

Committed For County Court Trial

For Dealing In Killer Drug "Speed"

A young man said to be dealing in, and delivering the illicit killer drug methamphetamine (speed) here in York Region earlier this year was in Richmond Hill Court Thursday of last week and was committed to Provincial Judge Maurice Charles for trial in County Court by judge and jury.

Watson, 20, of 30 Wakanda Place, Apartment 3, Scarborough elected trial by judge and jury after pleading innocent through Defense Attorney David Hobson of Richmond Hill.

Federal Prosecutor Howard Bockner chose to proceed by indictment.

Detective Delaney testified he took the white powder to the Dominion Analyst Laboratory in Metro for investigation.

Defense Attorney Hobson said Watson had nothing to say in his defense at the preliminary and was offering no defense witnesses at that time.

Watson's August 28 bail of $200 was continued by Judge Charles and Watson was committed for trial in County Court during the next sessions there.

Patrick Allen, 22, formerly of Thornhill and resident at 6020 Bathurst Street was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for three years for a crime involving a $1,128 loan theft from the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Yonge Street and Steeles Avenue, Thornhill.

PAY BACK $1,000

Judge Charles told Allen he must observe the terms of a very tight probation, live at home, get a job and pay back $1,000 over two years in equal monthly instalments. The judge told Allen to behave himself or else he would get "three years" if he brought back before me.

An absolute discharge was granted James Macdonald, 27, of 1602 Bayview Avenue, Toronto after he admitted a minor theft July 30 from Imperial Oil Company in Markham.

SLEPT IN JAIL

He was arrested at the CN rail yard entrance after being escorted to that point by CN police, Crown Attorney William Rankin told the court.

Harvey said he slept in jail and was given a suspended sentence.

Paul O'Neill, 43 Parkside Drive, Newmarket was convicted of a June 28 Vaughan Town illegal possession of liquor charge. He was fined $10 or two days jail and the liquor was confiscated by the court.

Police checked a car on Keele Street and found a half case of ale, Crown Attorney Rankin said.

Fernhout-Martin

At 3 pm Saturday, my daughter gently took my arm and asked to be walked down the aisle. It was at a small country church, St. John's Anglican in Bond Head, Jake, a friend of the couple, played the organ and Linda, looking as I had never seen her, slowly and gracefully moved into a new world. The ceremony was conducted by the minister, Rev. Herbert Bull. Linda Martin was wed to David Fernhout and the church bell pealed out its happy sound high in the steeple.

The best man was Jamie Van Ry. The maid of honor was Julia Martin, ushers were Fred Fernhout and Michael Martin and the bridesmaid was Sandra Martin. The flowergirl was Barbie Fernhout.

The reception held at the Ukrainian Hall in Bradford was a lot of fun and the young couple left at about 10 pm with the traditional tin can on the back of David's car.

Neighborhood Notes

The Richvale Lionettes are holding an open house at 31 Spruce Avenue, October 11 at 1:30 to 4:30 pm. Madame Rita will be in attendance to read tea cups and there will also be a door prize. Admission is 50c and the proceeds will be given to the retarded children's fund. This is something well worth helping so make a tick in your date book, and you never know what Madame Rita may find hidden deep in your cup.

Senior Citizens

Mrs. Agnes Chenery is in York Central Hospital recuperating from an operation. William Johnson, of Garden Avenue, our former president is back home from his second stay in hospital, and is glad to say he is feeling great!

Mrs. Alexander, telephone 889-1398, reports there are a few spare seats for anyone wishing to accompany them on their color tour to the Caledon Hills October 18. The bus leaves the Lion's hall at 10 am, returning at about 7 pm. The cost is only $5, including a lovely dinner.

Throughout the year the seniors are busy fund-raising to finance these outings. Their bazaars feature many lovely handicrafts done by them at home and at their meetings.

A Chinese auction is a real "fund" raising scheme of Mrs. Alexander's, which the seniors enjoy among themselves, each one bringing and taking something home, costing 25 cents for their chances!

Lionettes

The Lionettes wish to remind you about their coming tea, October 11, 1:30-4:30 pm at the Lions Hall, 31 Spruce Avenue.

Social

Carol McDonald is giving a coffee party for Liberal Candidate Barney Danson at her home, 38 Marvale Crescent, October 13 at 10 am. Any adults wishing to meet or question him will be most welcome. Please call 889-2705.

Sunday, October 1, rounded out the first season for Danny, 18 year old son of Ray and Shirley Stunden of 51 Spruce Avenue, who entered his horse in shows for the first time at Schomberg, May 28, taking ribbons there and each of six successive shows around including a third and sixth in the quarter horse division of the Canadian National Exhibition. A good start Danny!

Blue skies and warm sunshine blessed the wedding of Roy Carter of 39 Spruce Avenue to Janet Smith on September 23. Father John Weber officiated at the ceremony at St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church, Yonge and Dufferin. The reception took place at the local Lions hall, 31 Spruce Avenue.

Churches

In the Richvale Bible Chapel, Friday there will be a general meeting for young people to discuss future plans.

St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic church needs more members for the choir, Tuesday evening at 7:30 pm in the church.

The ski club meeting had to be cancelled September 28 (too late to publish). It is now scheduled for Thursday (tonight) at 8 pm in the church basement. A trip to Austria is being planned for those interested.

The Christian Family Movement is to enrich one's family life, to work for and with others to help make better changes for one's family and community.

The Patersons of 12 Claridge Drive, telephone 889-6318, who are directing the CFM for the Richvale area, welcome new couples into one of the two groups now in the parish. Meetings will start October 11. These will rotate in one of about 10 homes every two weeks. The format is a discussion with a lead couple giving direction.

Cubs and Scouts

The mother's auxiliary will be holding their next meeting in the library October 18 at 10 am. Anyone having cub or scout uniforms to sell or exchange can call Joan Ricard, 889-0884.

The YWCA classes in "Slim and Trim," "Take-a-Break" will have to be cancelled for Richvale if there are not at least 10 registrations for each activity. If interested in simple exercising to music, crafts, discussions, demonstrations, becoming a free model to a local hairstylist visiting the class, join the Monday morning group. More strenuous exercising for those in need of it are planned for Wednesday evenings. Please sign up immediately or phone 884-4811.

About 25 students from Langstaff Secondary School spent an exciting, but somewhat chilly weekend camping at the Grand Prix at Mosport September 22-24.

Congratulations Langstaff, on your 25 point victory over Bayview in the first football game of the season!

Court NEWS

WHITE POWDER

Watson was searched. In the left hand pocket of his jacket was a plastic bag containing 24 grams of white powder and a small spoon, plus another plastic bag containing 126 small plastic coin bags. Watson also had $91 in cash, said Sergeant Hillock.

Asked what the powder was, Watson said it was "crystal" or "speed". Asked what he was doing Watson replied he was delivering, said the detective.

Then asked, "Do you deal in speed?" Watson replied "Yes", Sergeant Hillock said.

IMMEDIATE ARREST

Watson was immediately arrested. This was at 4:25 pm and 1 1/2 blocks from police headquarters, Hillock said.

GIVEN OPPORTUNITY

"I'm giving you an opportunity to go straight. It's entirely up to you" said the judge reminding the young man the theft would be noted in police files and remembered if he got in further trouble.

John Robertson, 23, of 7511 Kipling Avenue, Woodbridge was committed for trial by judge and jury on April charges of forgery and uttering.

WELL KNOWN NAMES

Involved was a $171 cheque payable to a Norman Gerrard and signed by York Region Chairman Garfield Wright and York Region Treasurer John Hlynski.

Donald Harvey, 40, of 2020 Sheppard Avenue, Toronto, was convicted for being drunk in a public place at 2:15 am September 28 on Keele Street north of Highway 7.
