Mrs. Joan Broadhurst, a member of Richmond Hill YWCA Board of Directors, is appealing for donations of good used clothing for the resale shop at 25 Yonge Street South, and reminds members and the general public that this is a painless way of supporting the local Y, since profits from the sale can be used to expand existing and future services to the community. For information call 884-4811.

Residents of Richmond Hill east of Yonge Street to Bayview Avenue and from Elgin Mills Road to St. Joseph's Roman Catholic School are reminded of the newspaper recycling drive today (Thursday). Newspapers will be collected by the "Garbage Club" of Bayview Secondary School on the first Thursday of every month. Papers should be securely tied in bundles so they will not fall apart when picked up. Due to the tremendous amount of handling involved in this project, proper tying is absolutely essential.

ACW Treasurer Dorothy Hinks reports an overwhelming response to the annual rummage sale held Saturday at Wrixon Hall. Despite the inclement weather, the anticipated crowds turned out and sales exceeded those of any previous year due to the unstinting efforts of workers and contributors alike.

AMO, an ecumenical morning-out program designed for mothers and pre-schoolers, will have its next meeting October 11 from 9:30 to 11:15 am at Richmond Hill United Church. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Marion Howarth of the Association for Children With Learning Disabilities. The program for ladies is held on alternate Wednesdays, but supervised activities and facilities for children are provided every Wednesday from 9:30 to 11:15 am. Coffee and conversation is available for the mothers who wish to stay. For more information contact Mrs. Jackie Dedlow, 884-1309.

Lynn Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Randall, 374 Kerrybrook Drive, Richmond Hill, and Michael Foster, Elyria, Ohio, were married Thursday of last week at the Magistrates' Court, Richmond Hill. A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and their families was held at the Black Hawk Motor Inn. In the evening the parents of the bride entertained at a wine and cheese party in honor of the newly-weds. In addition to the parents of the groom, out-of-town guests included the groom's brother, Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fritzsche, all of Elyria. After a honeymoon trip to the East Coast, Mike and Lynn expect to live in Canada.

The Ladies Auxiliary, Branch 375 Royal Canadian Legion, held an executive meeting prior to the first general meeting of the committee September 25. Committee Chairman appointed were Addie Mills, catering; Greet Tonner, waitresses; Joan Harrison, dishwashers; Mary Dickson, tables; Gerry Chapman, contracts; Audrey Apperley, Sunnybrook visits; Ethel Good, public relations; Tilley Diceman, special projects and sports; Greet Tonner, grandchildren's party.

The first evening to be sponsored by the auxiliary in the fall season will be a euchre at Audrey Apperley's with proceeds for the grandchildren's party. Play starts at 8 pm.

Mr. and Mrs. Everard Kellam, RR 1, Nashville, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary with open house on October 14. They will receive their friends from 2 to 5 pm and again in the evening, from 7 pm on.

Mr. and Mrs. Derek Andrews, 277 Church Street South, are leaving Richmond Hill on October 12 for their new home in Halifax, N.S.

A lifetime resident of Richmond Hill, Mr. Andrews served with the RCAF during World War II. He was first manager of the first store to be opened by the Mac's Milk chain in Richmond Hill. He is now establishing his own chain of similar stores in Nova Scotia.

Two stores, under the name "Green Gables", are already in operation—one in Halifax and one in Sackville.

The Andrews, who will be moving on their 25th wedding anniversary, have five children. All are students, and three will not be accompanying their parents to the East Coast. Deborah is completing a social service course at Seneca College and plans to work at the new High Point residence for retarded children which is nearing completion on the new Markham General Hospital site.

Derek Junior is also at Seneca, taking a course in television and communications, and Christopher, a grade 12 graduate of Richmond Hill High School, intends to tour Europe for a year before deciding on a career. At present he is working with the Cherri musical group.

Peter, 12, and Cynthia, 10, students at McConaghy Public School, will continue their education in Halifax.

The CGIT of St. Matthew's United Church started the season last weekend with a trip to Camp Big Canoe. The group included 32 girls, five leaders and a bus driver. The time was occupied with canoeing, swimming, Sunday services, singing and a lot of talk.

Mrs. John McCarthy, 9737 Bathurst Street, has recently returned from a month-long vacation to the West Coast. She was the guest of friends in Vancouver, Okanagan Valley, Banff and Lake Louise before jetting to Los Angeles to visit relatives there.

St. Mary's Anglican Church reports an overwhelming response to the annual rummage sale held Saturday at Wrixon Hall.

Despite the inclement weather, the anticipated crowds turned out and sales exceeded those of any previous year due to the unstinting efforts of workers and contributors alike.

Mrs. Joanna Southwell and her new daughter, Becky Nicole, are visiting grandma Margaret Southwell, 237 Church Street South while Becky's father, David, is on company business in Chicago.

Becky Nicole, who was born in York Central Hospital on September 16, is also the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bourjeaurd, 230 Richmond Street.

Cameron Martel, 187 Mill Street, was named top student in economics in a special banking course held at York University and, as a result, has received a $100 award from the Institute of Canadian Bankers, the educational arm of the Canadian Bankers' Association.

Mr. Martel was one of 177 bank students to receive a total of 189 awards through 42 participating universities. Lecture courses are directed by university officers and co-ordinated by local branch managers or bank regional officers. Prime purpose of the ICB is to train young bankers for branch management or other specific management responsibilities.

An employee of the Bank of Nova Scotia for the past three years, Mr. Martel is now working at the Richmond Hill Branch, 43 Yonge Street South.

Richmond Hill's first co-operative nursery school, Top O' The Hill, is back in full swing for the fall with full mature teachers planning and supervising constructive and creative activities for the tots of the community.

Because it is a co-operative, the mothers who are free to do so assist professional staff, the ratio of children to teachers can be kept small, providing individual attention to youngsters and preparing them for the wider world of kindergarten a year from now.

Top O' The Hill, with headquarters in Wrixon Hall, St. Mary's Anglican Church, provides a varied daily agenda buffered by field trips to zoos, local conservation areas, the fire hall, police station, a sugar bush and many other interesting places.

Soon the children will be preparing for a Halloween party, and thereafter each seasonal highlight will be marked by appropriate festivities.

Although registration is restricted to no more than eight children for each teacher, there are still a few openings. For information call 884-8276 or 884-7012.

The 1971-72 program of the York Regional Symphony was impressive and the orchestra, again under leadership of Philip Budd, intends to maintain a hot pace in the 1972-73 season.

The YRS aims to please those with an ear for good music, to intrigue those who are uncertain and to supply basic education in the good sound for those who have not yet been exposed to it.

Believing that good music belongs in the schoolroom as well as the concert hall, the orchestra frequently demonstrates in the school auditorium. The first such concert of this season is scheduled for December 1 in Langstaff Secondary School under sponsorship of the Maple Home and School Association.

The new season develops with a wine and cheese concert in Bradford, and later, in Richmond Hill, a presentation of Hayden's magnificent oratorio "Creation", in conjunction with the Richmond Hill Ecumenical Choir. Details of other engagements will be announced later.

The new illuminated sign outside St. Mary's Anglican Church will be dedicated at the 10:30 am service on Sunday. The sign, in loving memory of William Charles, has been given to the church by Mabel Charles, son Ray and family.

The 5th Richmond Hill Cubs, combining Lobo and Mang Packs, meet every Monday evening in Richmond Hill United Church Hall at 7 pm. Cubmaster Bud Woodridge reports there is still room for new members. For information call 884-6850. For uniforms to buy or sell, call 884-8739.

Tense? Jumpy? Tied up in knots? Richmond Hill YWCA is starting a new program October 25 at Don Head Secondary School, Major Mackenzie Drive, and both men and women are invited to take part in the program, learning the theory and practise of "Living With Your Tensions". Classes will begin at 8 pm each Wednesday.

Tom and Betty Pitt, 427 Crosby Avenue, are entertaining Betty's twin sister, Joan, her husband, Ernest Warman, and their son Timothy from Woolacombe, North Devon, England.

This is the Warmans' second visit to Richmond Hill and they say that our town has developed into a very attractive place.

Mrs. Celeste Davis, 120 Lucas Street, entertained several friends at an afternoon get-together for Mrs. Warman.

Two activities planned for St. Mary's Anglican Church have been postponed. The Canadian Bible Society Walkathon scheduled for Saturday of last week will take place this Saturday instead.

Also, the first meeting of all confirmation groups will not take place on October 13 as announced earlier. These meetings will be held on October 25. Children are asked to come at 5 pm, youth at 7 pm and adults and older young people at 7:30 pm.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Anderson, 435 Balkan Road, were guests at the wedding of their niece, Jocelyn Mouat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson of Toronto, and Dr. Robert Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Green. Mrs. Green, who has a bachelor of nursing degree, will do public health nursing in Barrie where they will live. Dr. Green will be in general practice.

There will be a newspaper pick-up on streets west of Yonge Street in the old Town of Richmond Hill on Friday. Students of Richmond Hill High School are renewing their monthly paper drive and plan to make the round after school hours on the first Friday of each month.

Bundles should be securely tied and placed at the front of the driveway, or papers may be taken to the back door of the school any week day up to 4:30 pm. The area to be covered by the students is bounded by Yonge Street, Bathurst Street, Major Mackenzie Drive and Elgin Mills Road.

Attention boys and girls, tots and teens! The Richmond Hill Lions Club is forming a junior boys drum corps as an addition to its majorette corps. Also, the majorette corps is adding a tiny tots group to the corps and is looking for girls 3 to 6 who would like to take a whirl at being miniature majorettes.

First registration for new members was yesterday (Wednesday) at 6:30 pm. Interview may be arranged through Brenda Bakonyit, 884-6512 for tiny tots majorettes and through Arnold Sager, 884-6795, for the junior boys drum corps.

The Richmond Hill Chapter, IOOE, held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frederick Gatlin, 230 Cedar Avenue, with Regent Mrs. Thomas Sanford in the chair. Plans for the fall and winter season include a series of whist parties.

The annual party for Richmond Hill Senior Citizens was discussed and the chapter will once again be joining the Ladies Auxiliary to Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion, in this project.

Mrs. Catlin reported that the chapter assisted at the recent Red Cross blood donor clinic in Richmond Hill.

Farewell Margot!

Liberal Publisher Sam Cook makes a presentation to Social Editor Margot Crack on behalf of her fellow staff members. Mrs. Crack has retired after 16 years service with the paper's news staff. She edited a lively and interesting column of social events in Richmond Hill. Her successor is fellow staff member Margaret Lade who is looking forward to maintaining the happy relationship with the Liberal readers established by her predecessor.

Robinson - Rogers

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Biggin, 165 Millpond Court, have just returned from a week's vacation in Vermont where Mrs. Biggin climbed her first mountain. It was a three mile hike from the end of the road to the top of the mountain, where they stopped to relax and have lunch, Mrs. Biggin reports.

St. Matthews United Church is Setting For August Wedding

Tall standards of mauve and yellow gladioli decorated the front of St. Matthew's United Church, Richmond Hill East, on August 19, for the marriage of Pamela Jean Rogers to John William Robinson. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, all of Richmond Hill. The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. She was radiant in a dress of organza over taffeta, fashioned on a fitted A-line, with a high neckline, full sheer sleeves and a chapel train. The bodice of the dress was embroidered in hand-beaded pearls. A floor-length veil trimmed with lace applique, fell from an exquisite beaded headpiece. Her bouquet was a lovely purple orchid, arranged with white carnations, baby's breath, and trailing ivy. The bride was attended by Miss Mary-Lou Stone as maid-of-honor, her sister Carol Ann Rogers as bridesmaid, and the groom's sisters Debra and Lori Robinson as bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid.

The maid-of-honor and junior bridesmaid were gowned in lavender floral dresses of georgette over taffeta, fashioned in empire styling with sheer butterfly sleeves. The other two bridesmaids wore similar dresses of gold georgette over taffeta. The girls wore white wide-brimmed hats trimmed in ribbon and carried baskets of feathered pink carnations, baby's breath and yellow star-flowers. The groom was assisted by Keith Holtze as best man, his uncle Dennis Owen and cousin Craig Toy as ushers, and the bride's cousin Steven Rogers as usher. The groom wore a white brocade tuxedo with black trim. His ushers were outfitted in mauve and white brocade with black lapels and pants. Rev. Stanley Snowden of Maple, officiated at the 4 pm double-ring ceremony. Gwynn Owen, the groom's grandfather, obliged the couple by singing "The Lord's Prayer" during the service and "Such Lovely Things" during the signing of the register. The reception was held at the Firefighter's Club, in North York. There were 120 guests in attendance. The bride's mother received the guests in a floor-length empire gown of peach organza over taffeta. She wore matching shoes and purse with an orange and black tiger corsage pinned to her purse. Her hair was adorned with peach-colored flowers. The groom's mother met the guests in a long chiffon gown of azure blue, styled in an empire line and falling into accordion pleats. She also wore matching shoes and purse with a phalaenopsis orchid decorating her purse. Her hair was styled with light blue flowers. Mrs. Cecil Simpson and Mrs. Gwynn Owen, grandmothers of the groom, were on hand to greet the guests, in long gowns of hot pink and rust/yellow. Out-of-town guests were from Washington, D.C., Collingwood, Saskatoon and Toronto. Two telegrams were received from friends in Kent, England. The happy couple left for a short honeymoon, dressed in coordinating navy and white outfits. They have now taken up residence in Willowdale.

Duplicate Bridge

The winners on September 25 were north-south Marie and Stewart Cole, east-west Ross Jenkinson and George Payment. On Friday last Ross and Sandy Jenkins, and tied for second and third place were Peter and Willie Molevelt and Cathy Millree and Pat Rawlinson.

New members are welcome with or without partners. For information call Marie Cole at 773-4280.

Miss Margaret McLeod, a deaconess student from the graduating class of Ewart College, will be spending much of her time this year working with the congregation of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church. Her special interests and training are in the fields of Christian Education and youth work. Before coming to Ontario Miss McLeod lived in the Cabot Trail and Sydney areas of Cape Breton.

CGIT Doings

By Shirley Brown
At our first meeting of the season September 20, we decided to do a mission project on India. We girls have collected information from magazines to help set up the project which is to be displayed at Richmond Hill United Church when it is completed.

We are very eager to get going on creation of novelties for the poinsettia tea (date to be announced). We have a lot of different ideas and things to make, and we hope everyone will come out to make this project a big success.

For more information call Mrs. Barbara Smith, 884-9429.
