Neighborhood Notes
Autumn eucres begin Friday night at Buttonville WI hall. If you enjoy a good evening of cards with prizes and refreshments, its the only place I know of where you can spend as little as 50c for the pleasure.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Palmer who celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary by dining out on September 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Miller entertained at a dinner Saturday evening of last week at Czarda's for a party of 10. The occasion being their 48th wedding anniversary. Among the guests were members of the immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waterston.

Mrs. Miller's sister Mrs. Waterston was the flower girl at the wedding. It was hoped Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Tibbles of Scarborough, who were also members of the wedding party, could be present. Unfortunately Mrs. Tibbles became ill.

Members of Brown's Corners United Sunday attended Headford anniversary services to renew old acquaintances and hear the Teston Centennial Girls' Choir and pianist Roy Robson. Among those present were Jack Rodick, Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. Sidney English, Mrs. Della Spring, Mrs. Audrey Stephenson, Mrs. Mary Sherman and Mrs. Tim Paterson.

The Pairs and Spares Club of Brown's Corners United had a fun time Saturday night at the Harvey Brown farm when they held a corn roast in spite of rain.

The Halletts entertained teenagers in the neighborhood at a Sunday night corn roast and formed the nucleus of a young people's group for the church.

The hockey series in Russia occupied much time over the past few weeks and some local people went to Russia to attend the games there. Among them were Andy Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Jewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaj Eskesen have moved from their home on Woodbine Avenue south of Highway 7 and are now living at Tottenham. The community is sorry to lose them.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brown and Kathy had a trip to Cape Breton this summer and while down East they attended a family wedding at Halifax.

Last week Alan and Jean Brown and their family were guests for a brief stay.

Memorial Service
A memorial service for former minister Rev. Chris Dugan was held at Brown's Corners United Sunday morning.

Mr. Dugan died suddenly at Vancouver on Tuesday of last week.

The Rev. Chris, as he was affectionately known among his parishioners, came to the church as minister in 1970 when it became a one point charge. He introduced much that was innovative and gracious and his services were a joy to attend. When he left in 1970 to become senior minister at Strathmore United in Dorval, Quebec, he was sadly missed.

Rev. Allen Hallett paid tribute to Mr. Dugan. The processional hymn was one which he had requested many times during his ministry: "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven". And later the Junior choir led by Mrs. Marguerite Jones sang another of Mr. Dugan's favorite anthems: "No Man is an Island". Mrs. Don Reesor and Miss Sharon Buchanan assisted with the music.

A service for Rev. Chris was held Saturday at Montreal, with a committal for cremation. Burial will be at Aurora on a date to be announced.

James Dugan survives his son.

Church News
A communion service will be held at Brown's Corners United on Sunday and on October 15 an evening service will be held to aid the Bible Society. Afterwards there will be a fireside hour.

The UCW will hold an Autumn Thankoffering Service and luncheon at the church October 11 at 12:30 pm.

Craft Demonstration
WI members were treated to an excellent craft demonstration presented by Mrs. Alf Miller and Mrs. Reg Allen on Wednesday evening of last week.

These gifted women had all manner of ideas. Their theme was "Recycling". There were old bottles converted to attractive candle holders. A birdcage which had been abandoned was sprayed with gill paint and became a conversation piece which housed a bird on a twig, surrounded by flowers. Various sized cars, became gilded hurricane lamps and Louis XV chairs. The aristocratic looking black cats were coke bottles with styrofoam heads painted and finished with foam rubber. Bottle caps were covered with lush looking velvet to resemble grapes made into hot plates or wall decorations. The list was endless and most enjoyable.

Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson sang nostalgic songs, accompanied by Mrs. Joy Crawford at the piano. Hostesses were Mrs. Milton Sherman, Mrs. Adam Brown and Mrs. Stephenson.

Buttonville WI is famous for its catering at the hall and during business the group agreed to limit the number of guests to be served to 150.
