they advanced on Joanne Gallagher's sacrifice bunt.

They scored two runs in the fifth when Elliott singled and scored when Elliott's long fly ball was dropped by the outfielders and walking only one. Her teammates gave her fine support committing only one error.

The losing pitcher was Helen MacAlpine who was relieved in the seventh inning by Cathy Fertile. The two gave up a total of 16 hits, walked two, and had three strikeouts. They received shaky support from their team which committed eight errors behind them.

A look into the future.
As I mentioned recently, the trends of today are already pointing to the cars of the future. There isn't any reason to think that the small car and mini auto market segment will not continue to be the most hotly contested in the auto business.

East Gwillimbury In Playoffs Peewee Lions Finish Unbeaten In League

Richmond Hill Peewee Lions concluded their 18-game league schedule undefeated as they tied Oak Ridges 2-2 August 27 at Crosby Park.

Paul Philip struck out 15 Oak Ridges batters in the seven inning contest allowing only three hits. But he had to settle for a tie as the spunky Oak Ridges Nine came up with an excellent game.

The Lions took a 1-0 lead when Glen Moreland walked and eventually scored on Chris DeGeer's ground out. The Oak Ridges team bounced back in the fourth on a single and a homerun for a 2-1 lead.

The fifth inning saw Pete Tipold doubling and scoring on Moreland's single to tie the game at 2-2.

Richmond Hill closed out league play with 17 wins and a tie and now meet East Gwillimbury in a best two-out-of-three semi-finals.
