LOOKING AROUND

IN THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE

Congratulations to Helen and Barry Ingraham on the birth of their first son, last Sunday morning at York Central Hospital. Congratulations also to Bertha and Gordon Ingraham of Malaren Road, on this, their first grandchild. Mother and son are both doing well.

Congratulations to Ray Belmore of Willowdale, the $500 winner of the September Maple Lions Arena Draw and to Cam Milani of Thornhill the winner of the $250 ticket.

The men of the Lions Club would like to extend a hearty "Thank You" to Dominion Welding of Keele Street North, and to the two men, Peter Vincent and Dave Garnier who gave a full day of their time and material to complete the welding required on the Lions' cabs, recently acquired for publicity purposes. Through the generosity of Dominion Welding and these two men, as well as Lions members, the work was completed.

Although we have not yet received reports from the Oktoberfest, held last Saturday, we do know that the baseball was held over for the following day, and winner of the round robin baseball tournament with participants from King City, Kleinburg, Oak Ridges and Maple was the Oak Ridges team.

Special thanks from Al Taylor and the rest of the Lions to all those who gave their time on Sunday to help make this event successful.

Plans were made for the members of the Maple Club to entertain members invited from several adjoining senior citizens clubs last Monday afternoon to see a film presented by Harry Elkins.

Wednesday September 25, a Travelways chartered bus left Maple with local members far outnumbered by their guests, for a five day trip to Elliott Lake, Sudbury, Sault Ste. Marie and Michigan. Along with Driver Frank Dale and Hostess Mrs. Louise Cooper were: Hilda

Allen, Florence Marwood, Roly Keffer, and Mary Marwood, actual members of the Maple club as well as Harry Jackson, from Thornhill, Helen Baker and Carrie Reade, Janet Keffer and Arthur Stong, from Richmond Hill; Gladys Maginn, Della Kit-chener, Gladys Mitchell, and Anna Kriusnias from Woodbridge; Ella Harris and Ada and Harold Dooks from King City; Luella Thompson and Clara Bell from Kleinburg and Sophia Smela, Ella Moody and daughter Irene Dickin, Jane Fielding and niece Myrtle Williamson of Weston.

The first stop was a coffee and rest stop at Waubesa, where the panic created by the sight of a busload of patrons on Monday morning ended with driver and hostess pressed into duty as waitress and cook.

A stop was made in Sudbury to see the "Big Nickel" and to descend 70 feet into a replica of a mine. The group was impressed by the barren aspect of this city, created mainly by the pollution from the mining industry.

The first night was spent at Elliott Lake where the leaves were a riot of vivid color in spite of the rain, described by some as a Scotch mist. Our impression was more one of a "London drizzle".

The second day was a short one, with only a bit over 100 miles travelled after a tour of Elliott Lake and some picture taking in spite of the weather. The second and third nights were spent at Sault Ste. Marie at the Wellington Court Motel, recommended by everyone on the tour.

Wednesday morning the group was up bright and early on a beautiful sunny day to board the train for the trip to the Agawa Canyon on the Algoma Central Railway. With the sun shining, the leaves were at their best, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed this highlight of the trip.

Thursday morning, the group headed across the Mackinac bridge and made a stop for a trip to Mackinac Island on the ferry. In spite of the damp chill weather, most were happy to have made this side trip, and would have stayed longer had the weather been more enjoyable.

Thursday evening was spent in Grayling, Michigan, where the time was spent playing cards for the evening, mainly because of the rain, coming down in torrents. We won't elaborate on pyjama parties, thunderstorms, and lost or misplaced belongings, in deference to those on the holiday.

Friday, the fifth and last day, began with threats of snow, with dark clouds hanging low, but developing into rain shortly after dinner.

Just before dinner, a stop was made at Frankenthum, Michigan, where the group visited the three Christmas stores, where Arthur Stong was confronted by a gentleman who approached him saying "I know you! I went to school with you!"

"This turned out to be 'Ozzie' Oswald Bagg. All along the trip our members met people they knew, since there were two other bus tours on the identical trip, and many were encountered, including Mrs. Grace Savers of Richmond Hill Senior Citizens.

Dinner was enjoyed at Zehnder's in Frankenthum, where an outstanding chicken dinner was served.

By the time the border was reached, the rain was coming down in earnest, and the rest of the trip was made, safely, as always, but under hazardous conditions.

We do hope that all those who came down with colds or the virus that we have had this last weekend are well on the way to recovery, including Mrs. Harris, who had completely lost her voice before she got home. We also apologize for not putting more effort into the entertainment department, but hope to feel better on the next trip and will try to make up for the neglect.

Women's Institute
The September meeting of the Maple Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Doris Payne, September 13.

The roll call was answered with the name of a fruit or vegetable and the vitamin it contained. Twenty-four members were present. Members were told that the 70th Area Convention would be held at the Royal York Hotel, November 8, 9 and 10.

Rev. Gordon Hunter is to be the speaker at supper, November 9, at 6:30 pm.

A euchre and luncheon is to be held at Lasky October 11 at 12 noon. Price $1.50.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Jean Robson and Mrs. Payne, and their motto was "Being in a good frame of mind helps to keep one the picture of health".

Jean Robson read several poems after which she introduced her sister Mrs. Ruth Yates of Creemore. Ruth has a store in Creemore where she sells ceramic products she makes herself, and she displayed some of her products, as well as describing the work that is involved from the beginning to the finished article.

Mrs. Robson put on a one person skit called "It Don't Pay To Get Excited" which was both comical and interesting.

Lunch was served by the hostess and the lunch committee. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Baker, October 11 with the roll call to be handwork, done in leisure hours.

Church News
At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, on October 15, Rev. John V. Mills, BD, LLD of Woodbridge will be the speaker for the 143rd anniversary of the congregation.

St. Paul's, Vaughan will be closed for the day so that their congregation may unite with that of St. Andrew's.

Maple United Church Women began their fall activities with a friendly rally. Visitors joined them from their sister UCW group in Scarborough, from King City, Richmond Hill, Woodbridge and from their neighboring Maple churches to hear Mrs. Margaret Andrew challenge them to open the doors of their Christian faith, and to be treated to a beautiful solo by Mrs. Norm Garriock. An hour of fellowship concluded a happy evening.

The units held their regular monthly meetings September 19, and both units began their study of Africa with a film strip "Garth Lege Reports on Africa". Plans were made for the annual smorgasbord supper in the Christian Education building, October 13. Admission is to be by advance sale ticket only. (Please see coming events column of "The Liberal" or call Mrs. Kay Jones at 832-2509 for information).

The Happy Holiday Fair will be November 11 this year.

This year is "Banner Year" in York Presbyterian and on September 26 10 members accompanied the president, Mrs. Zetta Thurston, to St. Matthew's United Church in Richmond Hill. This beautiful modern church was completely hung with banners from about 40 churches in the York Area and it was a thrilling sight. The Maple Banner depicted the church and was bordered with maple leaves in their fall colors. It was designed and executed by Mrs. Thurston, Mrs. Evelyn Evans and Mrs. Yvonne

Peli, and those in attendance were very proud of it, an exciting climax to a busy and rewarding month.

Cancer Society
The annual meeting of the Maple branch of the cancer society was held September 20 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Amos, Keele Street, and was well attended.

The slate of officers for the coming year is: President Mrs. Lynn James, Vice-President and Secretary, Mrs. Jennie Cave, Treasurer Mrs. Margaret Amos, Campaign Mrs. Joyce Elkins Commemoration Fund Miss Patsy McLachlan, Education Mrs. Bette Hansen, Publicity Mrs. Marywyn Thompson, Service to Patients Mrs. Marjorie Brook, Transportation Mrs. Muriel Rose, Medical Advisor Dr. Peter Granger.

Some of the activities during the 1971 year were noted as follows: 78 and a half dozen pamphlets, 545 calendars, 2 comic books and 160 bookmarks were placed in various places in the community. Transportation was provided for 5 patients, 11 drivers travelled 1,050 miles in 80 and three quarters hours, 25 trips were made. A visiting nurse was arranged for two patients. One patient was supplied with a Red Cross homemaker for three nights.

Two patients received 1,400 dressings, 25 hospital and 4 home visits were made. A plant was sent to one patient, and four Christmas gifts and 10 other gifts sent to patients in hospital. Numerous home phone calls were made and 30 cards were sent.

The spring campaign was most successful with $5,856.07 collected. Sixteen donations to the commemoration fund, totaling $142.80, were received.

A public report of the annual meeting Maple Branch, cancer society was reported to "The Liberal" and during the campaign in April there was a display in Perry's Drug Store and posters were placed in stores, banks and places of business in Maple and Concord.

CARS
Once again the response to the annual Canadian Arthritis Society's drive in Maple has been a generous one.

If there is anyone who has been missed by their canvasser and would still like to support this most worthy cause, please send cheques or money orders to CARS, Box 28, Maple.

Posters entered in the poster contest have been removed from store windows in the plaza and will be judged this week. Watch this column for future announcement of the winners.

Ladies Curling Club
A registration evening and meeting of the ladies curling club is to be held October 18 at 8 pm at the Joseph Gibson School in a classroom on the main floor. For further information on this club, please call Mrs. Marj Kightley at 832-1056, Mrs. Elsie Milne at 832-2469 or Mrs. Barb Ruttle at 832-1424.

Home and School
There are many parents who question the value and the effectiveness of the home and school association, and as an answer, excerpts of a letter received from Principal Roy Robson of the Joseph Gibson School by Home and School President Mrs. Eleanor Brown illustrates the answer to those who question.

Mr. Robson again expresses his thanks to the association and says, "The money you contributed is being used to plant annuals by our front door and to augment the kindergarten toy supply. More than the financial gift, the moral support you provide means much to us.

The dance in November I feel was a huge success and did much to set the tone for a successful year."

The dance effort will be repeated again this year, October 20 with admission $7 per couple.

Ladies Bowling League
The third night of ladies' bowling brought about some interesting results! The Scoundrels are off to the races by now, winning all seven points over the Beggars. Likewise the Tramps took seven points away from the Scamps. The Rovers gained five points, leaving the Hobos with 2 and similarly, the Rascals gained five points, leaving the Rogues with 2.

Now we reveal the standings: Rovers 17, Rascals 13, Scoundrels 12, Beggars 12, Rogues 11, Tramps 9, Hobos 8, Scamps 2.

Some of the new girls have improved their scores extremely well in just three short weeks. One is Audrey Ross, who accomplished the high single for the week with 278. Barb Gauthier accomplished the highest triple yet, totalling 704, and she has a fantastic high average of 216.

The secretary's apologies go out to two of our most conscientious bowlers for not mentioning their shared high single of 271 last week. Their names: Det Palmer and Marg Crook. Nevertheless, Sydell Cook is still holding her own with the over-all high of 289.

Silver Wedding
This Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Everard Kellam, RR 1, Nashville will be celebrating their Silver Wedding Anniversary.

By resolution of Council passed at a meeting held September 11th, 1972, I hereby proclaim Saturday, October 7th, 1972
WOODBIDGE DAY
G. A. WILLIAMS, Mayor

Hundreds of members of the United Church Women in York Presbyterian crowded St. Matthew's United Richmond Hill East September 26 for Banner Day. Each branch in the Presbyterian presented and described its newly-made banner.

Colorful Banners Feature Presbyterian Meet

"Listen Here! God's Church is Alive and Well!" This was the theme repeated over and over in St. Matthew's United Church, Richmond Hill, September 26, as York Presbyterian UCW held their "Banner Day". Women from all part of York Presbytery proudly presented their banners (one from each group) and interpreted their meaning to the enthusiastic audience in the crowded sanctuary. More than 30 banners were presented and as the day progressed there was increasing evidence of the diversity of interests and talents of the UCW, who channel into action their purpose, "To unite all women of the congregation for the total mission of the church and to provide a medium through which they may express their loyalty and devotion to Jesus in Christian witness, study fellowship and service." Presbyterian President Mrs. Hill United were in charge of the worship service. Mrs. Joan welcomed the large attendance Plume, accompanied by Mrs. Gloria Park, was the soloist. The St. Matthew's Players presented a skit "The Clean Church".

Preceding the lunch hour former presidents of York Presbyterian assisted in lighting candles and cutting a 10th birthday cake. They were: Dr. Margaret Arkinstay of Queensville, Mrs. Mary Sylvester Jones of Uxbridge, Mrs. William Shillingway of Mount Albert, Mrs. Elsie Montgomery of Uxbridge, Mrs. Donald Findlay of King City. Speaker during the afternoon was the United Church's Super Salesman Rev. Robert Plant, who was introduced by Mrs. Norm Garriock of Woodbridge. He enforced the general feeling of the whole day—that the church is alive and well in the world today and we are responsible for keeping it that way.

The Voice of Concord

The grade 1 class of Mrs. Ellen Teetsov went on a class excursion to the Burlington Outdoor Resource Centre where they went on a nature walk looking and talking about what they saw such as colored leaves, certain kinds of trees and insects.

Mrs. Teetsov presided over a cookout lunch which the children enjoyed.

Our condolences to John Cole on the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Jean Cole, in her 91st year on September 26.

Keep Sunday evening, October 22, open for the special music of the Centennial Girls Choir. They will lead in a special service starting at 7 pm.

Sunday is Thanksgiving Sunday, when we decorate our church with the products of our hands and his grace.

Neighborhood Notes
It's good to see Pat and Joan Murphy home again from a four week holiday to the west coast. By all accounts the weather wasn't too bad, and they really enjoyed themselves.

Thought for To-day
Everytime I pass a church I pay a little visit.
So when at last I'm carried in, the Lord won't say "Who is it?"

It makes absolutely no sense to buy a one year investment certificate.

A Guaranty Trust GO-5 investment certificate pays exactly the same interest (6%) as an ordinary one year investment certificate. But if you don't cash in your GO-5 after one year and keep it for another year, you'll get 6¾% interest the second year. If you don't cash in your GO-5 after two years, you'll get 7% interest the third year. If you don't cash in your GO-5 after three years, you'll get 7½% interest the fourth year. If you don't cash in your GO-5 after four years, you'll get 7¾% interest the fifth year. Interest payable semi-annually. Minimum investment $500.
