1972 Thornhill Minor Ball Champions

The summer of 1972 was a great season for the young ball players of Thornhill — boys and girls alike. The season's program came to a memorable end September 16 with a huge parade and presentation of awards. Pictured above are representatives of winning teams. (Left to right) are Cathy Addison representing Armstrong Hodge, squirt girls' champions; Carl Clutche, president, Thornhill

Minor Ball Association; Ross Henry, representing Gateway Mercury, peewee champions; John McClellan, manager of the south division; Bill Massey, coach of Saunders of Toronto; Linda Ewing of the Thornhill Pet Shop, winners of the peewee girls trophy; and Dan Allen, whose father is sponsor of the Saunderson of Toronto team which took the championship of the south squirt division.

Church News

The Anglican Church Women of Holy Trinity Church held their first meeting of the season September 18. It was arranged by the Harmony Group with Mrs. Linda Pattinson as convenor and was a pot luck supper and fun night. It was a great success. The bazaar of the ACW scheduled for October 28 is to be an Arctic Safari this year. This should prove very interesting. The regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Holy Trinity Church was held September 19. Vice-President Mrs. Cammell was in the chair (since the president has moved out of the district). A moment of silence was observed in memory of Mrs. Jean Harper. Devotions were read by Mrs. Helen Porter on the fourth chapter of Philippians. Mrs. Alan McKecknie took the offering. Rev. Terry Samuel, assistant minister, was introduced. Mrs. Porter reported a total of $315 in the supply fund. Mrs. Norman Dixon read the report of the Presbyterial meeting and the thankoffering meeting in October was discussed. Mrs. Tom McCaul served refreshments. Thornhill United Church held its fall frolic at the Swiss Chalet.

Church News

Special weekend meetings were held Friday Sept. 22 for young people and Sunday afternoon September 24 for adults at Emmanuel Anglican, to plan future activities for the church. The ACW will hold its regular monthly meeting at the church, October 3 at 8 pm sharp! Their own "Favourite Recipes" book will be completed and on sale at the annual Poinsettia Tea and Bazaar, November 18 at the church. They anticipate a bigger and better sale than ever. The popular white elephant table will again be featured with good "used" donations being most welcome. The men's club is busy organizing an Octoberfest Millionaires Night for October 27. There will be games of chance and draft beer served. Please contact Wayne Smith at 881-2520 for tickets. Ladies coffee house at Richvale Bible Chapel will be alternate Thursdays, starting October 5 from 10 - 11 am. Ladies in the neighborhood are cordially invited to join. Babysitting is provided. Lorraine Houghton, 884-2553, will arrange for transportation if needed.

School Bulletin

The first general meeting of the Roselawn Senior School Association will be held at the school, October 2, beginning at 8 pm. The meeting will be mainly a "meet the teachers" night and an opportunity to visit the classrooms. Chairman of the meeting will be President Al Evelyn. Other officers of the association for the coming school year are: Vice-President Mrs. Shirley White, Secretary Mrs. Anne Sellen and Treasurer Mrs. Catherine McAvan.

run one evening per week during the school year as an opportunity for students at Roselawn to make use of certain facilities. Activities in the past have included gymnastics, volleyball, basketball, cooking, sewing, copper enamelling, pottery, first aid, dancing, modern jazz, table tennis and others. The holding of this activity evening depends upon having a sufficient number of adults from the community to assist in the activities. Parents interested in helping in any way are invited to a meeting to be held in the resource centre at Roselawn, October 3 at 7:45 pm.

WHO NEEDS LIFE?

Life insurance is essential for a young man with a mortgage on his house and a family to support and educate. At this point, he needs to protect his family more than he needs to build savings. As he grows older, his family responsibilities tend to decrease, and his insurance needs change, too. Your CIAG representative can help meet changing insurance needs. Call:
