Church News

The September meeting of the UCW was held on Wednesday evening of last week in the Sunday school with Mrs. Harold Hill in charge.

Miss Edith Boyd took the worship service. A skit pertaining to the UCW was presented by Mrs. John McCague, Mrs. Reid Brumwell, Mrs. Fraser Gee, Mrs. Carl Walker and Mrs. Harold Hill.

Rev. Martin Jenkinson gave a very inspiring message on "Keys" which contained much food for thought.

There was no church service at Victoria Square on Sunday morning because of the anniversary at Headford.

However on Sunday at 11:30 am the regular church service will be conducted by the Rev. Martin Jenkinson.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Harry Bennett, including Frank of Unionville, Murray of Victoria Square and Margaret (Mrs. Ed Mashiner) of Mount Albert, and a number of grandchildren.

Mr. Bennett was in his 91st year and was predeceased by his wife Clara a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were former residents of the community and used to reside where Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heise now live.

Tree Hike Sunday Morning, Boyd Area

If you've ever wanted to know how forests come into being or what factors such as soil condition, affect the growth of trees, you'll have an excellent opportunity to learn about the subject this Sunday when Professor Kenneth Armon of the University of Toronto's Faculty of Forestry conducts a nature hike at the Boyd Conservation Area.

The Boyd Area is located two miles north of Woodbridge on Islington Avenue and is one of 15 areas administered for public recreation by the conservation authority.

The "All About Trees" hike gets underway at 10 am. Regular conducted nature hikes will also be held on Sunday at the following areas —

ALBION HILLS located on Highway 50 about five miles north of Bolton at 2 and 3:30 pm.

GREENWOOD located three miles north of Highway 2 on the Greenwood Road at 2 pm.

CLAREMONT located in Pickering Township, 1½ miles north of Highway 7 on Sideroad 10.

Court Impounds Car, Papers Of 2 U.S. Men On Trafficking Charge

Two United States youths facing drug trafficking charges in Richmond Hill Court were permitted to be at large on bail Thursday of last week without their car and identification papers.

Provincial Judge Maurice Charles said the two could get out of jail on $1,000 deposit of bail each, but ordered police to hold their draft cards, passports, social security cards, driver's licences or any other identification papers they could use to escape across the border.

Judge Charles remanded Donald Kail, 23, and Jeffery Houser, 20, both of Ohio, until September 28 to see if by that time they could have bail posted. Otherwise they will stay in jail and appear in court once every eight days until their preliminary hearing October 19.

If they get out on bail they must report twice a week to Metro Police 52 Division near the location where they claim to have friends. A lawyer appeared in court on their behalf immediately after their arrest the week before on charges of marijuana possession for trafficking purposes.

Judge Charles said drug trafficking was a very serious matter and measures must be taken to assure the two youths couldn't leave the country and escape the charges without penalty.

The federal prosecutor in attendance at court sought a bail hearing to show cause why the pair couldn't be allowed free on a simple promise to return for trial. A promise is usual for local residents.
